PEACE IS HIS CRY.

Root Invites World to Abjure War.

Banquet of Kansas City Commercial Club Is Notable Diplomatic Event.

Latin Delegates Echo Sentiments of American Secretary of State.

Southern Envoys Assert That Trade of Sister Republics Is Ours for Asking.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) Nov. 19.—World-wide peace, substantial and enduring, made possible by closer commercial and friendly relations between nations, was the keynote of a notable speech delivered here today by Elihu Root, Secretary of State. Following Secretary Root, the diplomatic representatives of Latin American republics made speeches along the same line, offering trade extension between the countries of South and North America as a method of bringing these countries into closer and more lasting friendship. The occasion was the twelfth annual banquet given by the Kansas City Commercial Club in commemoration of the signing of the John Jay commercial treaty. Five hundred plates were laid and many notable persons were present.

MINISTER JOHN BARRETT, who sees in the presence of South American delegates at Kansas City a new era in the affairs of the two hemispheres.

Besides Secretary Root the speakers, in the order of their rank, were:

Ignacio Calderon, Minister of Bolivia.

Felipe Pardo, Minister of Peru.

Enrique Cortes, Minister of Colombia.

Sylvino Gurgel de Amaral, first secretary of the Brazilian Legation.

Alberto Yoacham, chargé d'affaires of the Chilean Legation.

John Barrett, United States Minister to Colombia.

Dr. William Jay Schieflin, New York, great grandson of John Jay, who spoke to the toast, "The value of the life and example of John Jay."

E. H. Harriman, president of the Union Pacific Railway, who talked informally on trade conditions generally.

Secretary Root, who addressed himself to the toast, "Our relations with South America," said, in part, as follows:

TO ABOLISH WAR.

"Since John Jay made the tariff treaty, which is commemorated by the annual dinner of this club, the United States has passed through a period of comparative isolation and indifference in foreign affairs. The fathers of the republic, who, in their early lives, were colonists, were naturally familiar with European affairs.

"The whole course of colonial life, followed by the French alliance and the early wars of Great Britain, was one of intimate relation with Europe. The young republic, bounded on the north by the British provinces, on the south by Florida and Louisiana, the possessions of Spain and France, and to the west by savage tribes under foreign influences, the navigation of the Mississippi blocked at the mouth by foreign guns and with an extensive ocean-borne commerce, had to be keenly alive to foreign influence and the course of foreign diplomacy; but when our southern and western borders were relieved from these influences and the end of the exhaustive Napoleonic wars had led Europe to turn its strength toward its own internal affairs, and the colonization and trade of the Orient had begun to absorb the surplus activity of Europe, we turned our attention to our own internal matters, and for a long period ceased to take much note of what was going on abroad, or to be much concerned with the way in which

IN TOUCH WITH EUROPE.

"Now, however, our growth has been so great as to bring us again on the wider field of the world's trade and constructive enterprise into contact with all the great and active nations of mankind. We have entered anew, whether we will or not, by the necessities of our development into the field of intimate relations with all the nations of the earth.

"It is a field in which the guiding principle laid down by Washington, of CONDITIONS IN CUBA REACHING A CLIMAX.

Little Left of Peace Established by Taft—Apprehension Increases at Washington—Magoon May Not Be Able to Prevent Violence.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Apprehension in Washington over the Cuban situation has increased rapidly within the last few days.

Secretary Taft created a condition of peace when he visited Havana, but today there is small remainder of the pacification.

Every word that comes from Cuba tells of dissension and disaffection.

Cabinet officials know that the present trouble is made graver because there was not the proper time for this government to formulate a definite plan as to Cuban affairs.

Gov. Magoon, practically without preparation, was sent into the very heart of the game of revengeful cross purposes, and full of possibilities—even probabilities—of dire difficulties.

If the Governor is able to prevent violence in the island until election, he will accomplish that which it is feared cannot be accomplished.

The administration and Secretary Root are determined that lawful government shall exist in Cuba, and that under it there shall be safeguarded free elections, independent courts and self-government.

"LOSING THEIR HEADS."

HAVANA, Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Evidences are multiplying that the Liberal leaders are losing their heads. Juan Gualberto Gomez, one of the Liberals' negro orators, wrote an editorial, published in La Lucha a few days ago, threatening another revolution if the Americans did not soon get out of the country and hand it over to them. Gen. Loinez del Castillo, at a meeting of the party last night, had this to say:

"Every Liberal at this meeting should commence by protesting against the continuance of the intervention. The American weighs on the wellbeing of the republic like a heavy curse."

There were other speeches of the same import, that of Señora Isabel Solano being like a bouquet full of thorns.

"Cubans should get together," she declared, "and drive the strangers from their shores; not by force, unless it be of absolute necessity, but by strewing flowers on their homeward path to make it the more inviting to them."

A local report says: "These words were greeted with deafening applause, showing well the sentiments of the gathering."

STANDARD OIL MEN GIVE UP TO LAW.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TOLEDO (O.) Nov. 19.— [Exclusive Dispatch.] H. P. McIntosh, J. M. Robertson and M. G. Vilas, resident directors of the Standard Oil Co., in Ohio, surrendered to the law, today, and as they appeared in Findlay were promptly placed under arrest by Deputy Sheriff Wesley Johns, whom they evaded in Cleveland.

Shortly afterward, the men entered appearance before Judge Duncan in the Common Pleas Court, and were freed on $1000 bond, which was furnished by T. B. Talmadge.

Judge Duncan gave the defense till December 21 to examine the indictments and file motions, which will be heard on the 6th

The three directors, with Attorney Tolles and Talmadge, left for Cleveland on the 1:19-o'clock train. Before he left, Tolles had the following to say:

"I think these local suits are ill-advised, as the question of Standard Oil's character is now finally up in the United States court at St. Louis, and will be determined there. If that court finds that we are doing business illegally, we will have to quit, that is all. These other suits don't amount to anything."

BOOMERANG FIRED BY THE "EXPRESS".

ONLY, one answer is necessary to the contemptible mud-throwing that the Gates managers have begun against Dr. Lindley, and that is a statement of this fact:

A grand jury investigated these old exploded charges made in the Express and not only exonerated Dr. Lindley but in their report commended his management of the Whittier school in the highest terms.

THE EVENING EXPRESS has discovered a political mare's nest in an old grand jury investigation made into the affairs of the State school at Whittier when Dr. Lindley was superintendent of that institution.

Stripped of all the circumlocution, with the facts (that are so twisted and contorted in the Express) made plain, a few words of exact truth exactly in accord with what happened will reduce the whole page of contorted statements to a very small hole in a very small doughnut from which the doughnut is gone.

As alleged by the Express, charges were made of mismanagement in the State school at Whittier, but these charges were aimed at the trustees, and not at Dr. Lindley, the superintendent.

The grand jury appointed an alleged expert to investigate the affairs of the school, and he took a professional auditor into his services to go over the books. The appointee of the grand jury was J. M. Guinn, now a Non-Partisan party worker for Gates. Guinn, with the aid of his expert auditor, arrived at the conclusion that there was never anything quite so wrong as the Whittier Reform School.

Now, a very significant fact in this connection, one which must have great bearing in the minds of all fair-minded people, is that Prof. Guinn thought he had abundant reason for cherishing a personal grouch against Dr. Lindley. Lindley had been a member of the School Board in Los Angeles and Prof. Guinn wanted to be Superintendent of Schools, but Dr. Lindley was instrumental in obtaining the appointment for a person whom he thought more competent than Guinn, and he impressed this view upon the whole School Board.

In Prof. Guinn's report an attempt was made not only to represent the State school at Whittier as a sink of corruption and mismanagement, but to draw Dr. Lindley into the alleged slough together with the trustees.

Now, the grand jury turned down this whole report as utterly unworthy of attention. The buying of supplies for the Whittier State school was under the direction of the trustees, and Dr. Lindley's connection with this matter was simply in swearing to the correctness of the bills, that these things had been bought and delivered to the State school for the use of the school. If there was anything improper in the purchase, that was a matter concerning the trustees, and not the superintendent.

Judge B. N. Smith, who was on the bench in the department of the Superior Court under which this grand jury was acting, and to whom the report of the majority was made, dismissed the whole matter as unworthy the attention of the grand jury. It is a well-known fact that the jury was unanimous in this action, with the single exception of its foreman. The foreman seems to have considered it a matter of comparative unimportance, for although he made out a minority report, he neglected to lay it before the court until after the grand jury had finished its work, made its final report to the court, and had been discharged and dissolved. The court dismissed it.

So far as Dr. Lindley is concerned, the grand jury's report completely exonerated him and went so far as to warmly compliment him on his management of the school.

Now, there are all the facts in a nutshell. No array of paid bills dug up out of musty corners, although they may stretch out to cover whole pages instead of whole columns, can change the truth.

That there was anything left uncovered by the expert appointed to investigate the school is beyond the bounds of conjecture, for Prof. Guinn's feelings were sufficiently warm to urge him on to unearthing the last fact that by any twisting might be made to appear a reflection upon Lindley's management.

That Dr. Lindley's personal enemy was at the head and front of this investigation, and that it resulted in his vindication by the grand jury and the court—these two facts make the Guinn mud-story in the Express a boomerang that will elect Dr. Lindley Mayor, even as the machine lies about Ben Ward elected him.

The Times Oriental party is expected to leave Bakersfield about noon today and to arrive in Los Angeles on the Southern Pacific between 6 and 9 o'clock this evening. The party left Shasta Springs at 8 o'clock last night. All well.

FINAL RUPTURE WITH LAWSON.

BURRAGE IS FOUGHT WITH QUARTER-PAGE "ADS."

Stockholders of "Arcadian" Are "Circularized" by Thomas Not to Sell, But Buy More and Hold for Higher Prices—Rich Vein of Ore "Secretly Discovered."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Developments in the present market campaign of Arcadian stock show that Arcadian is being steadily bought by Standard Oil interests and Arcadian directors, and that the final rupture has come between Lawson, A. C. Burrage and Amalgamated Copper.

Lawson and Burrage are no longer together, and Lawson is using quarter-page "ads" to block Burrage Amalgamated scheme to get control of Arcadian at rock-bottom figures.

Lawson has "circularized" Arcadian stockholders and the public not to sell their stock, but to buy more and hold for higher prices, as the Arcadian management has secretly discovered a rich veing of copper which it has covered up till enough stock could be secured to get control.

A vein cut thirty feet wide shows at least eight feet of copper, which may be a continuation of the Baltic lode. It has cost "No. 26 Broadway men" $100,000 more for the stock owing to Lawson's opposition.

CHICAGO NEGRO LEADERS PLOT TO MOB TILLMAN.

All "Brave and Liberty-Loving Afro-American" Invited Through Their Newspaper Organ to Assemble and Prevent the Fire-Eating Southerner from Speaking of Cuba.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Angered by the discussion that has followed F. L. Barnett's campaign for the bench and other indications of an awakening of race prejudice in Chicago, negro leaders are planning an attempt to prevent the appearance of United States Senator Benjamin R. Tillman at Orchestra Hall a week from tomorrow.

Appeal was made today to "all brave and liberty-loving Afro-Americans in this city to assemble at Orchestra Hall and prevent Ben Tillman from speaking there."

The call appeared in the current issue of "The Broadax," a Chicago negro publication, having wide influence among the colored residents.

Steps were taken by the police without delay to prevent such an outcome.

Senator Tillman is announced to speak on the Cuban solution for the benefit of the Chicago Union Hospital.

Among the patronesses of the affair are such well-known women as Mrs. P. D. Armour, Mrs. John Crerar, Mrs. George W. Dixon, Mrs. Edward F. Dunne and Princess Engalitcheff.

GREAT FIRES ON PRAIRIES.

Western Portion of Texas Panhandle Swept of Crops and Stock.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

FORT WORTH (Tex.) Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Two immense prairie fires have just swept over the western portion of the Texas Panhandle, destroying a great deal of needed winter pasturage, and in some instances sweeping away large feed crops that had been gathered for winter and destroying considerable numbers of stock.

The first fire originated in Castro county from a steam plow operated eight miles south of Hereford. This fire rapidly spread over a large section of country, completely destroying the oyo pasture and burned over 50,000 acres of grass.

Another big fire originated in New Mexico and swept down west of Hereford, and it is estimated more than 100,000 acres of grass was destroyed by this fire.

TORE OUT COUNTRY.

Frightful Chaos Due to Floods.

All Rivers of the Mount Baker Mining District "Rip Snorters."

Fierce Onslaught Changes the Face of the Land, Isolating Mines.

Record Snowfall in Texas. Destruction in the South. Mexicans Suffer.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BELLINGHAM (Wash.) Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Frightful chaos reigns in the Slate Creek and Mount Baker mining districts, such as has not been known for a dozen years, because of the ravages of the floods.

In the last fortnight bridges have been swept away and trails and roads washed out.

It will take thousands of dollars to repair the damage, and it will be weeks before operations at the placers are restored to a normal condition.

MADDENED ONSLAUGHT.

All the rivers and tributaries were flooded to high-water mark, and they swept away trees, rocks and banks in their maddened onslaught.

Great trees actually walked down the stream, turning end over end on the rocky beds.

HALF-MILE WIDE FLOW.

A river half a mile wide pushed itself through the main valley of the Baker district.

For days the wide expanse of water, from two to six feet deep on the level, prevented all ingress or egress from the mines, and until today no word has been received from the camps for more than a week.

Miners who arrived in Bellingham today from the headwaters of the Nooksack say they have never seen such a rush fow ater in the Baker Mountains. With a hundred streams flowing into the river, it soon rose above its banks and invaded the forests in every direction, from hill to hill.

TRAIN SERVICE BETTER.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE (Wash.) Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The floods in the Northwest have receded, and there is little water outside of the river banks. Not more than three or four lives have been lost on account of the floods.

The general property loss is not great, the counties and the railroad companies being the heavy losers. A considerable number of county and railroad bridges have been swept away.

The transcontinental train service is being made by transfer without much delay. To reach Vancouver, B. C., it is necessary to transfer once.

The trip to Portland from Seattle may be made by boat to Tacoma, then by Northern Pacific to Olequa, where the boat is taken down stream to Castle Rock.

From the latter place to Portland the train service is complete. It is expected that the regular local and transcontinental service will be resumed this week.

RECORD SNOWFALL.

HEAVY LOSSES IN CATTLE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

EL PASO, Nov. 19.—At 6 o'clock tonight 8.4 inches of snow had fallen, breaking by three inches all records since the establishment of the United States Weather Bureau, nearly thirty years ago.

Reports from several points on the Mexican Central Railroad indicate that the storm extends well down into Mexico.

In New Mexico and throughout the Valley of El Paso there is great suffering and much heavy losses in cattle, the snowfall being unprecedented.

STATE SCHOOL WRECKED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

DECATUR (Ala.) Nov. 19.—The State Agricultural School at Athens, Ala., was wrecked by yesterday's storm and a number of houses at Athens were blown down. No loss of life is reported.

DISASTERS IN THE GULF.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

QUEBEC, Nov. 19.—Reports of disasters caused to shipping by recent gales in the gulf continue to arrive. The Norwegian iron ship Dybvag, which was loading lumber at Escoumaens, on the north shore, capsized Friday night and is a total loss. The crew are safe.

URGE THE PRESIDENT FOR AN INSPECTION.

Commercial Club of Seattle Takes Up the Matter of the Sinking of the Dix—Victims Went Down Shrieking—Horrible Tale Told by Captain.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SEATTLE, Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The horror of the appalling disaster was intensified by the addition of thirteen new names to the list of missing today, making a total of forty-nine. The names added are:

C. T. BENNETT, bartender, residence unknown.

AXEL CARLSON, planerman, Port Blakeley mill.

J. W. GEAL, shore clerk, Washington.

FRANK GOREON, Port Blakeley.

MRS. GEORGE LUBBERING, Port Blakeley.

MRS. H. LUBBERING, Port Blakeley.

MISS LUBBERING, her daughter.

ALBERT M'DONALD, tallyman, Port Blakeley.

WILLIAM M'KNIGHT, Seattle.

WILLIAM MAHER, Port Blakeley mill.

A. C. REYNOLDS, Port Blakeley mill.

JAMES SLOAN, tallyman, Port Blakeley mill.

Tonight, the body of Albert McDonald, a lumberman surveyor, was picked up off West Seattle by two of the searchers named George McPhie and James H. Woods, no other bodies have been recovered.

The Seattle Commercial Club is the first public body to take action in the matter of the wreck. Strong resolutions were adopted at a meeting tonight, addressed to the President, urging that special instructions be forwarded to Inspectors Whitney and Turner to conduct a vigorous investigation into the cause of collision.

Enforcement of the Federal statutes to their extent is demanded, and the resolutions call for the punishment of all responsible for the disaster, if the responsibility can be fully placed, and it is found that criminal negligence was involved.

Port Blakeley mills were closed down today for the first time in twenty years on account of the funeral.

The Commercial Club of Seattle, a leading organization of business and professional men, adopted strong resolutions addressed to the President urging that special instructions be given by the Chief Executive to the United States marine inspectors to conduct a searching inquiry into the disaster, and "order the strict enforcement of every statute covering the case." The resolutions call for the extreme penalty for violation of statutes if the responsibility can be placed.

Port Blakeley is in mourning, the mills are not running, and special preparations are on foot to hold memorial services for the victims.

Two Filipino boys claim to have swam ashore to a Seattle dock, a distance of six miles. Manuel Repeto and Berenavita Garcia are their names. They claim to be sailors. The story has not yet been confirmed.

CAPTAIN WAS GETTING FARES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SEATTLE (Wash.) Nov. 19.—Like most of the "mosquito fleet," the steamer Dix, which was struck and sunk by the Alaska Coast Company's steamer Jeanie, last night, off Duwamish Head, in Seattle harbor, did not carry a purser, and Capt. Percy Lermond was collecting fares when the collision occurred.

Charles E. Dennison, mate on the boat, was at the wheel, and he took his steamer directly across the bow of the Jeanie, which was en route to Tacoma from the Smith Cove docks with a cargo of ore and had the right of way.

The Jeanie signalled for the passing, but Dennison apparently lost control of himself, and turned his boat toward the approaching vessel. The two steamers were so close together that frightened passengers on the Dix's upper deck heard Capt. Mason's startled call from the Jeanie: "Where in hell are you going?" before the two vessels crashed together.

The Dix was struck abaft amidships and a moment later she listed heavily to port, taking water below.

PASSENGERS SWEPT OFF.

For a minute she hung there, then righted herself. The Dix was top-heavy, and she reeled drunkenly, and then, as she began making water rapidly, commenced to settle aft. Less than five minutes after the crash the Dix sank stern first into the waters of the Sound, the passengers being swept off her decks by the rush of the vessel into the water.

Of the seventy-nine or eighty passengers aboard the Dix, more than half were on the lower deck when the collision occurred. They were penned, like rats in a trap, and had absolutely no chance for their lives. One fifteen-year-old girl of all the survivors is known to have made her way from the lower deck and to have escaped with her life. All the members of the crew save Capt. Lermond, who happened to be above on his fare-collecting round, and a deckhand, went down with their steamer.

SIGNALS TO REVERSE.

When Capt. Mason from the Jeanie realized a collision was inevitable, he signalled his engineer to reverse his engine. Capt. Lermond says he heard a similar signal from the Dix's temporary commander, and the impact of the two vessels was comparatively gentle. The bowsprit of the Jeanie hit the upper works of the Dix and pushed her over to port with a force that was not sharp enough to crush the woodwork of the cabins. But the topheavy Sound steamer could not rally from the shock and went down.

There was no time to launch boats from the Dix, or even to throw overboard life belts or rafts. Bits of wreckage strewed the water, and toward these the frenzied passengers on deck leaped. Half a dozen jumped for the Jeanie's chains and hung there until pulled aboard the steamer. The rest were either imprisoned below or were swept from the deck when the boat settled a few minutes later.

STUNNED BY THE SHOCK.

From stories told by the survivors, men and women seem to have been stunned by the first shock, then to have fought like maniacs for a chance to escape.

A few caught in the upper cabin, smashed window lights and crawled out to a fighting chance in the icy waters of the Sound. Below the main deck, a frantic rush for the companionway resulted in a jam and the death of those imprisoned below.

Almost immediately after the collision, the Jeanie was stopped, and two lifeboats were swung into the water. The Jeanie stood by for three hours, while lifesavers answered cries for help. A few were drawn aboard the Jeanie by lines that had been thrown overboard, but most of the survivors were picked up by the two lifeboats.

officers of the Jeanie agree that it was light when the collision occurred, and the Jeanie, when darkness gathered, turned her searchlight upon the surrounding waters. So far as is known practically every one who managed to get free from the wreck was saved.

Immediately after the Jeanie brought the story of the collision to Seattle, the tugs Bahada and Tyee, the passenger steamer Florence K. and the Jeanie were ordered out to cruise about the Sound, for floating bodies. One by one the boats have put back this morning without having found any one.

The tide was ebbing when the collision occurred and if there were any bodies at the surface they have probably been swept far down the Sound. The others are likely buried with the Dix, 100 fathoms below the surface.

YOUNG FORD AGAIN SAVED.

Mrs. T. C. Ford, wife of the superintendent of the Port Blakeley mill, is the mother of the boy who was caught a few days ago in a burning launch and who was compelled to cling for hours to the side of the boat until help arrived. Her son is among the saved.

Louis Masters lost a brother, mother and stepfather. His own father, two years ago, was lost off a boat loading at the coal bunkers here, and his body remained seven weeks in the water before it was recovered.

Alice Simpson, the only female passenger out of four who was rescued, never swam a stroke in her life. She was thrown off the deck of the Dix when the boat settled into the water, and was kept afloat by her clothing. Today she is at Provident Hospital under the influence of opiates to quiet her nerves.

THREATENED CAPT. LERMOND.

Capt. W. A. Toby, master of the Invincible, loading at Port Blakeley with lumber, is said to have saved two lives besides his own. Toby vouches for the story that the passengers of the Dix who were saved bitterly arraigned Capt. Lermond and threatened his life.

All but one of the fliers in the big Port Blakeley mill were drowned in the Dix accident, and the lumber plant was idle until more help could be had. The entire force of lumber surveyors were on board the boat, and half of them were drowned.

Port Blakeley contributed almost the entire roll of the dead. Port Blakeley is a town supported entirely by the lumber plant of the Blakeley Mill Company, and the town today is almost helpless in its grief. Not a wheel is turning, and the entire population is trying at once to aid in some way the efforts to recover bodies. Memorial services for the dead will probably be held within a day or two.

FORTY-TWO DROWNED.

Forty-two persons were drowned, 37 of the Dix's 79 passengers being picked up by the Jeanie's lifeboats and brought into Seattle about 11 o'clock p.m., when a report of the catastrophe was made.

There was hardly time to launch life rafts or boats before she was almost entirely submerged. Some passengers jumped from the decks into the water; women screamed, and officers and men called orders that could hardly be heard above the din.

DRAGGED ABOARD JEANIE.

The passengers from the Dix who could swim made their way to the sides of the Jeanie, and were dragged aboard. The Jeanie was not moved until after all who had reached her had been hauled aboard. Then she cruised about, picking up several who had managed to stay above water. It was after 10 o'clock before the Jeanie left the scene of the catastrophe and steamed to the Virginia-street dock, Seattle, with her 39 survivors.

TRIP OF THE JEANIE.

The Jeanie, of the Alaska Coast Company, had finished unloading at the Great Northern docks at Smith's Cove, and had started for Tacoma shortly before 7 o'clock, just about the same time the Dix left the Flyer dock for Port Blakeley. There were no passengers on the Jeanie. The Dix was making the last trip of the night, and was well filled with passengers.

When about two miles north of Alki Point, the two steamers were within a short distance of each other, steaming along converging lines. The captain of the Jeanie says he signaled for the Dix to pass him, and his whistle was answered. The Dix was then within speaking distance of the Jeanie, and to the port of her. Suddenly, Mate Dennisonn, who was at the wheel of the Dix put her hard over to starboard, as if to cross in front of the other vessel. Capt. Mason of the Jeanie, who was on the bridge, saw that an accident was imminent, and called out a warning to the man at the wheel of the Dix.

CAPT. MASON SIGNALED.

Capt. Mason gave the signal to reverse his engines, and his vessel was slowly backing away when the two came together. There was but a slight crash, the force of the collision from the Dix coming against the side of the larger vessel and not that of the heavier craft against the smaller. For a minute all was still, then a panic followed.

When the Dix started to sink, stern first, passengers and members of the crew leaped into the Sound. Some of the passengers huddled together in groups on the deck, while others knelt in prayer.

The women, who had little chance for their lives, were drowned as in a trap.

CAPT. MASON'S STORY.

"I got away from Smith's Cove a little before 7 o'clock, and laid a course for Tacoma," said Capt. Mason. "I had no passengers aboard. I saw the Dix headed for Port Blakeley, and signaled to her. The mate was at the wheel. Suddenly the Dix came up astern of me to port. As soon as I saw the Dix was so close, I called to the man in her pilothouse to know what he was doing. He put his wheel over to starboard, and she started directly across my bows.

"I signaled to the engine-room of my vessel to back at full speed, but we could not get out of the way in time. The Jeanie was backing a little when we struck. I guess it was pretty well abaft amidships, and he shock wasn't enough to have injured an ordinary launch. The Dix listed heavily to starboard, righted herself, and then sank, stern first."

CAPT. LERMOND'S HORROR.

Capt. P. Lermond, master of the steamer Dix, told the story of the collision after arriving at Seattle. He was shaking with the cold, his eyes still

"I don't know how it happened," he said.

"Charles Dennison, mate of the boat, was at the wheel. We were just two miles due north of Alki Point, and running at the usual speed. There was nothing to hinder us. It was a fine clear night, and the water was like a mill pond. I had seen the lights of a steamer on our starboard quarter some time before, but had not paid any attention to them. I went below to collect the fares. The boat was crowded. There were seventy passengers on board, and it was quite a task to get all the fares. I have been on the run for the past thirteen years, and know almost everybody aboard.

HEELED THE DIX OVER.

"When I was in the ladies cabin, I heard the bell signal to stop. In a moment, I thought that something must be wrong, and rushed forward to see what was up. Just as I got on deck, on the starboard side, I saw the bow of a vessel loom up. Almost instantly she struck us. The jib-boom crashed through us, just aft of amidships, and heeled the Dix over like a top. She careened like a flash on her port bow, and lay there for a minute or two, with the water rushing in and all over. I was thrown against the deckhouse. For an instant the wind was knocked out of me, and I was almost paralyzed.

"The steamer lay for almost two minutes on her port beam. This was exactly at 7:24 o'clock, as my watch stopped then. In a moment I recovered my breath and sprang up on the house. Just then the steamer heeled back to starboard.

SOUNDS FROM BELOW.

"There was another rush of water, cries and screams, of men, women sounds such as human ears have seldom heard. Many of the passengers were penned below, and could not possibly escape. Then the steamer turned her bow up. Then she filled and her stern went slowly down, until the bow was standing straight half out of water. For an instant I clung to the railing.

"The sight fascinated me by its horror. Lights were still burning, and I could see people inside of the cabin. The expressions on their faces were of indescribable despair.

"People on deck slid off into the water and went down shrieking and desperately clutching at the water, or at the Jeanie, which still loomed only a few yards away. Within the sinking steamer, pandemonium reigned. There were cries, prayers, and from men and women. The wail of a child mingled with the shouts of those who were fighting desperately to gain the deck.

CABIN A DEATH TRAP.

"What took place in that cabin will never be known, as no people were saved from there. The boat heeled back, and went down by the stern. The other boat was only a short distance away from us all this time. Some of the passengers who had been on deck jumped for her martingal (the lines beneath the bowsprit,) and in this way clambered up to safety. By that time, the Dix was standing on end, with her bow way up in the air, and then she started to go down.

"I leaped into the water and managed to keep myself afloat. Others from the sunken steamer were floating near me. Every once in a while one who had been swimming until his strength gave out would throw up his hands, and, with a last despairing cry, sink. This happened time after time.

FLOATING HEADS CALLED.

"All around were floating heads, which called for help, and watched the Jeanie as she slowly came towards us and dropped boats, which moved here and there, picking up men in every direction.

"Finally a boat came to me. By that time I was indifferent and didn't care whether I was saved or not."

RIGOROUS INVESTIGATION.

Marine Inspectors Whitney and Turner decided this afternoon to hold a rigorous investigation into the loss of the Dix. Their inquiry will begin as soon as witnesses can be summoned.

The Dix lies in nearly 100 fathoms of water, and it is doubtful if she can be raised. The owners of the boat have turned her over to the underwriters, who expect to make some effort to recover the steamer.

All the boats sent out to look for bodies have returned, and one cork fender, picked up by the Tug Tyee, is the net result of their search.

PITH OF NEWS FROM THE MIDDLE WEST.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Today was the coldest Chicago has experienced this season. The minimum temperature was 26 degs. and the mercury did not go above freezing until late in the afternoon, when 35 degs. maximum was recorded. The wind was from off the lake, impressing a lower temperature than was actually recorded.

During the day, rain, sleet, and snow fell, adding to the general unpleasantness. The first dip under zero south of the Canadian border was Havre, Mont., with 8 degs. below. Up at Swift Current, it went to 10 below. Middle West temperatures:

"GRAFTERS" IN COUNCIL.

Building Commissioner Bartzen has stirred up a hornet's nest in the City Council and has been called upon to prove his charge that there are a lot of "grafters" in that body, and that "boodle" was used to influence the aldermmen in the passing of an ordinance affecting the Marshall Field department store. When informed, tonight, that the council had passed Alderman Schermann's resolution demanding that the Mayor appoint a committee to investigate the truth or falsity of the charge, the "fighting" commissioner announced that he was prepared to furnish proof of his assertions. Mayor Dunne will probably name the committee in a day or two.

PROBATIONAL MARRIAGE "ROAR."

The theory of probational marriages, as advocated by Mrs. Elsie Clews Parsons of New York, was denounced by ministers at three meetings in Chicago today. Christian ministers at their meeting called it a "Mormom belief," and denounced it as a sanction of polygamy, while Methodist ministers declared the theory to be an advocacy of the establishment of a harem in every home.

ASTOUNDING CHARGE AGAINST AN AMERICAN CONSUL.

For the Third Time Rev. Selah Merrill of Jerusalem Is Unmercifully Scored—Coffins, Hair and Clothing Scattered About Grounds Where Dead Bodies Were Exposed.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Astounding charges are made in an article published today by Alexander Hume Ford against Rev. Selah Merrill, formerly of Andover, Mass., United States Consul at Jerusalem.

Twice before Rev. Merrill has been accused of wrongdoing. One president removed him, and afterward, it is reported the Turkish government unsuccessfully endeavored to have him recalled.

Ford charges Merrill with defiling the graves of Americans at Jerusalem, as well as other graves. Bodies were exposed, fragments of bones, coffins, hair and clothing were scattered about on the surface of the ground. These graves at Mount Zion Church were under Merrill's charge, the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions having given him the key, with the understanding that any Americans might bury their dead there if they wished.

It is also charged that Merrill caused the bodies of American dead to be moved to other places, and only under force did he reveal where the bodies were hidden.

Merrill is alleged to be an "enemy" of the American Presbyterian colony at Jerusalem.

The annual meeting of stockholders of the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake road, held in Salt Lake yesterday, was purely formal. The old board of directors was reelected with the exception of Charles Seyler, who is succeeded by W. R. Kelly of Los Angeles, the new chief counsel of the road.

URGE THE PRESIDENT FOR AN INSPECTION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SEATTLE, Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The horror of the appalling disaster was intensified by the addition of thirteen new names to the list of missing today, making a total of forty-nine. The names added are:

C. T. BENNETT, bartender, residence unknown.

AXEL CARLSON, planerman, Port Blakeley mill.

J. W. GEAL, shore clerk, Washington.

FRANK GOREON, Port Blakeley.

MRS. GEORGE LUBBERING, Port Blakeley.

MRS. H. LUBBERING, Port Blakeley.

MISS LUBBERING, her daughter.

ALBERT M'DONALD, tallyman, Port Blakeley.

WILLIAM M'KNIGHT, Seattle.

WILLIAM MAHER, Port Blakeley mill.

A. C. REYNOLDS, Port Blakeley mill.

JAMES SLOAN, tallyman, Port Blakeley mill.

Tonight, the body of Albert McDonald, a lumberman surveyor, was picked up off West Seattle by two of the searchers named George McPhie and James H. Woods, no other bodies have been recovered.

The Seattle Commercial Club is the first public body to take action in the matter of the wreck. Strong resolutions were adopted at a meeting tonight, addressed to the President, urging that special instructions be forwarded to Inspectors Whitney and Turner to conduct a vigorous investigation into the cause of collision.

Enforcement of the Federal statutes to their extent is demanded, and the resolutions call for the punishment of all responsible for the disaster, if the responsibility can be fully placed, and it is found that criminal negligence was involved.

Port Blakeley mills were closed down today for the first time in twenty years on account of the funeral.

The Commercial Club of Seattle, a leading organization of business and professional men, adopted strong resolutions addressed to the President urging that special instructions be given by the Chief Executive to the United States marine inspectors to conduct a searching inquiry into the disaster, and "order the strict enforcement of every statute covering the case." The resolutions call for the extreme penalty for violation of statutes if the responsibility can be placed.

Port Blakeley is in mourning, the mills are not running, and special preparations are on foot to hold memorial services for the victims.

Two Filipino boys claim to have swam ashore to a Seattle dock, a distance of six miles. Manuel Hepeta and Bernardo Garcia are their names. They claim to be sailors. The story has not yet been confirmed.

CAPTAIN WAS GETTING FARES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SEATTLE (Wash.) Nov. 19.—Like most of the "mosquito fleet," the steamer Dix, which was struck and sunk by the Alaska Coast Company's steamer Jeanie, last night, off Duwamish Head, in Seattle harbor, did not carry a purser, and Capt. Percy Lernmond was collecting fares when the collision occurred.

Charles E. Dennison, mate on the boat, was at the wheel, and he took his steamer directly across the bow of the Jeanie, which was en route to Tacoma from the Smith Cove docks with a cargo of ore and had the right of way.

The Jeanie signalled for the passing, but Dennison apparently lost control of himself, and turned his boat toward the approaching vessel. The two steamers were so close together that frightened passengers on the Dix's upper deck heard Capt. Mason's startled call from the Jeanie: "Where in hell are you going?" before the two vessels crashed together.

The Dix was struck abaft amidships and a moment later she listed heavily to port, taking water below.

PASSENGERS SWEPT OFF.

For a minute she hung there, then righted herself. The Dix was top-heavy, and she reeled drunkenly, and then, as she began making water rapidly, commenced to settle aft. Less than five minutes after the crash the Dix sank stern first into the waters of the Sound, the passengers being swept off her decks by the rush of the vessel into the water.

Of the seventy-nine or eighty passengers aboard the Dix, more than half were on the lower deck when the collision occurred. They were penned, like rats in a trap, and had absolutely no chance for their lives. One fifteen-year-old girl of all the survivors is known to have made her way from the lower deck and to have escaped with her life. All the members of the crew save Capt. Lermond, who happened to be above on his fare-collecting round, and a deckhand, went down with their steamer.

SIGNALS TO REVERSE.

When Capt. Mason from the Jeanie realized a collision was inevitable, he signalled his engineer to reverse his engine. Capt. Lermond says he heard a similar signal from the Dix's temporary commander, and the impact of the two vessels was comparatively gentle. The bowsprit of the Jeanie hit the upper works of the Dix and pushed her over to port with a force that was not sharp enough to crush the woodwork of the cabins. But the topheavy Sound steamer could not rally from the shock and went down.

There was no time to launch boats from the Dix, or even to throw overboard life belts or rafts. Bits of wreckage strewed the water, and toward these the frenzied passengers on deck leaped. Half a dozen jumped for the Jeanie's chains and hung there until pulled aboard the steamer. The rest were either imprisoned below or were swept from the deck when the boat settled a few minutes later.

STUNNED BY THE SHOCK.

From stories told by the survivors, men and women seem to have been stunned by the first shock, then to have fought like maniacs for a chance to escape.

A few caught in the upper cabin, smashed window lights and crawled out to a fighting chance in the icy waters of the Sound. Below the main deck, a frantic rush for the companionway resulted in a jam and the death of those imprisoned below.

Almost immediately after the collision, the Jeanie was stopped, and two lifeboats were swung into the water. The Jeanie stood by for three hours, while lifesavers answered cries for help. A few were drawn aboard the Jeanie by lines that had been thrown overboard, but most of the survivors were picked up by the two lifeboats.

officers of the Jeanie agree that it was light when the collision occurred, and the Jeanie, when darkness gathered, turned her searchlight upon the surrounding waters. So far as is known practically every one who managed to get free from the wreck was saved.

Immediately after the Jeanie brought the story of the collision to Seattle, the tugs Bahada and Tyee, the passenger steamer Florence K. and the Jeanie were ordered out to cruise about the Sound, for floating bodies. One by one the boats have put back this morning without having found any one.

The tide was ebbing when the collision occurred and if there were any bodies at the surface they have probably been swept far down the Sound. The others are likely buried with the Dix, 100 fathoms below the surface.

YOUNG FORD AGAIN SAVED.

Mrs. T. C. Ford, wife of the superintendent of the Port Blakeley mill, is the mother of the boy who was caught a few days ago in a burning launch and who was compelled to cling for hours to the side of the boat until help arrived. Her son is among the saved.

Louis Masters lost a brother, mother and stepfather. His own father, two years ago, was lost off a boat loading at the coal bunkers here, and his body remained seven weeks in the water before it was recovered.

Alice Simpson, the only female passenger out of four who was rescued, never swam a stroke in her life. She was thrown off the deck of the Dix when the boat settled into the water, and was kept afloat by her clothing. Today she is at Provident Hospital under the influence of opiates to quiet her nerves.

THREATENED CAPT. LERMOND.

Capt. W. A. Toby, master of the Invincible, loading at Port Blakeley with lumber, is said to have saved two lives besides his own. Toby vouches for the story that the passengers of the Dix who were saved bitterly arraigned Capt. Lermond and threatened his life.

All but one of the fliers in the big Port Blakeley mill were drowned in the Dix accident, and the lumber plant was idle until more help could be had. The entire force of lumber surveyors were on board the boat, and half of them were drowned.

Port Blakeley contributed almost the entire roll of the dead. Port Blakeley is a town supported entirely by the lumber plant of the Blakeley Mill Company, and the town today is almost helpless in its grief. Not a wheel is turning, and the entire population is trying at once to aid in some way the efforts to recover bodies. Memorial services for the dead will probably be held within a day or two.

FORTY-TWO DROWNED.

Forty-two persons were drowned, 37 of the Dix's 79 passengers being picked up by the Jeanie's lifeboats and brought into Seattle about 11 o'clock p.m., when a report of the catastrophe was made.

There was hardly time to launch life rafts or boats before she was almost entirely submerged. Some passengers jumped from the decks into the water; women screamed, and officers and men called orders that could hardly be heard above the din.

DRAGGED ABOARD JEANIE.

The passengers from the Dix who could swim made their way to the sides of the Jeanie, and were dragged aboard. The Jeanie was not moved until after all who had reached her had been hauled aboard. Then she cruised about, picking up several who had managed to stay above water. It was after 10 o'clock before the Jeanie left the scene of the catastrophe and steamed to the Virginia-street dock, Seattle, with her 39 survivors.

TRIP OF THE JEANIE.

The Jeanie, of the Alaska Coast Company, had finished unloading at the Great Northern docks at Smith's Cove, and had started for Tacoma shortly before 7 o'clock, just about the same time the Dix left the Flyer dock for Port Blakeley. There were no passengers on the Jeanie. The Dix was making the last trip of the night, and was well filled with passengers.

When about two miles north of Alki Point, the two steamers were within a short distance of each other, steaming along converging lines. The captain of the Jeanie says he signaled for the Dix to pass him, and his whistle was answered. The Dix was then within speaking distance of the Jeanie, and to the port of her. Suddenly, Mate Dennisonn, who was at the wheel of the Dix put her hard over to starboard, as if to cross in front of the other vessel. Capt. Mason of the Jeanie, who was on the bridge, saw that an accident was imminent, and called out a warning to the man at the wheel of the Dix.

CAPT. MASON SIGNALED.

Capt. Mason gave the signal to reverse his engines, and his vessel was slowly backing away when the two came together. There was but a slight crash, the force of the collision from the Dix coming against the side of the larger vessel and not that of the heavier craft against the smaller. For a minute all was still, then a panic followed.

When the Dix started to sink, stern first, passengers and members of the crew leaped into the Sound. Some of the passengers huddled together in groups on the deck, while others knelt in prayer.

The women, who had little chance for their lives, were drowned as in a trap.

CAPT. MASON'S STORY.

"I got away from Smith's Cove a little before 7 o'clock, and laid a course for Tacoma," said Capt. Mason. "I had no passengers aboard. I saw the Dix headed for Port Blakeley, and signaled to her. The mate was at the wheel. Suddenly the Dix came up astern of me to port. As soon as I saw the Dix was so close, I called to the man in her pilothouse to know what he was doing. He put his wheel over to starboard, and she started directly across my bows.

"I signaled to the engine-room of my vessel to back at full speed, but we could not get out of the way in time. The Jeanie was backing a little when we struck. I guess it was pretty well abaft amidships, and the shock wasn't enough to have injured an ordinary launch. The Dix listed heavily to starboard, righted herself, and then sank, stern first."

CAPT. LERMOND'S HORROR.

Capt. P. Lermond, master of the steamer Dix, told the story of the collision after arriving at Seattle. He was shaking with the cold, his eyes still

"I don't know how it happened," he said.

"Charles Dennison, mate of the boat, was at the wheel. We were just two miles due north of Alki Point, and running at the usual speed. There was nothing to hinder us. It was a fine clear night, and the water was like a mill pond. I had seen the lights of a steamer on our starboard quarter some time before, but had not paid any attention to them. I went below to collect the fares. The boat was crowded. There were seventy passengers on board, and it was quite a task to get all the fares. I have been on the run for the past thirteen years, and know almost everybody aboard.

HEELED THE DIX OVER.

"When I was in the ladies cabin, I heard the bell signal to stop. In a moment, I thought that something must be wrong, and rushed forward to see what was up. Just as I got on deck, on the starboard side, I saw the bow of a vessel loom up. Almost instantly she struck us. The jib-boom crashed through us, just aft of amidships, and heeled the Dix over like a top. She careened like a flash on her port bow, and lay there for a minute or two, with the water rushing in and all over. I was thrown against the deckhouse. For an instant the wind was knocked out of me, and I was almost paralyzed.

"The steamer lay for almost two minutes on her port beam. This was exactly at 7:24 o'clock, as my watch stopped then. In a moment I recovered my breath and sprang up on the house. Just then the steamer heeled back to starboard.

SOUNDS FROM BELOW.

"There was another rush of water, cries and screams, of men, women sounds such as human ears have seldom heard. Many of the passengers were penned below, and could not possibly escape. Then the steamer turned her bow up. Then she filled and her stern went slowly down, until the bow was standing straight half out of water. For an instant I clung to the railing.

"The sight fascinated me by its horror. Lights were still burning, and I could see people inside of the cabin. The expressions on their faces were of indescribable despair.

"People on deck slid off into the water and went down shrieking and desperately clutching at the water, or at the Jeanie, which still loomed only a few yards away. Within the sinking steamer, pandemonium reigned. There were cries, prayers, and from men and women. The wail of a child mingled with the shouts of those who were fighting desperately to gain the deck.

CABIN A DEATH TRAP.

"What took place in that cabin will never be known, as no people were saved from there. The boat heeled back, and went down by the stern. The other boat was only a short distance away from us all this time. Some of the passengers who had been on deck jumped for her martingal (the lines beneath the bowsprit,) and in this way clambered up to safety. By that time, the Dix was standing on end, with her bow way up in the air, and then she started to go down.

"I leaped into the water and managed to keep myself afloat. Others from the sunken steamer were floating near me. Every once in a while one who had been swimming until his strength gave out would throw up his hands, and, with a last despairing cry, sink. This happened time after time.

FLOATING HEADS CALLED.

"All around were floating heads, which called for help, and watched the Jeanie as she slowly came towards us and dropped boats, which moved here and there, picking up men in every direction.

"Finally a boat came to me. By that time I was indifferent and didn't care whether I was saved or not."

RIGOROUS INVESTIGATION.

Marine Inspectors Whitney and Turner decided this afternoon to hold a rigorous investigation into the loss of the Dix. Their inquiry will begin as soon as witnesses can be summoned.

The Dix lies in nearly 100 fathoms of water, and it is doubtful if she can be raised. The owners of the boat have turned her over to the underwriters, who expect to make some effort to recover the steamer.

All the boats sent out to look for bodies have returned, and one cork fender, picked up by the Tug Tyee, is the net result of their search.

PITH OF NEWS FROM THE MIDDLE WEST.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Today was the coldest Chicago has experienced this season. The minimum temperature was 26 degs. and the mercury did not go above freezing until late in the afternoon, when 35 degs. maximum was recorded. The wind was from off the lake, impressing a lower temperature than was actually recorded.

During the day, rain, sleet, and snow fell, adding to the general unpleasantness. The first dip under zero south of the Canadian border was Havre, Mont., with 8 degs. below. Up at Swift Current, it went to 10 below. Middle West temperatures:

"GRAFTERS" IN COUNCIL.

Building Commissioner Bartzen has stirred up a hornet's nest in the City Council and has been called upon to prove his charge that there are a lot of "grafters" in that body, and that "boodle" was used to influence the aldermmen in the passing of an ordinance affecting the Marshall Field department store. When informed, tonight, that the council had passed Alderman Schermann's resolution demanding that the Mayor appoint a committee to investigate the truth or falsity of the charge, the "fighting" commissioner announced that he was prepared to furnish proof of his assertions. Mayor Dunne will probably name the committee in a day or two.

PROBATIONAL MARRIAGE "ROAR."

The theory of probational marriages, as advocated by Mrs. Elsie Clews Parsons of New York, was denounced by ministers at three meetings in Chicago today. Christian ministers at their meeting called it a "Mormom belief," and denounced it as a sanction of polygamy, while Methodist ministers declared the theory to be an advocacy of the establishment of a harem in every home.

HOUSEWIVES VS. "ROCKY."

CHIPPEWA FALLS (Wis.) Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The housewives of Anson are talking of boycotting the Standard Oil Company because John D. Rockefeller has written them a refusal to contribute to a new church building, saying that he does not want to be identified as a giver to country churches.

WIENERWURST'S CRUSADE

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

STERLING (Ill.) Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Because Benjamin Lefver was made seriously ill by eating wienerwursts purchased at a Sterling market, the State Pure Food Commission has started a pure-food crusade in this city, eight merchants, it is thought, may be prosecuted for selling impure foods.

ASTOUNDING CHARGE AGAINST AN AMERICAN CONSUL.

For the Third Time Rev. Selah Merrill of Jerusalem Is Unmercifully Scored—Coffins, Hair and Clothing Scattered About Grounds Where Dead Bodies Were Exposed.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Astounding charges are made in an article published today by Alexander Hume Ford against Rev. Selah Merrill, formerly of Andover, Mass., United States Consul at Jerusalem.

Twice before Rev. Merrill has been accused of wrongdoing. One president removed him, and afterward, it is reported the Turkish government unsuccessfully endeavored to have him recalled.

Ford charges Merrill with defiling the graves of Americans at Jerusalem, as well as other graves. Bodies were exposed, fragments of bones, coffins, hair and clothing were scattered about on the surface of the ground. These graves at Mount Zion Church were under Merrill's charge, the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions having given him the key, with the understanding that any Americans might bury their dead there if they wished.

It is also charged that Merrill caused the bodies of American dead to be moved to other places, and only under force did he reveal where the bodies were hidden.

Merrill is alleged to be an "enemy" of the American Presbyterian colony at Jerusalem.

The annual meeting of stockholders of the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake road, held in Salt Lake yesterday, was purely formal. The old board of directors was reelected with the exception of Charles Seyler, who is succeeded by W. R. Kelly of Los Angeles, the new chief counsel of the road.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SANTA ROSA, Nov., 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Archbishop Riordan was a witness in Judge Seawell's Court this morning. The archbishop was cited to appear and show cause in the matter of the estate of the late Theresa Wenger, a wealthy woman who formerly lived at Freestone.

Miss O'Farrell, brother of the woman was cut off without a bequest, and seeking trace of property which it is thought the archbishop could throw light on.

In his usual quiet manner the archbishop told all he knew of Mrs. Wenger's financial matters during twenty-three years. In that time she had turned into his possession a deed to property at Ninth and Mission streets for the benefit of the Roman Catholic Sanitary at Menlo Park; ten diamonds to be set in a vessel for use at the celebration services in the seminary chapel; $1000 for the manufacture of a jewel in which diamonds are to be placed and $1000 for a window in Menlo chapel as a memorial to her deceased husband.

The archbishop denied he had ever received other property belonging to the estate, and said he rarely had advised with Mrs. Wenzinger regarding temporal matters.

ARCHBISHOP A WITNESS.

Called Upon to Tell of Property Obtained.

Wealthy Woman's Brother Is Cut Off by Will.

Jury of Paris Prepares for Colton Contest.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SANTA ROSA, Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Archbishop Riordan was a witness in Judge Seawell's Court this morning. The archbishop was cited to appear and show cause in the matter of the estate of the late Theresa Wentworth, a wealthy woman who formerly resided at Fresno.

Mrs. Purcell, brother of the woman who died without a bequest, and who left a large share of property which it was thought the archbishop could get, was quiet manner the archbishop will be knew of Mrs. Wentworth's financial matters during twenty years. In that time she had given to his possession a deed to property at Ninth and Mission streets in the south suburbs of the Roman Catholic orphanage at Menlo Park; ten diamonds set in a vessel for use at the church services in the seminary and money for the manufacture of a ring in which diamonds are to be set; $1000 for a window in Menlo Church as a memorial to her deceased husband. The archbishop denied he had ever received any property belonging to the estate and said he rarely had advised testators regarding temporal affairs.

ACCIDENT ON RAILWAY TRAIN.

SCALDED BLOWS UP IN DINER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—A serious accident this morning on the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, one of the fast Southwestern trains, while it was passing through the Nevada, 200 miles east of Denver, was caused by a stove blowing up in the dining car. The steam pipes were broken and when the porter built a fire in the stove and threw in a quantity of coal the stove blew up. The car caught fire with gas. The passengers were thrown from the tables in their efforts to get out of the car, and several were scalded as they fell to the floor and were trampled on. Others fainted from the effects of the gas in the tightly-closed cars, several of the men broke windows with dishes to get fresh air, the doors being locked and the passengers from other cars were trying to enter the dining car.

Mrs. D. E. Parker of Chicago fell from a car window and received injuries. She was taken to a hospital and placed in a hospital car. The passengers were overcome by the attendance of physicians who picked up at a small station on the road.

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) Nov. 19.—Reports received here indicate that fully 200 feet of the Southern Pacific's two-mile trestle over the Cascade mountains in Oregon, as a result of the recent fire, which destroyed the Southern Pacific officials have received concerning the matter, portions of track are still standing in the waters of the Cowlitz river.

The Southern Pacific headquarters it is said that no trains can be sent over the line without the boat service, which will be discontinued Wednesday night. The boat service covers a distance of about 100 miles.

Reports from the mountains the effect that the strike may last a week or ten days, and that it will have changed their plans and have adopted the railroad service on both sides of the Cascade mountains, probably permanently.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—Running at a speed a big automobile carrying a large consignment of gold from the state of California from its factory on Farrell street, this afternoon, was stopped and instantly killed by a colored porter. The shooting occurred at Eddy street and Van Ness avenue, the chauffeur, has been arrested charged with manslaughter.

WILL AND COLTON ESTATE.

CASE READY TO CONTEST.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—Siegfried Sloss has arrived here from Los Angeles ready for the contest his wife will begin in the Superior Court of Santa Cruz a week from today. No attempt will be made by counsel to administer the estate pending the outcome of the late Col. D. D. Colton, who was in his day a partner of C. P. Huntington and Senator Stanford.

The father and guardian of Miss Margaret Beatrice Colton, contestant. The deceased, Caroline Colton Cook-Colton, was thrice married, and died a few weeks after Mrs. Colton's marriage to John P. Dahlgren, a lawyer.

NEW LABORATORY FOR LOEB'S WORK.

STATE UNIVERSITY IS OFFERED A SPLENDID SITE.

Eight Acres Well Located on Monterey Bay Shore Will Be Donated. Quarter of a Million Dollars to Be Expended for Building — Waters Adjacent Rich in Animal Life.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PACIFIC GROVE, Nov. 19.—Ever since the advent in California of Dr. Jacques Loeb, the State University has been anxiously looking for a site for a biological laboratory commensurate at once with the growing needs of its research work and the unrivalled opportunities offered by the richness of the waters of Monterey Bay in both animal and vegetable kingdoms.

The Pacific Improvement Company has now come forward and signified its intention to donate for this purpose eight acres, more or less, of land situated in the neighborhood of Chinatown, destroyed by fire last summer. This tract of land is remarkable for its natural beauty and adaptability to the purpose in view.

The present temporary laboratory will be inconspicuous when the projected buildings, to cost about a quarter of a million dollars, are erected. Funds for this magnificent undertaking have been assured, after the land has been duly transferred.

WILL EXPOSE ALL WELCHERS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Bureau of Corporations of the Department of Commerce and Labor is about to make an investigation of the insurance situation at San Francisco.

Agents will ascertain and report on the welching and paying of companies whether foreign or domestic, etc. Full data will be obtained for the report to the President, who may send it to Congress if he so decides.

Under the law all reports from the Bureau of Corporations go first in confidence to the President. In this case it is believed the President will send the report to Congress, in order to enable the public to distinguish between fair and dishonest companies.

Railway in New Jersey Raises Wages of Employees.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 19.—Despite Senator Albert J. Beveridge's announcement at Richmond, Ind., Sunday evening that he intends to introduce a bill in the Senate prohibiting the employment of child labor, the American Federation of Labor, now in convention here, decided today that a national law would be unconstitutional and therefore agreed to urge the passing of State laws that will "stop the crushing out of child life in the mills and factories and coining its life blood into dollars upon the counters of commercialism."

The convention also urged favorable consideration of the proposed amendment of the Federal Constitution providing for woman suffrage.

The federation extends a helping hand to the postal clerks, who in the resolution adopted are characterized as "helpless to better their condition." The boycott law of Alabama is to be fought; the employment of inefficient seamen, causing disasters, is deplored; the employment of Chinese sailors on American vessels condemned; the overloading of lake boats looked upon with alarm; action urged regarding prevailing rate of wages by government contractors; the taking of steps to stop the employment of foreign "cheap" musicians, the boycotting of several large firms and again reaffirming the boycott against many large concerns were disposed of.

CHAUFFEURS' STRIKE ENDS.

THUGS ARE REFUSED WORK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The automobile strike ended early today, when a settlement was reached by an agreement between the men and the officials of the New York Transportation Company. The men will return as individuals except those who had engaged in violence. Such men are not to be reemployed.

The strike just ended has been productive of more scenes of disorder than any strike in many years except the street-car strike. Since the strike began, on October 25, there have been sixty-five arrests.

The men gained an increase in wages, but the working day will continue at twelve hours. The strikers had also to waive their demands that the shop be made a union one. The men, however, are given the right to maintain their own union.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

DENVER, Nov. 19.—The National Grange went on record as opposed to indorsing the initiative and referendum today, when a resolution offered by C. B. Kegley of Washington was voted down. The matter was referred back to the State Granges upon the contention that such an innovation can only be put in operation by State governments. The principal opposition was to the proposition giving the people the right to recall representative officers, the argument being that this was too Socialistic.

The greater portion of the sessions today was devoted to the report of the Executive Committee and consideration of the proposed revision of Grange laws, and matters of interest particularly to Grange members. Tomorrow the delegates will visit the Agricultural College at Fort Collins.

Taking of Inventories of Religious Institutions of France Is Resumed Amid Scenes of Disorder.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PARIS, Nov. 19.—The taking of the inventories of the 3500 French churches which were not entered last spring owing to resistance and disorders, was begun tonight. Troops everywhere were held in readiness to support the prefects. The first resistance reported was at Villeiclongue-De-La-Baiangue.

The inventory of the Church of St. Augustine was taken at a late hour this afternoon with a repetition of the violent demonstrations of last spring, when this church was occupied and held by a determined body of parishioners. Several priests and the church warden assisted the government inspectors in the operation today.

The doors of the edifice were barred and a party of twenty persons who were attending a baptism were turned out. The clergyman conducting the baptismal ceremony protested against the actions of the commissioners and refused to hand over the books.

The officials then burst open the safe, secured the registers and other documents, completed their inventory and retired. They met with no resistance. St. Augustine's is the last church in Paris in which an inventory will have to be made.

EMPEROR IS AN OPTIMIST.

Says He Works Singly for Good of Germany

Asserts His Frequent Journeys Are Necessary.

He Is Impatient With Men Who Obstruct Empire.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MUNICH (Bavaria) Nov. 19.—Emperor William received Dr. Ludwig Edward Ganghofer, the author, November 21, during His Majesty's visit to Munich, and talked with extraordinary freedom regarding his way of looking at life. Dr. Ganghofer, writing to the Munchenter Nuerste Nachrichten today, says that the Emperor, referring to the optimistic vein pervading Dr. Ganghofer's book "Hoher Schein," ("High Polish,") said:

"I am an out and out optimist, and nothing will prevent my continuing so to the end of my life."

The Emperor described himself as a man fully occupied with his work, and who believed in his works, and added:

"I am determined to make progress, and I would be pleased if others rightly understood what I am aiming at and supported me."

His Majesty referred to the difficult position in which a man got when he was suspicious, and he quoted from Dr. Ganghofer's "Silence in the Forest," saying:

"He who is suspicious not only does injustice to others but injures himself. It is our duty to regard others as being good until they prove themselves to be the contrary.

"According to this principle," said the Emperor, "I have always treated everybody with whom I have had to deal on that basis. Of course one will have some unpleasant experience, but one must not be discouraged. One must always approach life and humanity with renewed confidence.

SAYS HE NEEDS RECREATION.

"One gets on much further in life if one does not look at everything with a pessimistic eye, and this is equally true in politics. Without doubt the German people who have a future—and there is one word that annoyes me whenever I hear it—Reichsverdrossenheit—(translated as 'unwillingness of the people to support the empire'.) What's the good of this? Let us rather work and look to the future."

The Emperor, mentioning his frequent journeys, said:

"When I travel, especially when I go into Scandinavian waters, I am freed for a few weeks of all that weighs on me. Yet people often take amiss that which gives me such pleasure. I know I am called the 'traveling Emperor,' but I have always taken it as a joke.

"I love traveling, especially in my own country. I think the feeling of homogeneousness is strengthened thereby, and many Germans have no idea how beautiful our native land is and how much there is to be seen. I am always glad when I become acquainted with a new part of Germany.

"I often feel inclined to jump into an automobile and dash off for a couple of days, returning full of energy and contentment.

"Such recreations, especially to one in my responsible position, are very—indeed doubly—necessary, because I am exposed to many misunderstandings and am always in a thankless position, as I am conceded no independence. If I succeed, the whole world asks 'who was his adviser?' and if I fail they say he did not understand the matter.'

"Regarding happenings which people look on as a matter of course in the case of other princes, in my case they ask 'why did he do that?' and the only possible answer is 'because I am working for the good of the German empire and the German people.'"

The Emperor's utterances to Dr. Ganghofer are regarded as a reply to the frequent criticisms recently of the excessive introduction of the Emperor's personality in the conduct of German affairs.

SEEING THINGS IN RECLAMATION.

CHIEF ENGINEER NEWELL IS PLEASED WITH VISTAS.

Work of Construction Has Progressed Favorably in Western States. Chief Drawback in Securing Laborers—Laguna Dam on the Colorado Successfully Pushed.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] F. H. Newell, chief engineer of the Reclamation Service, has returned from an inspection trip, having examined the condition of construction work in California, North Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon, Arizona and New Mexico. Newell said this morning:

"In general, work is progressing favorably, and construction has reached a point where results can be seen. The chief drawback at the present time is difficulty in securing competent laborers.

"There is a small army of laborers tramping backwards and forwards, along the railroad lines, the greater part at present being headed, of course, for California and the Southwest in general.

"The largest work of reclamation now in hand is the Roosevelt dam in Arizona, the foundation of which is now in and is approaching the river level. If the floods in Salt River do not occur for a month or two, the foundations, which cover about an acre in extent, will be above the water level.

"The Laguna dam on the Colorado River is being successfully pushed by J. G. White and Company, New York City and its success is now assured through the closing of the break in the Colorado River.

CONCENTRATE ON LINDLEY.

Strong Movement Among City's Business Men.

Shrewd Political Observer Sets Forth Situation.

Lindley Forces Are Intact. Opposition Split.

Sentiment has crystallized for Dr. Walter Lindley for Mayor as the one candidate who is in a position to defeat the foes of the city in the present campaign. Voters eager to work for the best government and against the great evil that menaces are fast concentrating their efforts for the election of the independent Republican who heads his party ticket.

Reports received at the Lindley campaign headquarters show the strong Lindley current that is running in every precinct and that promises to carry him into office on a flood of votes.

Some business men who, early in the campaign, were inclined to think that Harper, the Democratic candidate for Mayor, was the one around whom to rally, have experienced a change of mind. They are convinced now that Dr. Lindley is the man, and they give good reasons for this conclusion.

Maj. E. F. C. Klokke, a trained political expert who has worked for years for the upbuilding of Los Angeles, and who is extremely independent in his acts and in his views, is convinced that Dr. Lindley will be elected, and he gives his reasons.

"Every voter who desires to maintain the present prosperity of the city and to assure its government on business principles will throw his vote away if he casts it for any candidate other than Dr. Lindley," said Maj. Klokke, yesterday.

"The reason for this statement is plain. Dr. Lindley is the candidate of the Republican party and as such has the greatest strength at the outset of the campaign. The Republican party is undivided; it is working with a single purpose. It is the majority party and is united for Lindley for Mayor as it was united in the State campaign for Gillett.

"Dr. Lindley's strength from this source can be counted on as equal to the number of Republican votes that will be cast, and in addition to this he will have the votes of a large number of Democrats and independent voters who wish to insure safe, sound and sane government of the city for the coming three years, when some of the most important events of the city's history will be written.

"It is the opposition that is divided. It is split up into many parts, and it is this hopeless division that will elect Dr. Lindley.

"Were the Democrats and Socialists and Non-Partisans and members of the Public Ownership party united on one candidate they would win, but they are not and will not be united. They cannot unite. They will scatter their fire among four candidates.

"The Democrats are counting on a large number of votes for Harper that will not be cast for him at all, but for Wilson, the Public Ownership or union labor candidate. Now it is well known that no votes will be drawn by Wilson from Dr. Lindley. The presence of Wilson in the field defeats Harper's hopes of election.

"Mr. Harper is unfortunate in another respect; the Democratic platform declares for general public ownership, even as strongly as does the platform of the Public Ownership party. There are many, many Democrats who are opposed to the radical nature of their party platform. They cannot vote for Mr. Harper any more than for Marek, the Socialist candidate, or for Wilson of the Public Ownership party. These men will vote for Dr. Lindley, confident of his ability, and assured of his independence as a candidate and as a citizen to do those things which are required for the good of the whole city.

"As for Mr. Gates, he probably will run fourth in the race. He cannot hope to break into the strong Republican majority, any more than Langdon, who ran for Governor on an independent ticket; could hope to gain strength from that source. Gates and Wilson together, however, will defeat Harper, and the division of the vote among these three candidates will elect Dr. Lindley.

"Aside from the fact that Dr. Lindley will win by reason of the division of the opposition, there remain many very good reasons why he should be elected. His long residence in Los Angeles and the leading part he has taken in the most important public enterprises make him at once an ideal man to fill the Mayor's chair.

"His broad mind, his deep interest in the welfare of the city, his wide acquaintance, his steadfastness of purpose, his knowledge of men, his rare faculty of decisiveness—these are some of the arguments that are urged rightfully in his favor.

"As it was in the recent State election, the Republican candidate for Mayor will be elected because he has the united support of his party, while the opposition is wasting its energies on a number of candidates. Dr. Lindley will be the next Mayor of Los Angeles. He cannot fail to win."

Non-Partisan Club.

A Non-Partisan Club was formed last night in Precinct Three, First Ward, at a meeting at No. 3556 Arroyo Seco avenue. A. W. Cleaver was elected president; C. H. Mattingly and Thomas E. Preston, vice-presidents; Charles E. Bent, secretary, and W. E. Smith, treasurer. The organization will take an active part in the campaign until its close. Another meeting will be held at 8 o'clock next Monday evening at the rooms of the Improvement Association, Dayton avenue and Avenue 27.

Non-Partisan Rally.

Leslie R. Hewitt, Non-Partisan candidate for City Attorney, was one of the principal speakers last evening at a rally at Fisher's Hall, Adams street and Central avenue. The meeting was well attended. Lee C. Gates, candidate for Mayor; J. V. Akey, candidate for Councilman of the Sixth Ward, and Marshall Stimson were among the other speakers.

Delegates Will Meet.

Dr. W. W. Beckett, chairman, and Fowler Shankland, secretary of the Fifth Ward Republican Club, have invited delegates to the recent Republican city convention to attend a meeting of the club tomorrow evening at Polk's Hall, No. 1226½ West Washington street, near Hoover. Republican neighbors of the delegates also will attend.

PEACE IS ROOT'S PLEA

'Friendship for all with entangling alliances with nine,' is as wise a rule of conduct as it was in Washington's time.

"It is as true now as it was then that Europe has certain primary interests in which we are not concerned, and into which we should not permit ourselves to be drawn; yet it is a field in which we care no longer to be indifferent or to be ignorant, for in it the interests of our vast production and trade are vitally concerned, and in it we have responsibilities and duties, duties to civilization and to humanity which we cannot escape if we would, and which the conscience of America will not permit us to escape if we could.

GOVERNMENTS MUST BE FAIR.

"In this time of vast immigration, of international investment and ownership, of opportunities for enterprise and of enlarged peaceful intercourse, and, above all, of steadily progressing popular representative diplomacy has been found necessary, representative diplomacy answers not to the judgments of courts or sovereigns, but to the judgment of great popular masses."

"It grows continually more true that the sentiments, feelings and opinions of the people determine policies; decide upon the issues of peace and war, and establish those sympathies between nations which are more powerful than written and signed treaties of alliance.

"A new responsibility rests upon the people whose representatives answer to their will in shaping their treatment of foreign nations. The thoughtful men of any self-governing people have a duty to inform themselves carefully and thoughtfully, to think soberly and clearly, and to express themselves temperately and wisely upon foreign affairs.

"We already realize that the same rules of right conduct which obtain in our individual intercourse with each other apply also to our international political action and the exercise of the power of self-government. We realize that what is wrong and that ought to be condemned in the conduct of man is wrong and should be condemned in the conduct of public offices and in the conduct of politicians.

NATIONS HAVE SOULS.

"In the relations between nations, which the great body of the people now control, there should be a general, all-prevailing and controlling sense that the same rules of conduct ought to be followed. Nations have souls and consciences as truly as individual citizens. The life of the just and faithful and kindly man who is respected and beloved by his neighbors is the type of what every citizen should wish his own country to be in its relations to all other countries. To be narrow and hard, selfish and grasping, to be arrogant toward the weak and timid in maintaining the right against the strong, to be unwilling to give kindly consideration to the rights and interests and to feelings of others, to be without sympathy or helpfulness for the rest of mankind—all these things make an individual man despised and hated in the community.

"We should take the same pains to help our country avoid them that we would take to avoid them ourselves. The greater part of the controversies and wars between nations that arise from the tendency of the people of each nation to assume that upon every question which arises, all the right is upon their own side, and to insist upon having their own way without that deliberate and kindly consideration of the rights and interests of the other side of the question which a just man would give to his neighbors. America has given to the world an example of a democracy made up of individuals capable of that self-control and self-restraint which enables the defeated contestants in a most exciting political controversy to accept peacefully the judgment of the majority, and leads the entire community, however deep may be its feeling, to bow with respect to the judicial judgment.

"The same spirit reinforced by the sentiment for humanity and the desire to help on the progress of civilization, the rule of peace and justice throughout the world may exert a powerful influence not only upon our own affairs with other nations, but upon the international intercourse of mankind.

"Mediation and arbitration are useful methods of solving international controversies without recourse to war, but the true preventive of war is the willingness of the people of the world to be just toward one another; the strong desire of the people of the earth to be kind toward one another; the application of the same rules by all men to their collective treatment of other nations which good citizens apply to their individual treatment of each other. The true and final antidote for war is the love of justice and peace among the people who make war or preserve peace."

BOLIVIA IS FRIENDLY.

Minister Calderon said, in part:

"Bolivia has the friendliest feeling toward the United States. In practical proof of this we have commended the great work of our development through the railways that we are building. We are building about a thousand miles of railway that will be a most important link of this Pan-American ally. It will connect Peru, Bolivia and the Argentine Republic so it will be possible to go from the Atlantic to the Pacific by train. Secretary Root, not only on account of his worthy position and personal attainments, but by way he expressed himself in South America, displaced any misunderstanding which might have been brought about by wrong reports of the newspapers. His work will be worth a great deal for both countries. His visit has been the discovery of South America for the United States."

ROOT'S VISIT MADE FRIENDS.

Minister Pardo, spoke, in part, as follows:

"The greatest effort ever made by the United States to make its policy in regard to the Latin Republics known in South America is represented by the visit by the Secretary of State has just made to those countries. The Secretary of State, whose eloquence has won for himself the affection and esteem of the 40,000,000 inhabitants living south of Panama, and for his country the United States of America has secured the everlasting regard of the southern portion of this continent. The visit of Secretary Root sooner or later will bring the industrial and commercial Americanization of the South American republic. He has been able to appreciate that the South American countries offer today all kinds of opportunity to American capital, because these countries are now on a stable basis, and the country is respected, civil and political freedom exist, and revolutions exist only in the minds of newspaper writers who find in them a good subject to amuse their readers."

WEALTH IS ONLY MENACE.

Minister Cortes said, in part:

"Evolution in this country has been marked by two currents, both of which have contributed enormously to its political stage of prosperity and power. The first current, whose genesis may be placed in the characteristics of the Pilgrim Fathers, is one of spirituality, the appreciation of the sublime, the establishment of self-government, the educational movement, the campaign against corruption in all its forms, and the great movement of emancipation of the slaves. The rival current has moved in the lines of production and in the cultivation of wealth and of material prosperity. The success in this direction has been so complete that, I believe, you have reached the summit, since one of the great problems that now occupies the minds of the best people of the land is how to avoid the indefinite accumulation of wealth.

"In fact, you have reached the point as to whether an indefinite amount of wealth is not considered an evil that must be checked in some way."

"My view and my hope is that wealth will be vanquished in its struggle against spirituality and that this country which has been so rich in surprises to the world will in the future at no distant time, assume the heretofore unknown attitude of a nation becoming the upholder of the high principles of morality and the virtue of justice, love and good will, not only in a political and administrative way, but likewise in its international relations. By assuming that position I believe this great nation will attain a point of real greatness entirely unknown in the history of the world, and that indeed it will carry the prosperity of the nation to a point unknown in the history of the great nations of ancient and modern times. The United States will never have cause to complain of the accumulation of too much justice and too much love as you feel now that you have too much wealth."

INVITES AMERICAN TRADE.

Charge Yoachim said in part:

"The recent voyage through South America of your honorable Secretary of State, who was received by us like the ambassador of peace, progress and American solidarity, is, I am happy to verify, producing the results duly expected. The people of America will know more of their southern neighbors than they did before, and this fact will bring more close commercial relations with mutual benefit.

"My country, Chile, for instance, though very rich in natural products, has but little commerce with the United States because we are not known. We want capital to float a new company or to start a new industry. We must go to the European markets, where we are well known and there we find all kinds of facilities. I hope that before long we will see your ships trafficking in South American waters, and your goods coming to our ports in competition with the European trade."

BRAZIL BECKONS US.

Secretary Do Amaral said in part:

"The speech of Secretary Root in the Rio Janeiro conference reflected the broad-minded policy agreed upon by the President of the United States, towards all the sister Republics of America. His speech is an everlasting event. It will remain as a monument of wisdom and clear-minded spirit of justice, and a tribute to universal truth.

"Secretary Root, I believe, is quite well aware of the enormous possibilities that the Americans have in trading with the Brazilian people through our chief port, an allow me to say, go to Brazil yourself, study our markets, see our resources on the spot. Be familiar with the twenty-two millions of people inhabiting Brazil, understand our language, and success will be your reward. And this reward will be a matter of great satisfaction to the Brazilians also, because they will see the ties of our ancient and never-disturbed friendship become closer by all the advantages that commerce gives to men."

MEETING MARKS NEW ERA.

Minister Barrett spoke briefly, reserving his principal remarks for tomorrow night. He said:

"I cannot emphasize too strongly the point that this meeting in Kansas City of the South American diplomats with delegates of the people from all over the United States marks the actual beginning of a new era in the relationship existing between the United States and South America."

Several especially invited guests were present, including Daniel Chester French, the sculptor of New York; David R. Francis, president of the Trans-Mississippi Congress; Governor Mickey of Nebraska; Governor Frants of Oklahoma; several officers from the army posts at Fort Leavenworth and Fort Riley, Kas., J. F. Hurley, general manager of the Santa Fé; S. M. Felton, president of the Alton Railway, B. L. Winchell, Rock Island system and J. Kruttschnitt, vice-president, and J. C. Stubbs, traffic manager of the Union Pacific.

WINNING PACE GETS WARMER.

DR. LINDLEY GAINS DAILY IN PERSONAL CAMPAIGN.

Continues Tour of Downtown District and in Evening Meets Precinct Committeemen at Dinner. Talks to Negroes at Scott's Hall. Street Railway Employees Will Hear Him Today.

With two weeks of campaigning still ahead of him, Dr. Walter Lindley, Republican candidate for Mayor, resumed his winning race yesterday after a rest over Sunday.

The day was a repetition of those that have gone before. He got out among the people, meeting scores of business and professional men in their offices or on the streets, while at his office at Republican headquarters he directed the activities of his corps of campaign managers.

His success as a vote-getter grows more apparent as the campaign progresses.

During the day Dr. Lindley visited business houses and offices in the downtown district, and in the evening addressed precinct committeemen the Second Ward at dinner in a downtown restaurant. Later he spoke at a meeting of the Afro-American Council at Scott's Hall, No. 561 Central avenue.

Today he will meet employés of the Los Angeles Railway Company and of the Pacific Electric, and this evening will appear at two meetings, first at Turner Hall on South Main street, where all candidates for the Mayoralty have been invited to address members of the German and the Liberal Alliance, and later at a meeting of Ninth Warders at First and Cummings streets. Dist.-Atty. Fredericks and A. M. Cates also will speak at the Ninth Ward meeting.

Several other meetings have been arranged by the Republican Central Committee for the remainder of this week. It is expected that there will be two or three meetings each evening until the close of the campaign.

Hidden Withdraws.

Enoch Hidden, independent candidate for Councilman of the Second Ward, has withdrawn from the contest in favor of A. S. Vandegrift, the candidate of the Non-Partisan City Central Committee.

KEEN FIGHTERS BACK OF WREN.

THIRD WARD COUNCIL NOMINEE LOYALLY SUPPORTED.

Independent Candidate Makes a Winning Race on Excellent Record as Citizen, Business Man and Fire Commissioner — In Hearty Accord With the Owens River Project.

One of the keenest Councilmanic contests of the campaign is waging in the Third Ward, where Walter Wren, nominee of the Non-Partisan City Central Committee, is walking away with the opposition, as represented by S. W. Hiller, the Republican candidate.

Wren's forces have been at work for some time and an organization has been perfected in each of the fifteen precincts of the ward. His personal friends, together with many of the leading citizens of the ward, are joining in the campaign. A large number of volunteers already have agreed to work for him at the polls on election day. Some of them will turn out with their automobiles and will carry Wren voters to the polling places.

The Third Ward has been noted in the past for its lively doings in the election of a Councilman. Although the ward is strongly Republican, it has elected two Democratic candidates in recent years, simply because it did not like the nominees of the Republican convention.

It is the same this year. Councilman Hiller, who seeks reelection, cannot boast the undivided support of the Republican voters of his ward; while Mr. Wren, himself a Republican, has the confidence not only of men of that party, but of Democrats and independent voters.

Unlike his adversary, Mr. Wren did not seek the nomination. He accepted it only after his friends had urged it upon him with persistence.

As a part of the plan to aid Hiller some of the members of the McCaffery ring in the Democratic party nominated a man named Dwyer as the Democratic candidate, but even Mr. Dwyer looks on his campaign as a joke.

Out in the residence sections of the ward, Mr. Wren is especially strong, while he is making votes in a canvass of the downtown precincts.

For two years Mr. Wren has been a member of the Fire Commission, the only political office he ever held, and this was thrust upon him. His course on that board has been above criticism. He has carried into his public work the principles that have made him successful as a business man, and the representative people who are supporting him for the Council are confident that he always will act in that body for the best interests of the city.

Mr. When is thirty-three years old and has been a resident of Los Angeles county for twenty-three years. He came to this city in 1895 and for ten years has been engaged in the insurance business, a following in which he has been remarkably successful.

As a member of the Fire Commission, Mr. Wren has done many of the duties that ordinarily fall to the office of Councilman. Residents of his ward have called upon him frequently to secure the performance of public services that were needed. In some sections he has caused streets and sidewalks to be cleaned and other duties fulfilled.

On the Owens River project Mr. Wren expresses himself forcibly.

"We must have the Qwens River here," said he yesterday. "It is the only plan that promises the abundance of water needed by this growing city. I have favored the project since its inception and it was my pleasure to aid in the election at which the bonds were voted for starting the work.

"As a member of the Fire Commission I have had a close insight into the water needs of the city and I am convinced that the Owens River plan is the only one that promises a solution of the problem that is before us. It means everything to our future.

"It was without any solicitation on my part that I became a candidate for the Council. I even tried to avoid becoming a candidate. Now that I am in the contest I hope and intend to win the election. I owe allegiance to no one, and if elected shall do my best to serve the interests of the people of the Third Ward and of the city at large."

OKLAHOMA'S CONSTITUTION.

DEMOCRATS TO WRITE IT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

GUTHRIE (Okla.) Nov. 19.—The convention of delegates from Oklahoma and Indian Territory, who will write the Costitution of the new State, will convene tomorrow.

Fifteen of the 122 delegates are missing tonight. Hotel lobbies are crowded with delegates.

The overwhelming Democratic majority precludes any active participation by the opposition in the fight for president of the convention.

One of the most formidable candidates for this position is Peter Hanraty, district president of the United Mine Workers of America.

GEORGIA CAYVAN DEAD.

For Years the Most Popular Actress of America's Metropolis, Her Latter Days Passed in Sanitarium.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Miss Georgia Cayvan, for years one of the most popular actresses in this city, died today in a sanitarium at Flushing, L. I., where she had been a patient about seven years.

Miss Cayvan, who was 45 years of age, was formerly a member of the old Lyceum Theater stock company of this city, of which Daniel Frohman was manager. About seven years ago the actress was taken ill, and was compelled to leave the stage. A benefit was held and sufficient money was raised to pay her expenses the remainder of her life. During her career on the stage Miss Cayvan took the prominent parts in the "Charity Ball," "Sweet Lavender," "Americans Abroad," and "Squire Kate."

Miss Cayvan was one of the prime movers in the Actors' Fund Fair which was held about twelve years ago in Madison Square Garden. At the close of the fair she was awarded a diamond star, having received the most votes for the most popular actress on the stage.

HONORS TO EXPLORER.

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Dr. Karl Hildebrandt, chief editor of the Ultra Conservative Dagblad, and Charles Lindberg, the Social Democratic leader, have been chosen by the lower house of the Riksdag to take part in the great welcome, which is to be given to Roald Amundsen, the explorer, on his arrival at Christiana tomorrow.

Capt. Amundsen will be brought on a Norwegian warship coming from Christiana, where the citizens gave a banquet similar to the greater affair planned for the reception at Christiana tomorrow night.

BRAINS WIFE WITH POKER.

Rev. Peter Gettman Then Cuts His Throat.

Aged Preacher's Young Bride Met Six Children.

House of Mrs. Hartje's Father Burglarized.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HANBORN (Iowa) Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After coldly beating his wife down with a stove poker and leaving her for dead, Rev. Peter Gettman, aged 50 years, walked a mile to Hawkswtack, which he attempted to set on fire, then severed his jugular vein with his pocket knife.

His wife was but 20 years of age, and a bride of nine months.

After cutting the gash in his throat, Gettman closed his knife and put it in his pocket, where it was found, covered with blood.

Gettman and his wife quarreled over a house Saturday, but his remains were not found until today. The dying woman was found by a neighbor late yesterday afternoon.

Gettman came here from Kossuth county, Iowa, but a few months ago, after marrying the young girl in Minnesota, Minn., their marriage being arranged by friends. It proved unhappy from the first, Gettman having seven children, the eldest one a year the senior of his wife. The preacher was wealthy, owning several farms in Iowa.

MRS HARTJE'S FATHER.

VISITED BY BURGLAR.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The house of John Scott, father of Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje, the famous defendant in the celebrated Hartje divorce suit, was looted by burglars last night and the safe was opened by Mrs. Hartje after leaving her husband were ransacked. A servant discovered the burglar, but he escaped. Mrs. Hartje is now visiting relatives in Redlands, Cal.

SHOOTS WIFE, SLAYS SELF.

CRAZED WOMAN TO FAST LIFE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

OAKLAND, Nov. 19.—Frank Distaso, an Italian, aged 70 years, this morning attempted to murder his wife of 22 years because she would not receive company and lead a fast life. He shot her twice as she covered their two-months-old baby, one ball entering the nose and piercing the brain, the other passing through her neck. He supposed her to be dead and committed suicide by shooting himself in the temple. He died instantly.

The shooting occurred at 3 o'clock this morning at No. 462 Rose street, where the couple had apartments. The wife was removed to the Receiving Hospital, where her wounds were pronounced not serious. Mrs. Distaso was willing to support the aged man in their means, but refused to come to a life of shame, which aroused his wrath and nearly cost him his life.

POLICEMAN KILLS POLICEMAN.

TWO FATALLY WOUNDED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Policeman Luke Scanlon is dead and Charles Hanson, ex-convict, is dying as the result of a fight early today in an elevated railroad station.

Scanlon and a companion last night were guarding the safe of a Hammond, Ind., grocery store and escaped with several hundred dollars and negotiable papers after exchanging shots with the Hammond police. Later the two boarded a car for Chicago. The conductor, who had heard of the robbery and being suspicious of them, informed Policeman Fitzpatrick, upon reaching Chicago. Fitzpatrick and the conductor followed the men. Fitzpatrick ordered them to halt, but at once opened fire on him. Scanlon was struck several times and fell down the stairs, but managed to empty his revolver at Hanson, who had come down the stairs to escape. Hanson fired several more shots at Fitzpatrick, who died soon after. Policeman Birch and Wilson, who heard the firing, arrived as Hanson was running away, and Birch shot him in the fatal

KILLED IN OFFICE ARREST OF

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Gustav Simon, senior member of the Queen Waist Company, with headquarters at Nos. 604-608 Broadway, was shot in his office today, receiving a wound from the effects of which he died.

A woman, a former employé of the company, is under arrest, charged with the shooting. She had called upon Simon to collect money said to be due her from the firm.

She was unconscious for some time after he died, and there is doubt as to what immediately preceded the shooting.

A prisoner, who was arrested as he was leaving the building, described as a visit to Mme. Anasia Louise de Lussan, a shirt designer, 38 years old, living on West Thirty-seventh street. She protested her innocence, and explained her presence in Simon's office by saying:

"I did not shoot him. I am a decent girl and was employed there for years. I came to collect $30 due me. I said to Simon, 'I want my $30,' and he said I would have to come back. Then he said I would have to sue for it, and I told him that the shooting was an accident, as I did not intend to kill

OAKLAND, Nov. 19.—Frank Distaso, a Italian, aged 70 years, this morning attempted to murder his wife of 18 years because she would not accompany and lead a fast life. Distaso committed suicide by shooting himself in the temple. He died instantly.

The tragedy occurred at 9 o'clock this morning at No. 462 Rose street, where they had apartments. The woman had removed to the Receiving Hospital, but her wounds were pronounced not serious. Mrs. Distaso is willing to support the children in their means, but refused to live a life of shame, which she says is loathsome and nearly cost her life.

KILLS POLICEMAN.

IS FATALLY WOUNDED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN JOSE, Nov. 19.—Policeman Luke Hanlon is dead and Charles Hanson, a convict, is dying as the result of a shooting early today in an elevated railroad car.

Hanson and a companion last night entered the safe of a Hammond, Cal., store and escaped with several hundred dollars and negotiable bonds after exchanging shots with Hammond police. Later the pair boarded a car for Chicago. Hanlon, who had heard of them, and being suspicious of them, notified Policeman Fitzpatrick, upon the train in Chicago. Fitzpatrick and Hanlon followed the men. Hanlon ordered them to halt, when Hanson opened fire on him. Hanlon was struck several times before he fell down the stairs, but managed to draw his revolver at Hanson, who was on the stairs to escape. Hanlon fired several more shots at Hanson, who died soon after.

Birch and Wilson, who heard the firing, arrived as Hanson was running away, and Birch shot him through the back, inflicting a fatal wound.

The companion of Hanson, whose name is thought to be Guy Vantostle, escaped by sliding down one of the supports of the elevated road.

ROTTEN WORK AT VENICE.

No Guarantee of Stability for Italy's Noble Pile, the Campanile.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ROME, Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Throughout the execution of restoration work upon the Campanile of St. Mark's in Venice doubts have been expressed as to the quality of materials used in reconstruction.

The Syndic of Venice, Count Grimani, has commissioned Prof. Luxardo to make examination and analysis of the bricks and mortar employed. The latter now reports both contain qualities which give no guarantee of stability.

It is proposed to level to the ground the work already done in order to begin with more satisfactory materials.

CRIME BRIEFS.

Gillette Evidence Begins.

HERKIMER (N. Y.) Nov. 19.—Frank Brown, father of the girl Chester Gillette is accused of having murdered, gave the first testimony for the prosecution today in Gillette's trial on a charge of murder.

Woman Drowns Herself.

VALLEJO, Nov. 19.—Mrs. E. Hackett committed suicide Saturday night by drowning off the Virginia-street wharf. Her body was recovered yesterday. She was 65 years old, and had been despondent.

Say Thaw Was Insane.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—That Harry K. Thaw was insane when he shot and killed Stanford White in Madison Square Roof Garden Theater is the expressed opinion of three alienists connected with State institutions, who examined the prisoner at the instance of his counsel.

Saloon Is Robbed.

WATSONVILLE, Nov. 19.—The saloon of J. J. Leddy of Pajaro station was held up by a masked man about 11 o'clock tonight. Leddy was robbed of $200 and two gold watches. A Sheriff's posse is in pursuit of the robber.

ROB COLLECTOR IN WARSAW CITY.

TERRORISTS GRAB COIN, BUT DROP IT IN FLIGHT.

In Daring Robbery One of Excise Man's Guard Is Killed—Remaining Soldier Shoots Wildly, Killing One Passer-by and Injuring Another.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WARSAW, Nov. 19.—A daring Terrorist attack was made in the street this morning on a collector of the government alcohol stocks who was escorted by two soldiers. The Terrorists killed one soldier, wounded the collector and secured a bag containing $1000. The remaining soldier fired widely, killed one passer-by and wounded another, whereupon the Terrorists dropped their booty and escaped.

ARRESTED SOCIALIST LEADERS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WARSAW, Nov. 19.—The two leaders of the band of revolutionists and twenty others implicated in the train robbery at Rogow, November 8, by which the revolutionists secured a sum of money said to amount to $650,000, have been arrested. They all belong to the Polish socialistic party.

KILLED IN OFFICE; ARREST OF WOMAN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Gustav Simon, a junior member of the Queen Novelty Company, with headquarters at 48-50 Broadway, was shot and killed today, receiving a wound the effects of which he died.

Miss Minnie Anasta Louise de Vernon, a former employé of the firm, is under arrest, charged with the murder. She had called upon Simon to get money said to be due her from the firm.

Simon was unconscious for some time after he died, and there is doubt as to what immediately preceded the shooting.

Miss Vernon, who was arrested as she left the building, described herself as Miss Anasta Louise de Vernon, a dress designer, 28 years old, living at 140 West Thirty-seventh street. She protested her innocence, explaining her presence in Simon's office by saying:

"I went to shoot him. I am a dressmaker and was employed there for a time. I came to collect $30 due me. I said to Simon, 'I want my $30.' He said I would have to come back, but he said I would have to sue him for it, and I am going to sue him, too. I did not shoot him."

According to the police, who allege that the shooting was witnessed, the woman approached Simon and asked for the money due her. Simon told her she would have to return some two and a half hours later, at the usual hour when employés were paid. She retired to the hall, but at once reëntered the office, and immediately afterward the fifty women employés in an adjoining workroom were startled by the report of three shots, fired in quick succession.

The first bullet passed through a glass partition and between two models; the second struck Simon in the neck, and the third imbedded itself in the ceiling.

During the excitement that followed, the woman reached the street, where she was pointed out to the police. A revolver of large caliber, three chambers of which were empty, was later found in a Manila handbag on the stairway, leading from the office to the main aisle.

Later, at police headquarters, the prisoner said her maiden name was Anisia Louise du Luise Vernon. Neighbors of the prisoner give her a good reputation.

ROBBERY OF BANK EXTENDED FOR YEARS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PEKIN, (Ill.) Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sensational developments are shown in the examination of the books of the defunct Farmers' State Bank at Pekin.

Confessions by the directors implicate in the robbery of $400,000 of the funds, and it was shown that at least 10 per cent. of the money loaned to the officials of the bank themselves, to be used in their personal and combined schemes, proved that for the last fifteen years Dietrick C. Smith had not a cent invested in the bank, and other evidence is shown by the books that the Smith Wagon and Plow Works, owned by the bank, and which went into bankruptcy upon the failure of the bank, owed the bank in the neighborhood of $405,000.

Plunges on the Board of Trade have also been shown to have been part cause of the failure of the bank.

A whole week has been spent in obtaining nine jurors.

Hoodoo Training Quarters Hold No Fears.

O'Brien Appears Tonight as Monologue Artist.

George Gardner Wants Fight in Los Angeles.

Jimmy Walsh is not afraid of hoodoos. Last night he decided to train at Santa Monica, whence heretofore only losing fighters have come forth. The beach town looks wonderfully good to the Boston boy, it seems, for he took it in preference to Arcadia. Jimmy is used to the roar of the sea, having passed much of his young life in hearing the thundering breakers off Cape Cod and thereabouts. The mild climate of the inland towns is not to the liking of the lad who was brought up on the bleak shores of the New England coast. He likes to sniff the salt-water breezes and take an occasional dip in the briny.

Walsh is light and believes that he will go into the ring at about 118 pounds. One reason why he wants to go to the beach is because he believes he can build himself up in weight and strength. He says that when he fought Attell before he weighed about 112 pounds. He wants to enter the ring with considerable more avoirdupois. The California air and sea breezes should give it to him.

Walsh is confident of beating Attell. He already is considering the qualities of Harry Baker, who is promised a match with the winner. Jimmy is looking in fine shape right now, and says he should be at his best on the night of the battle, which is set for December 7. Walsh would like to have the fight postponed for a week, not because he desires to get in better shape, but because he believes it too near the O'Brien-Burns date.

Kid Conroy, who showed up well with Kid Webster in the preliminary to the last fight, may act as Walsh's sparring partner. Conroy is fast and clever, and had he been in condition would have given Webster a much harder battle.

Walsh goes to the beach this morning to begin work.

O'BRIEN IN MONOLOGUE.

Jack O'Brien plays a return engagement in Southern California as a monologue artist tonight. He will deliver an illustrated lecture at the Venice Auditorium on "Physical Culture," with moving pictures showing him in his work-outs and in some of his contests. To help out the show the Venice Royal Italian Band will discourse sweet music.

The occasion of Jack's appearance is to raise a fund for the benefit of the pension fund of the Venice fire department and the Bixby relief fund. In order to make the occasion more impressive, and incidentally more attractive, O'Brien will box Bob Ward and the "Terrible" Turk. Short bouts between the following pairs of boxers also are carded: Kid Dalton and Kid Solomon, Leonard Lauder and Jack Brown, Tommy Leahy and Kid Webster, "Battling" Swanson and Jack Lee.

GARDNER WANTS FIGHT.

George Gardner, the heavyweight, is hot on the trail of Al Kaufman, and may be given an opportunity to appear before Los Angeles fight fans in the near future—provided Kaufman will come through.

Gardner is here for the Ascot races, being interested in several bangtails which will run this season. Since his memorable battle with Bob Fitzsimmons, the Lowell pad has been devoting most of his time to the ponies and to his private business in Chicago, between the two of which he has amassed considerable of this world's goods. At one time he owned a good string of runners, but lately disposed of some of them and is now associated with several well-known horsemen in a stable making the circuit of the winter races.

Gardner does not need the money from the fighting game, but loves it for the sport there is in it. Since his semi-retirement from the ring he has met several good men and polished them off easily.

"If there is one man made to order for me," says Gardner, "it is Kaufman, and I want to get a chance at him in the near future. I am always in condition, and of late have been preparing myself for a big battle in anticipation of being called upon to take the measure of some of these fellows claiming the heavyweight championship. Yesterday I took a ten-mile jaunt on the road and was surprised at my good wind action. A week or two at hard work and I will be in good shape."

CLEMENCEAU AGAINST WAR.

Wants to Cultivate Good Relations With Germany.

Says Delcasse Was Deposed to Avoid War.

He Works to Preserve Peace With Neighbors.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BERLIN, Nov. 19.—The Tageblatt today printed a dispatch from Paris detailing an interview which its correspondent at the French capital had with Premier Clemenceau and the Foreign Minister, Pichon, the day before Chancellor Von Buelow delivered his recent speech in the Reichstag on Germany's foreign relations. M. Clemenceau, after referring to the attacks of the German press on the new French ministry is quoted as saying:

"The Germans have one fault. They treat us one moment with exquisite politeness and the next moment with exaggerated brusqueness. Before the Moroccan affair, the feeling here had greatly improved and there were many people among us who regarded a rapprochement with Germany as very desirable and I readily admit that the Emperor personally had a large part in bringing about this state of affairs. Then although we discarded M. Delcasse as Foreign Minister, the German press attacked us, the papers even asserting that Germany could get from the United States the milliards necessary for a German-French war. Thus the Moroccan affair resulted in loss of the ground which had been gained in previous years.

"I do not want war and no one else here wants war. We desire good relations with all foreign countries and if these relations are not satisfactory we are desirous of improving them. Of course we must always be strong and prepared for everything but that does not mean that we want war. On the other hand no one who desired war would be regarded as demented, and it was because we thought so that we overthrew M. Delcasse, who did not want war, but whose policy might have led to war. It would be impossible for us to pursue a warlike policy, for Parliament would dismiss the ministers at once as it did in the case of Delcasse.

"The task which I shall set for myself is to continue the work of cementing the relations between France and Germany."

M. Pichon fully endorsed M. Clemenceau's views declaring that he with M. Clemenceau, would do everything possible to improve the relations between the two countries.

HARNESS MEET OPENS TODAY.

Good Entries for Trotting and Pacing Races.

Lovers of Driving Animals Gather in City.

High-Class Events Are Scheduled Each Day.

The Los Angeles Harness Horse Association opens its fall meeting at Agricultural Park this afternoon when it cards its first day's racing. There are but two legitimate events arranged, the 2:15 pace and the 2:15 trot, but in addition two running races have been listed.

The first heat is scheduled to be called at 1:45 and the others will follow as soon as possible thereafter. The entries in the trotting and pacing events today are all made by Californians, most of them being Angelenos. Purses for today and tomorrow are $500 each, divided at the usual ratio.

All the horses entered in the harness events for the entire meet, with the exception of those in the novice race and two or three of the slower events, are all classy, and should furnish good sport.

In the 2:15 pace are entered: Rockaway, sorrel gelding, owned by G. A. Pounder of Los Angeles; Birdie Mack, brown mare, owned by Sam Murphy of Santa Ana; Lillian S, black mare owned by Stephens & Son, of Los Angeles, Klondike, brown gelding, the property of Louis Stock, Los Angeles; Wandering Boy, brown stallion, owned by S. E. Kent of Los Angeles; Mollie Button, brown mare, owned by D. S. Misner, Pleasanton; Norda, brown mare, owned by G. W. Bonnell of San Bernardino.

In the 2:15 trot are entered: Queer Knight, brown gelding, property of William Morgan, Pasadena; Neergard, brown mare, owned by George J. Morgan of Los Angeles; Zombowyette, brown mare, owned by George T. Backers of Los Angeles; Homeway, brown gelding, owned by D. R. Misner of Pleasanton; Burnut, brown gelding, owned by George W. Ford of Santa Ana; R. Ambush, brown stallion, owned by G. W. Bonnell of San Bernardino.

George D. Eston of Los Angeles will be the presiding judge of the meeting, and associated with him will be James Wallace of San Diego and John S Bransford of Salt Lake City. J. W. Springer is chief timer, with Dr. Ralph Hagan and C. Hausley as assistants. Frank E. Stone of Burlington Wis. has been selected as the starter, and comes with good recommendations.

Lovers of harness horses from all over the State and many from the far East have gathered for the meeting, which lasts through the remainder of the week. The track is in the best of shape, having been put through a course of conditioning with harrow and drag. The grand stand has been repaired to furnish good accommodations.

Speedy horses have been working out for a month at the park, and some very fast miles have been reeled off during the last week. But a number of cambaigners fresh from the East have just arrived and will start in the races. The meet at the Territorial Fair at Phoenix was the last to take place, and among those which were prominent there are Audubon Boy, Phalla, and others.

WANT RETURN MATCH.

Occidental Team Returns to Straight Football and Believes It Can Beat U.S.C.

Occidental and Polytechnic High School will play two fifteen-minute halves this afternoon on the Occidental campus. The High School boys are working hard for their game with Los Angeles High School Saturday afternoon. Coach Thompson, in spite of the fact that one or two of his men are not in the best condition, is confident that the team will make a creditable showing against its old-time rivals.

The showing Occidental made against St. Vincent's Saturday was very gratifying to the students and they are confident that a victory will be scored over Pomona Saturday. On account of the keen rivalry with the Claremonters in all intercollegiate contests, the annual football game with the Congregationalists is considered the most important of the season, and the Presbyterians will bend every effort toward winning it.

A training table has been started, and the men will be closely watched until the whistle blows Saturday afternoon. The players, with the exception of Wieman, who has a slightly twisted ankle, have recovered from the effects of the game with the Catholics, and unless some one is injured in practice this week, the strongest team to be obtained from the college will take the field against the Congregationalists. The return to the old-style game, with but an occasional open formation, meets with the approval of the players and they are playing harder and faster than heretofore.

If the Presbyterians are victorious in the Pomona game, it is likely that they will challenge U.S.C. for a return match. Occidental supporters claim that the showing made against the Methodists, when the Presbyterians had nothing to resort to after the open formations failed, does not represent the real strength of the team. However, if the team goes down before Pomona, it will immediately disband for the year.

TOM COOPER IS KILLED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Tom Cooper, the bicycle rider and automobilist, was killed instantly tonight in an automobile accident in Central Park. While riding at full speed on the drive in the park near Seventy-second street, in company with Miss Virginia Vernon of Jersey City, and Miss Helen Hall of this city, his automobile ran into an automobile standing still on the drive. Cooper was hurled twenty feet and struck on his head. His women companions were thrown out also and severely injured. They were taken to Roosevelt Hospital. The occupants of the car with which Cooper collided were taken to the Arsenal Police Station in the park.

MOTORCYCLES IN HILL CONTESTS.

LOS ANGELES WHEELMEN HOPE TO WIN HONORS.

Fifteen Entries From This City Will Contend in the Thanksgiving Day Events at Riverside—Automobilists Going Over Course to Familiarize Features.

Thirty members of the Los Angeles Motorcycle Club are preparing to go to Riverside to witness the hill-climbing contests on the Box Springs grade, Thanksgiving Day. About fifteen members of the club expect to take part in the motorcycle race which is the first number on the programme. A number of fine machines and good riders are in Los Angeles and one of the entries from here is expected to bring home the honors.

Friends of W. S. Collins are tipping him off to win. He rides a special Reading racer and is light in build, which counts when going up a grade. His machine generates two and one-fourth horse power. William Hoag also rides a Reading and has a light seat.

W. C. Risden, riding an Indian machine, is "laying" for the "mile-a-minute Mitchell" machine from San Bernardino which was a winner last year. Risden was making the best time of any in the race in that event when his tire burst, throwing him out of the running. He desired to ride the event over again against the San Bernardino machine, but the judges would not permit him. He then went over the course alone with especially appointed timers and claims to have beaten the time set by the winner. This year he wants to prove his contention, not only by beating the Berdoo outfit, but by winning the race.

Rene Le Goube, with his imported French Peugiot, expects to show up the American machines. His motor is double cylinder and generates five horse power. Young Lord, in his three-horse-power Harley Davidson machine, is going to be a contender, it is believed.

The well-known "M.-M." machine—Marsh-Metzer—will be given trial in two entries. Each machine generates three horse-power. Mr. Metz, the junior partner of the firm, recently visited Los Angeles and placed his machines here. He is touring Texas at the present time on his way east, riding one of his motorcycles.

Messrs. Fink and Frick, two local riders, have entered two Wagners in the race. The machines are three horse-power each and are driven by belt. Frick was one of the winners of the endurance run to San Bernardino and return, last July, when he was one of those who made a perfect score.

A number of Los Angeles autoists visit the course daily and go over the road to familiarize themselves with the peculiarities of the ground. Each expects to figure out the points where he may make the best time. The road has been put in excellent condition, has a firm bed, and is free from dust.

BOOKMAKERS HIT HARD.

Well-Played Favorites Cross the Wire in First Two Races at Emeryville.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—There was a very good attendance at the second day's meet at Emeryville. The bookmakers suffered in the opening races, in which Gypsy King and Laura E, well-played favorites, took the money, but recovered some of their losses in the third, when Miss May Bowdish, a neglected long shot, came first under the wire. Results:

Six furlongs: Gypsy King won, Avonalis second, Fred Bent third; time 1:13 3-5.

Five furlongs: Laura E won, Peerless second, Banlada third; time 1:01 2-5.

Seven furlongs: Miss M. Bowdish won, Crigli second, Meringue third; time 1:28 4-5.

Mile and twenty yards: Morendo won, Gloomy Gus second, Governor Davis third; time 1:42.

Six furlongs: Cloudlight won, Rubric second, Royal Rogue third; time 1:15 1-5.

One mile: Blue Elen won, Baker second, C. Clem third; time 1:41 4-5.

Peg-legged Plunger.

A funny thing to be observed any day at the races East if one cares to look, is "One Leg." Every bookmaker and most every bookmaker's clerk knows this gnarled old man who hobbles on a wooden stump. He has been around the betting ring since the first days of Gloucester and Guttenberg, and has won and lost fortunes in gambling on the ponies. Some days you will see him putting up for the best price under locomotion of a crutch. Other times the wooden leg—it is an exceptional "wooden leg," inasmuch as it is of purest ebony and set off in silver plating, one such as any one-legged Beau Brummel might well wish for—does service. "Ah, 'Peggie' is broke today," sallies the bookmaker to his sheet writer as "One Leg" comes along on his crutch. Why? you will ask. The valuable ebonized artificial limb has been "hocked" in a Bowery pawnshop for the price of a few piking bets. When the owner gets flush again, out comes the leg and away to the shelf goes the crutch.

HARRIS STICKS TO CAL EWING.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Henry Harris made the following statement tonight in reference to a dispatch from Los Angeles:

"I was approached by certain parties from Los Angeles relative to the formation of an outlaw league. I told them, and I want it thoroughly understood, that as long as Cal Ewing is the controlling factor in San Francisco baseball in the Pacific Coast League, I will do nothing to oppose him. I sold out my interests to him and would not deem it right to work against him. I am reliably informed Ewing will be in baseball in 1907, and is negotiating for a new park, and therefore I would not consider the proposition from the South.

"As to whether I would interest myself in an outlaw league in case that Ewing sold out his interests—that is a matter that would have to be considered at another time."

KELLY'S RECORD IS RECOGNIZED.

CALIFORNIA ATHLETES GIVEN OFFICIAL RULING.

Boston Receives A.A.U. Boxing Tournament and the Swimming Contests Go to the Jamestown Exposition—Important Work of Athletic Committees.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The record of 9 2-5 seconds for 100 yards made by Dan J. Kelly at Spokane, Wash., on June 23, last, has been approved by the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States, and it will stand as a world's record.

College athletes in entering competitions must in the future, choose between their college and their athletic clubs. They will not be permitted to represent both at the same time. This choice may be made once each year. The meeting adopted a resolution to this effect.

The registration committee made the following recommendations: Neal M. Locke, Riverside, Cal., reinstated; J. P. King, San Francisco, provisionally recommended; Pacific Coast Association, granted card; O. F. Snediger, provisionally recommended; Pacific Coast Committee, granted card.

The Rocky Mountain Association, which takes in the States of Utah, Wyoming, Colorado and New Mexico, was admitted as a member of the A.A.U. The championship committee decided to award the A.A.U. track, field, and swimming contests to the Jamestown Exposition for next year and the boxing matches to Boston.

BOXING FATED IN THE EAST.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In all probability Gov. Hanley will issue an order to all Sheriffs that will end the plans of the prize fight promoters. Several bouts in which Chicago pugilists are factors are scheduled for Indiana towns within the next three weeks. Since the death of Mike Ward as the result of a fight with Harry Lewis at Grand Rapids, Mich., the Michigan authorities, expressed the desire to eliminate all forms of boxing in that state. The Indiana Governor wishes to follow suit.

ARE PLANNING BALLOON RACE.

Aeronauts Say Conditions Here Are Ideal.

Motorcycle Club Arranging for Winter Meet.

Auto Races May Be Included in Christmas Events.

Motorcyclists from all over the United States may take part in a big race meet proposed for December by the Los Angeles Motorcycle Club. No date has been set, but Christmas Day is suggested and Agricultural Park will be the scene of the events.

As an added attraction a balloon race and auto races may be carded. Baldwin has a good balloon in storage in Los Angeles, and negotiations are on foot to bring one to Los Angeles. These balloons will then be raced, as were the recent events in Europe, and at Pittsfield, Mass. The auto races may attract some of the best men in the country.

The balloon racing would be the new feature on the proposed card. It would not be on the airship order, but the big gas bags and cars as used at Paris and elsewhere would be used. If a local concern can be found able to furnish enough gas for the ascent it is believed the venture can be carried out successfully.

Those interested in balloon racing say that Los Angeles may become the center of balloon racing in the United States. A movement is on foot to have the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce secure rights for a five-acre tract of land at some prominent point, where balloonists may erect sheds and provide parpaphernalia for experimenting on their aerial craft. It is proposed if this plan is carried through to promote the construction and improvement of balloons, airships, and aeroplanes.

Aeronauts who have visited Los Angeles and made ascensions say that Southern California, and particularly Los Angeles, presents the best conditions for balloon and airship ascensions. There are seven currents of air in the atmospheric strata at various heights, so that balloonists may take advantage of any one of them, as the case may require.

Conditions are favorable for safe ascensions at any time during the spring, summer and autumn months, and even in the winter, for air currents are almost always inland, and there is little rain, plenty of dry atmospheric conditions, no sudden squalls, very few storms of any kind, and safe landing places. Balloons rising from Chutes Park take a gradual ascent inland, and the aeronaut is able to land in the neighborhood of Riverside, Pomona, or along the northern foothills. There are no bodies of water to fall into, and most of the fruit trees are so small in height that if the basket of the balloon should strike them and spill the driver out, he would not receive serious injury.

If a balloon race is arranged for, some of the best pilots in the East may be brought out to man the balloons. There are many good motorists here, and more will come West and enter. Auto races are easily filled with the best men.

SAN DIEGO LOSES OUT.

Vickers and Charley Hall Secure Place for Santa Barbara in Winter League.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 19.—"Rube" Vickers and Charley Hall have closed negotiations to put Santa Barbara in the winter league of bush leaguers, having grabbed the plum from San Diego, which was trying for a place. But the extra cost of railroad fares and the probability of a smaller gate receipt militated against the chances for San Diego, and Vickers and Hall won the sixth place in the league.

The winter league will be made up of four Los Angeles teams—the Hamburgers, Tuft-Lyons, Hoegee Flags and Morans—Pasadena and Santa Barbara.

Vickers and Hall will pitch for the locals, and either Carl Lewis or Bobby Eager will receive the sphere. The other players will be Monroe on first; Hearne, second; Daley, third; Halsey Smith, short; Martinske, left, and Caruthers, right, and Carlisle of the Los Angeles Coast League aggregation will hold down center. New uniforms of maroon and white have been ordered.

The schedule will permit Santa Barbara to be at home every Sunday for the twenty-three Sundays of the winter season. The five other teams of the league will come here in turn. The Morans will be the attraction at the initial game, next Sunday.

The first discharges of the colored troops at Fort Reno were made yesterday, when twenty-five soldiers were paid off and given transportation to their homes. Twenty-five or thirty men will be discharged each day as the rolls are completed, until all are discharged.

STRONG CALL, GREAT CAUSE.

Hundred Thousand Dollars Is Asked by Saturday.

Now's Time for Publicity Work to Count.

Development Society Ready to Push It Along.

One hundred thousand dollars is a large sum to raise for a public enterprise in one day, with only four days' notice, yet this is the task undertaken by the newly-organized Development Society of California.

Five hundred thousand dollars for the year 1907 will be necessary for the purposes of the organization. Of this amount, Los Angeles must contribute $200,000. In order to get the benefit this winter, half of this sum must be raised at once.

It is proposed to insert page advertisements in the leading newspapers and magazines of the East, South and Middle West, beginning in December.

Will Los Angeles do her share?

Is there sufficient Los Angeles spirit to make the undertaking of Manager W. Scott Smith an easy one?

Is there sufficient State patriotism in the breasts of men who are growing wealthier here every day, to make them loosen the draw strings of their money bags and return to the State some of the money they have taken from it?

There is every reason to believe there is.

Already assurances of financial support are pouring into the offices of the society, but this is not enough. Assurances are easy, but subscriptions—definite pledges which mean dollars—big, liberal subscriptions are what make the wheels go round. The Development Society of California believes it is a duty, and should be a privilege, for every business man, no matter how great or how humble, to put his name down for the largest sum his finances will stand; there are men here who can afford to dig up thousands, others hundreds, still others tens—every dollar helps. Assurance is given that not a cent can or will be wasted.

The papers and magazines of the country are to fairly overflow with California enthusiasm, and our streets to be alive with new faces, our banks and business houses to reap a big harvest of dollars; hotels, real estate men and merchants, manufacturers, all to receive dollars where they are contributing cents.

The vast stretches of uncultivated land are expected to swarm with home seekers, and every new citizen brought to these less favored localities means new dollars now, and for all time for you.

WHAT THE SOCIETY IS.

The Development Society of California had its birth because California needs it. The great State boasts a population of nearly nine to the square mile—cities included—and needs five, yes, ten times this number, and the unparalleled fertility of her soil warrants guaranteeing them a livelihood such as in other section of the world can offer.

[illegible] the most influential citizens of Southern California, including [illegible] H. E. Huntington, U. S. Senator from San Diego, Judge Frank [illegible] of Fresno, D. A. Hamburger, Frank Miller, Riverside, D. M. Linnard of Pasadena, Luther Burbank, Dr. Robert J. Burdette, J. Ms Hale, Dr. Robert Moore and Milo M. Potter, formerly of this society, and incorporated under the laws of the State, as a patriotic organization.

No officer can now or ever receive one cent of salary. Not one cent of the money can be diverted into schemes or untried projects. The selection of W. J. Washburn, president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce as treasurer of the organization, and of Joseph McMillan as president, E. S. Grant, first vice-president; W. Scott Smith, second vice-president and manager; O. V. Eaton, secretary; and three men, with D. A. Hamburger, Judge Bledsoe and Frank Miller, as directors, is a guarantee of the stability and reliability of the society.

NOW IS THE TIME.

Manager Smith, yesterday: "Half a million dollars will not be too much. We need funds now, immediately, in order to take advantage of the winter season and favorable rates on the railways. Our advertising, scientifically conducted, will bring 50 per cent more people to Southern California during 1907 than in any previous year.

"It will mean the investment of millions of dollars of new capital in the State; the inauguration of hundreds of new and prosperity-making business, and an influx of homeseekers that will make this the most prosperous region in the United States.

"We will work hand in glove with the boards of trade and other commercial organizations of the State, and everything in our power to place and keep California before the people.

"A further guarantee of the character of the enterprise is the personnel of the advisory board of fifty of the State's most eminent citizens. Following are excerpts from letters received yesterday morning's mail:

"Allow me to assure you that this association has my best wishes and will have my heartiest support. I realize the importance of such an organization in this part of the State and appreciate the excellence of the men chosen as officers and directors."

D. M. LINNARD.

"Of the importance and timeliness of such an organization, and to my mind it needs no further indorsement than the names of the gentlemen who comprise your directory and board."

ROBERT J. BURDETTE.

"I have always been a pleasure for me to see any movement looking toward the development of California. I believe that an advertising campaign in eastern newspapers and magazines, setting forth the advantages of California, will result in great benefits to the State. Were I in a position to be the Advertising Committee, I may add that the plan of organization and its purposes meet with my unqualified approval."

J. M. HALE.

"I am always in favor of anything which will develop the advantages of our wonderful State. If people only knew the real truth, if would be depopulated on short notice. In my thirty years' experience with the women and children come to this State for development and that life need only half as strenuous here as elsewhere to produce the same results as eastern states."

LUTHER BURBANK.

"I heartily indorse the plan of the Development Society of California. Our State from its beginning had a magnetic influence and the spirit of California has been worthy of its lovely nature. It has been the foremost commonwealth of the West and there must be no backsliding now. The golden age of our State is not in the past, but in the future, and the prophet of the present can foresee its glory."

ROBERT M'INTYRE.

RAILROAD DOMINATION.

California has long depended largely upon the great transcontinental lines always for her publicity. There is nothing among the citizens of the State that the time is come for independent effort. The Development Society of California therefore is entirely free from railroad domination. The railroad lines are liberal supporters of

I may add that the plan of campaign outlined by its purposes meet with my hearty approval."

J. M. HALE.

"I am in favor of anything which will bring to the attention of the people the advantages of our wonderful State. If people only knew the real facts, Southern California would be overpopulated on short notice. I have observed that on an average every three years experience with the climate of the East causes the children come to California, and that life here is at least half as strenuous here as there, and produces the same results in the children."

LUTHER BURBANK.

"I am heartily in favor of the plan of the Development Society of California. Our State, in the beginning had a magnetic attraction, and the spirit of California, and the worthy of its lovely outer environment, has been the foremost commonwealth of the West, and there must be no backward step. The golden age of our State is not in the past, but in the future, and the greatest of its present can foresee its possibilities."

ROBERT M'INTYRE.

RAILROAD DOMINATION.

"California has long depended largely upon the great transcontinental lines for her publicity. There is no danger from the railroads among the citizens of the State, for this is come for interest. The Development Society of California therefore is entirely free from railroad domination. The railroads are liberal supporters of the movement and their subscriptions will aid materially in the work; the great body of hotels of Southern California will be beneficiaries from the work, and will be asked to open their check books. The realty interests of Southern California owe their prosperity to the tide of eastern travel and will not be backward in coming forward with their money.

Subscriptions should be sent so they will reach the offices of the society before 12 o'clock noon next Saturday, the 24th.

HORSH SHOW IS BEST IN YEARS.

VANDERBILT'S MARE IS RULED OUT FOR BLINDNESS.

Society in Radiant Garb Makes Event Brilliant—All Old Champions Compete and New Aspirants for Ribbons Enter Various Classes of Equine Aristocrats.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With the blue ribbon seemingly won, after a long test of action and endurance, Alfred G. Vanderbilt's bay mare, The Youngster, driven by her owner, was disqualified at the opening session of the Horse Show today, when two members of the new Board of Veterinary Inspectors declared her to be blind in one eye.

Promptly at 9 o'clock this morning the bugle announced the formal opening of the twenty-second annual event of the National Horse Show Association at Madison Square Garden. The show of horses this year, it is said, will in some respects be the greatest equine exhibit every given in New York. Nearly all of the former show ring champions will be shown, and their number will be augmented by the arrivals which will distinguish themselves in more than one exhibition.

In former years the new arrivals have been for competition in regular classes only, but this week the public will have a chance to see many new ones in the championship classes, in all of which the keenest competition is assured.

Horsemen who have been interested in the national horse show for many years are of the opinion that larger numbers and better quality would be shown this week than in any in the last dozen years. As is usual, there is the keenest interest in the dress parade, which is considered one of the chief features of the show.

Francis Murphy, the orator at the preliminary luncheon inspection at Madison Square Garden voiced this interest when he said in describing the Horse Show that "it is a sprinkling of aristocrats and a quantity of good clothing and some horses."

Society has come to town and prepared for the show, and visitors will see many stunning gowns before the week is over.

The morning programme today is as follows:

9 a.m.—Show opens with exercising of horses.

10:30 a.m.—Preliminary trial of twenty-nine saddle horses, Class 73.

1:45 p.m.—Judging Class 49, hunters and jumpers, Class 109.

GEMS TAKEN BY HOTEL THIEF.

DIAMOND ROBBERY REPORTED TO THE POLICE.

Guests of Downtown Hostelry, Upon Returning from the Theater, Discover the Precious Stones Have Been Taken from Their Rooms—Investigation Reveals No Clews.

Through the complaint of N. G. Stewart to the officers at the Central Police Station early this morning, a diamond robbery at Hotel Van Nuys was disclosed.

Mr. Stewart did not discover the loss of the valuable gems until late last night. When Mr. and Mrs. Stewart returned from the theater to the hotel they spent some time in the room before they became aware of the theft.

Mrs. Stewart told her husband of the startling discovery that a number of her diamonds were missing. A thorough search revealed that the gems were nowhere to be found.

It was after the search that Mrs. Stewart remembered that she had left some of her jewels in another room earlier in the day said Mr. Stewart to the police.

It was also claimed by Mr. Stewart that the investigation of the hotel authorities had thrown no light on the loss. The value of the missing property is not yet known, but among the jewels was an elegant gold locket of rare workmanship, which was studded with diamonds. The clerk of the hotel stated that Mr. and Mrs. Stewart were not registered there.

Men, Women and Children Dash for Chillicothe Savings Concern Because of Idle Talk.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHILLICOTHE (O.) Nov. 19.—A careless remark made by some citizen unknown to the police started a run on the Savings Bank of this city today.

It began at noon, and continued all afternoon until late this evening.

Women, children and men quit their employment and ran to the bank, breathless.

Bank officials state there is absolutely no cause for the run, as the Savings Bank Company is one of the strongest banks in the State. All demands today were met.

The Press announces in Berlin that the Emperor has tendered the portfolio of Minister of Agriculture to Von Arnim Criewen, who is at present president of the German Agricultural Society.

RYAN OFF DIRECTORATES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Surprise was occasioned in financial circles, late today, by an authorized announcement from Thomas F. Ryan that he had resigned from the directorate of a large number of railroad and other corporations.

Ryan declined to add any explanation.

CARMEN IN LOVE WITH AMERICAN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PARIS, Nov. 19.—The vague rumors which have been circulated for several days to the effect that Mme. Calve was betrothed to a rich American and would never again appear on the operatic stage are apparently confirmed.

Last night, having quietly left her apartments, the singer left Paris for a long period, after confiding the news to a few intimate friends, but demanding a pledge of secrecy regarding the name of her future husband.

Mme. Calve's servants said she went away with her affianced, but they were unable to give either their destination or his name. It is believed the couple are now on board a yacht.

MYSTERY AND ROMANCE.

The whole affair is shrouded in mystery and romance. The future husband of Mme. Calve is described as a rich American, an artist, passionately fond of music, who, for a long time, has never missed a performance of Mme. Calve, but who, until recently, had not sought an introduction.

Just at the time when the American decided to ask for Mme. Calve's hand in marriage, an accident in an electric apparatus rendered him blind, the last vision before he lost his sight being the face of the singer.

Upon the return of the couple to France next spring, it is said, Mme. Calve and her husband will install themselves in a chateau where a theater similar to Adelina Patti's theater at Craig-Y-Nos will be built for Mme. Calve and her friends.

WONDERING AT FUTURE.

The news of Mme. Calve's betrothal has created a sensation in musical circles, although there is still considerable speculation on the question whether she has decided to end her operatic career. The Gil Blas calls attention to the fact that she has a contract to create the leading role in "Mary Magdalena" at the Opera Comique in March.

In response to a telegram addressed to Mme. Calvé at her chateau in the Department of Aveyran, Hersey wires that the prima donna will sail tomorrow on a prolonged cruise, and that she declines to make any communication to the press.

LONDON HEARS DIFFERENT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Friends of Mme. Calvé declare that the singer has not definitely accepted the blind millionaire's offer. She demanded six months for consideration, and that period expires next March.

With the millionaire on his yacht are his sister, his nieces and his private chaplain. By the end of their voyage, Calvé hopes to make up her mind whether to accept or reject her suitor.

It is said here that the mysterious millionaire is an Englishman who went penniless to America and acquired a fortune, estimated at $25,000,000, in mining enterprises.

Common sense is just as necessary (even more so) in medicine as in business or the affairs of every day life. People are getting to know more than they used to. Not so long ago it was the fashion to make all sorts of claims for a medicine, and wind up by asking the reader to go to a drug store and buy a bottle. People won't stand for that kind of thing now. They want proof—tangible proof. They want to try the remedy first and if they find it to be what is claimed they will be glad enough to go and buy it.

A CONVINCING ARGUMENT.

That is why we say to every person suffering from piles or any form of rectal disease, send us your name and we will gladly send you a free trial package. For we know what the result will be. After using the trial you will hurry to your nearest druggist and get a 50c box of Pyramid Pile Cure, now admitted by thousands to be one of the most wonderful reliefs and cures for Piles ever known.

"Please excuse my delay in not writing to you sooner in regard to what your Pyramid Pile Cure has done for me. I consider it one of the finest medicines in the world for piles. I suffered untold misery for four months when my wife begged me to send for a 50c box. When it was half gone I knew I was better, and it didn't take any begging to get me to send for a second box. I think I am about well now, but if I feel any symptoms of a return I will order at once. I order it from the Pyramid Drug Co., to be sure of the cure. Tell all about this fine remedy for piles.

"And if there is anything in this letter you want to use, do so. I received your letter a few days ago. Yours for a remedy like Pyramid Pile Cure. J. J. McELWEE, Honey Grove, Tex., R.R. 9, Box 29.

"P.S.—I only used two boxes and don't think I need any more. Piles of seven months' standing."

To get a free trial package send today to the Pyramid Drug Co., 64 Pyramid Building, Marshall, Michigan. It will come by return mail and will both delight and astonish you.

THE LAXATIVE OF KNOWN QUALITY

There are two classes of remedies: those of known quality and which are permanently beneficial in effect, acting gently, in harmony with nature, when nature needs assistance; and another class, composed of preparations of unknown, uncertain and inferior character, acting temporarily, but injuriously, as a result of forcing the natural functions unnecessarily. One of the most exceptional of the remedies of known quality and excellence is the ever pleasant Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., which represents the active principles of plants, known to act most beneficially, in a pleasant syrup, in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to contribute their rich, yet delicate, fruity flavor. It is the remedy of all remedies to sweeten and refresh and cleanse the system gently and naturally, and to assist one in overcoming constipation and the many ills resulting therefrom. Its active principles and quality are known to physicians generally, and the remedy has therefore met with their approval, as well as with the favor of many millions of well informed persons who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual experience that it is a most excellent laxative remedy. We do not claim that it will cure all manner of ills, but recommend it for what it really represents, a laxative remedy of known quality and excellence, containing nothing of an objectionable or injurious character.

There are two classes of purchasers: those who are informed as to the quality of what they buy and the reasons for the excellence of articles of exceptional merit, and who do not lack courage to go elsewhere when a dealer offers an imitation of any well known article; but, unfortunately, there are some people who do not know, and who allow themselves to be imposed upon. They cannot expect its beneficial effects if they do not get the genuine remedy.

To the credit of the druggists of the United States be it said that nearly all of them value their reputation for professional integrity and the good will of their customers too highly to offer imitations of the manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., and in order to buy the genuine article and to get its beneficial effects, one has only to note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package. Price, 50c per bottle. One size only.

Classified Liners

Times "Liner" Advertisers—Important. Note change in rate for Sunday classified advertisements. Commencing Sunday, October 1, 1905, the rate for Sunday "Liners" was raised to 1¼ cents per word for each insertion; minimum charge, 25 cents, as at present. This slight advance is amply justified by the present Sunday circulation of The Times, which averages over 70,000 copies. (When the 1-cent-per-word rate was established in 1893, The Times Sunday Circulation was only 14,000 copies.) The "Liner" rate for the daily—1 cent per word—will stand as at present.

Telephone your want advertisements. Ring up "The Times" any time of day or night, and secure prompt and careful attention. Rates one cent a word each insertion in the Daily; 1¼ cents per word in the Sunday edition; minimum charge, 25c.

"Liner" (classified) advertisements for Sunday insertion received over the counter or by telephone after 11 o'clock Saturday nights will be inserted under heading "Too Late to Classify."

The Times cannot guarantee accuracy or assume responsibility for errors of any kind occurring in telephoned advertisements.

Sunday real estate advertisements, to be classified properly, must be in The Times office before 10 o'clock Saturday nights. Rate 1¼ cents per word.

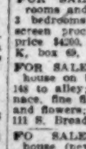
STATELY



FIGUEROA is one of those "solid" streets It's as staple as flour or sugar or coal. It doesn't have any fluctuations. Between Santa Monica and Vernon it has been steadily and strongly upward ever since it was platted. Figueroa is absolutely the only real boulevard in Los Angeles. It will be the eastern boundary of the new city public park which is to grow out of Agricultural Park within a year.

There are two pre-eminently fine residence streets in Los Angeles, and Figueroa blvd. is one of them. And AS TO PRESENT PRICE it has the other desperately down and out.

Some of the more prominent corners will surely be great for business. I have both sorts, including every real bargain on the street between Jefferson and Vernon.

I offer two pieces opposite the new park referred to for $10 a foot.

A splendid N.W. corner between Vernon and Dearborn, 165x150, for $4500.

A superb corner north of Thorp for $40 a foot.

A fascinating corner on the west side of the street north of 43rd for $45 a foot.

Two of the corners at Vernon and Figueroa, at figures that will surprise you. These are ripe for stores.

I exclusively control all of these pieces, besides a number of others. You will have to see me on these, but you'll be glad you did.

FOR SALE—
Those who are making money—do not pay some one else three-fourths or the profits. The small investor buys a lot at the opening prices—selects a choice location, with a specially fine view, something that strikes him. He is sure that in six months or so this same lot will strike some one else. The improvements all in, building of artistic homes commenced, your lot has had a natural increase in value. About January 1 will see the Rapid Transit four-track electric-car line completed, making three car lines passing Corinth Heights. A 1-4-acre lot now for $300 or $400 will mean a nice profit to you. Let us show you the plans for Corinth Heights. Call or write for a free Descriptive Booklet. These terms are exceptional for this class of property. $10 down, $10 a month; no shacks or unsightly constructions permitted. This is something that will interest you if you want to make your savings count for something.

R. S. BASSETT.

Reader, not often do we switch off from our regular real estate business, but this time we plead guilty, but we have a good cause. We happen to know of a fine opening for any one wanting a first-class, paying rooming-house proposition. There are 28 rooms, large halls, bathrooms, etc., on the second floor of fine big two-story artificial stone building, over bank and stores, on good corner, only 25 minutes' ride from center of Los Angeles. Furniture most all new. Bringing in fine income. If you want a really good opening in this line, be sure and see us before investing. Only $2250. As we said before, this is out of our line, but THIS IS A GOOD ONE.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Station "Angels."

The pretty pictures printed in The Sunday Times of local railroad station deaconesses, who do much to aid and comfort distressed travelers, were made by Marceau.

Crossed Wires Cause Fire.

Crossed electric wires caused fire in J. Conrad's house at No. 1148 West First street last night. J. Creagan noticed the smoke and notified the department. The loss was nominal.

Underwriters Banquet.

The Life Underwriters of Los Angeles will hold a business meeting and banquet at Levy's this evening at 6:30. Addresses will be delivered by Rev. Baker P. Lee and Danforth M. Baker.

"Bob" Lennie Dead.

News has been received from Chicago of the death there of R. C. ("Bob") Lennie, formerly well known among bicycle men in this city. Lennie took an active part here in the promotion of road racing.

Fire's Origin Unknown.

A fire of unknown origin caused a small loss at the home of O. D. Bothan, No. 618 Sunset boulevard, last night. Before the department arrived, the flames were under control. The house is owned by J. Dwyre.

His Leg Broken.

In leaving a house at No. 519 Maple avenue last night, J. F. Collins of No. 322 East Twelfth street stepped off a porch to the ground, some distance below, and his left leg was broken below the knee. Collins was sent to the Receiving Hospital for treatment.

Has Husband Arrested.

E. H. Carpenter of No. 525 Gladys avenue was arrested on a warrant sworn to by Mrs. May Carpenter, his wife, charging him with failure to provide for her. According to the officer, the woman is not living with Carpenter but at No. 820½ West Third street.

"Frat" Incorporates.

Sigma Gamma Phi Fraternity has incorporated without capital stock, and with the following five directors: S. H. Hoyt, F. M. Wise, L. L. Wimberly, Jay E. Powers and C. P. Holland. The purposes of the fraternity are described as social, intellectual and scientific.

Hungarian Club.

Hungarians of Los Angeles will organize a Hungarian club tonight, at a meeting called to take place at No. 464 East Third street. The purpose of the organization is social and national advancement. All Hungarians in the city are invited to attend and become members.

Bruised by Car.

While letting down a fender to a West Second street car at Second and Spring streets last night, J. Robinson, a motorman, was crushed by another car backing up to the car in front of which Robinson was standing. Robinson was sent to the Receiving Hospital where it was found that he had sustained bruises about the limbs and body. He was assisted to his room at the Hotel Jones.

Young's Injuries Not Serious.

A telegram said to have been received by W. P. Ford, the partner of Col. C. S. Young of this city, who was burned in the Goldfield hotel fire, announces for Young that he "will remain in bed a few days," and that his "injuries are not serious." This will prove good news to many friends of Col. Young, who feared that he had been fatally burned, as was at first reported.

Complain of Deputy.

A numerously-signed petition of residents of the Alamitos Bay community has been prepared complaining of O. S. De Voe, a deputy constable and deputy game warden employed on the San Gabriel River near Long Beach. The petition alleges unwarranted threats to shoot citizens and the commission of other acts unbecoming an officer. The petition is to be presented to his chief, and asks his removal.

Fire and Wind.

While Bud Ward was hauling a wagonload of baled hay cityward from the Ramish & Marsh ranch at Colegrove he glanced back and discovered the hay afire. He barely had time to get down off the wagon and unhitch his horses before the whole load was in flames. The hay and wagon were consumed, only the iron work remaining of a $130 outfit. This happened on Friday, and on Sunday Ramish & Marsh had a further misfortune through the high wind wrecking their windmill and pumping plant at the ranch.

BREVITIES.

We invite you to examine our eyeglasses and spectacles at $1.50. Regular price $3 to $5. Best A1 crystal reading lenses in a ten-year gold-filled frame for only $1.50. Satisfaction guaranteed. The Difference
It is better to be hayseedy in the country than seedy in the town.
Living in the city carries with it its obligations—one of these obligations is to be well dressed. 19 out of every 100 people who meet you judge you by the clothes you wear.
You cannot re-make the world, so you better let Brauer-Krohn make you clothes. If they make your clothes you look most prosperous—be most tastefully dressed—be most impressively attired, for the price you paid.
$25 will do wonders here—will put you into a genuine English Suiting that so-called fashionable tailors will charge you $40 for.

KERN TO BE CHIEF BY PROMPT ACTION.

COUNCILMAN KERN,
who is slated to be made Chief of Police tonight.

MAYOR M'ALEER'S whisky Police Commission is prepared to play its last trump in the municipal game by appointing Edward Kern Chief of Police.

Kern is just completing his fourth year in the City Council. He represents the Seventh Ward, the bailiwick that contains more saloons than any other. Kern is a Democrat and a union laborite.

Kern was slated for the place of Chief of Police under the Harper administration. This was one of the trades by which Harper expected to barter himself into office. The unexpected haste that the McAleer administration is displaying to name Kern Chief before the end of the year is the result of the demoralization of the Democratic forces by the strong showing made by Dr. Lindley.

The Police Board has maintained great secrecy about the selection of a Chief of Police but it has been understood for three months that Kern should be named at once if it became evident that the Republicans would elect the next Mayor.

Some of the commissioners have denied that a Chief is to be named tonight; but the edict went forth at noon yesterday that the appointment must be made, and made quickly.

TO RESIGN AS COUNCILMAN.

One condition is that Kern shall resign as Councilman just as soon as the appointment is made, and assume his duties as Chief.

If the letter of the charter were to be followed it would be necessary to call an election to fill out the unexpired term of the Seventh Ward Councilman. The charter states that when a vacancy occurs in the office of Councilman an election must be called "immediately." But this has been translated by other administrations to mean "in a few months," and the liquor forces are willing to surrender a seat in the Council, temporarily, in return for Chief of Police.

Friends of "Billy" White, retiring sheriff, have been making a quiet but strenuous effort to have him named as the new Chief; but they were unable to turn the commissioners from Kern.

Acting Captain Broadhead has received a certificate of eligibility from the Police Board of Civil Service Board and he will probably receive an appointment tonight as regular captain. Broadhead won his honors fairly in an especially severe civil service examination. There were six contestants.

Police Sergts. Dixon and Craig also passed the written examination, but Craig failed on the physical tests.

ONCE INDIAN FIGHTER.

Prior to his election to the Council Kern was manager of the delivery department of the Los Angeles Ice and Cold Storage Company. He was promoted to this position from a place as driver. At one time he was a boss of the Teamsters' Union, and the walking delegates once proposed him as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Mayor—that was the time that Red Fennessy failed so indicrously in his attempt to "deliver the goods."

For several years Kern drove a stage in Arizona. Then he became a horse trader, and for a time was in the employ of the government. He went through two Indian campaigns with the regulars under General Lawton.

If a physical qualification were the only one required, Kern would make an ideal Chief of Police. He is a great broad-shouldered giant, with a grip like a steel vise.

POLICE WANT LANK.

Disappears from Detroit Where He Is Needed as Witness in Case of His Own Making.

The police are looking for Ethanan McCagy Lank, who was taken from this city to Detroit, Mich., and released on $500 bail to appear as a witness against William Considine, whom Lank accuses of robbing him of $62. It is thought that Lank is now in Los Angeles.

The Considine case is set for trial in Michigan soon, but Detective Quinn, who arrested Considine, is, like Lank, missing. He is reported to have deserted his wife and to have run away with a society woman.

WHAT WORD'S "PEACHY'S"?

Pretty Prima Donna Can't Coax It Out.

Italian Stars Struggling With English.

Director Gets Two Words in "All Right."

Scenes of frightful struggle with the battered old English tongue take place every day in the new Temple Auditorium.

All the Italian stars have forgotten about music in a mad effort to acquire Americanisms. Every time one of these excitable children of genius learns a new English word or any American slang, he rushes down to the Auditorium to try it on the other Italian singers, who are always sure to be hanging around, trying their new words—like little boys with sore thumbs.

The triumph of a great diva, called before the curtain for the twentieth time in one evening, is nothing as compared with a Lambardi tenor with a new slang word.

The lofty pity of a tenor who can say "Thank you" and "Please" and "Howdy do" for a soprano who can only say "Goo-by" is something awful to see.

What every one is panting to know is how Ester Adaberto, the peachy prima donna, talks.

Well, she hasn't exactly talked yet, but she is going to. The lovely Adaberto has an English word somewhere in her system, but she can't get it out. No one knows what it is she wishes to say. It will be a momentous occasion when she finally says it.

Adaberto is the swell of the company. She stays at a fashionable Westlake Park hotel and "takes on."

She does not go to the Auditorium as often as the others; she is somewhat haughty. The others loaf around the big, dark Auditorium, which is bleak as all others when "dark." Whenever an American comes in they all manage to cluster around him and listen with reverential awe as the envied words drip easily from his lips.

The struggle of the Italian opera stars with the English tongue.

When Adaberto comes it is the American visitor who manages to cluster.

She bows and smiles and is very gracious. But suddenly she clutches at her heart with both hands and a wild light comes into her face—a look of tragic determination. Adaberto is about to speak her word. The other Italians fling out their hands in fierce excitement and sympathy, as though they would help her to drag it out.

But, in the end, she always drops her slender white hands with a gesture of despair, and a mournful look comes into her wonderful Juno eyes.

The peachy prima donna's one English word is delayed in transmission. One of these days it will pop out like a champagne cork. Or else she will have to submit to an operation.

That word has a terrible responsibility before it. Suppose, after all that botheration, it should be some feeble and inconsequential thing like "Fudge" or "Pickles."

STAR "TENKS YOU."

One of the most fascinating members of the company is the star tenor, Attillio Salvaneschi. Ordinarily, he is very dapper and ever so polite to the limit of human endurance. For the past day or two he has been almost disheveled trying to get away with "Thank you."

He waits around nervously until it seems to him that he sees a chance to get in his word. "Tenk you," he said, proudly. But just when he gets it out, an awful misgiving seizes him.

"Did I say right?" he asks, in Italian, of the interpreter. The interpreter assures him it was a high-class performance, and the courteous, golden-voiced little tenor is comforted.

When you give him a card, he says: "Tenk you." When he gives you a card, he says: "Tenk you," very softly. And after it is all over, he goes

DR. WALTER LINDLEY, FRIEND OF BOYS.

BY JOHN S. M'GROARTY.

THERE are now in the field six candidates for the office of Mayor of Los Angeles. After looking them over "with malice toward none and charity for all," I have decided to cast my vote for Dr. Walter Lindley. I shall do this not on "general principles," but for a particular reason.

That particular reason is that Dr. Lindley is a boy's man. Now, I like a man's man very well, and I like a woman's man better. But I like a boy's man best of all.

To me it is one of the most unaccountable things that there are so few men in this world who understand boys, or who take an interest in them, or who care a whoop how they grow up, or whether they grow up at all. It is most unaccountable because there is no man who has not been a boy himself at one time or another, and also because a boy is the most precious, the most fateful and the most important object in existence, not even excepting a girl.

Out of every ten thousand men in this or any other town between the two oceans, today, you will find only one who takes a special interest in boys. Men say they are too busy. The pace is fast and the race is swift. It often comes to pass in the mad times in which we live that a boy's own father isn't able to form much more than a putative acquaintance with him.

Then what of the boys who are fatherless, yea, and motherless? What of the pathetic, outraged hearts of them? What of their curious and wondering souls? What manner of men are we to have in the future? What answer will they be able to make if their God or their country shall call to them? Will the men of the future, who are the boys of today, toil in the sweat of their brows over honest labor? Will they stoop under midnight lamps searching the mysteries of science? Or will they be idlers, crooks and gamblers, preying upon the world and upon one another?

These are the riddles that the Sphinx of Fate propounds to mankind at the present hour. Yet there are only a few men who try to answer these questions. There are only a few who care. Walter Lindley is one of them.

In every man's life ther is a ruling passion. In Dr. Lindley's case it is a love for boys. It was born in his heart fifty-four years ago. It sang to him in the furrows when he plowed the faraway fields of the Hoosier farm on which he was born. It helped to make easier the struggles of his college days when he lived only on what a dollar and a half a week would buy. It "spared the rod" when he sat at his desk as a schoolmaster, and it blurred his eyes with tears in the sick rooms and at the operating tables of his hard life as a physician. And the passing years, with all their trials, their sore defeats and their victories over fate, have but added fuel to the flame of that great love that still burns in this man's gentle heart.

Dr. Lindley is full of wonderful theories concerning boys. He is a busy man, with far too much to do, but he is never too busy to do something for a boy. If you will especially go to him with a tale of an incorrigible, a "tough kid" who is the terror of the police and who is so bad that "hanging is too good for him," then clinics must wait and everything must wait until Dr. Lindley has made that particular boy's acquaintance. You see, he knows more about these things than we do. He knows that hunger and cold, neglect and shameless example have made bad boys, but that God never made one.

He knows that the worst boy that ever lived can be made into a good man if some one will take the trouble to make an effort in the boy's behalf. So he makes the effort himself, not waiting for any one else to make it. Nor has his faith gone unrewarded. There are today a thousand men, and more, among the best of California's citizens who would now be in jails and penitentiaries, there are others who would have long ago swung from the gallows of Folsom and San Quentin, and there are others still who would, in many another way, have plunged headlong to hell had it not been that Walter Lindley folded them into his great, warm heart in time to save them.

It is a fine thing to stand at the threshold of the world, strong-limbed and young, with life and hope before us. Rare is the man, indeed, who does not sigh for his lost youth. But when a man has lived to do all that Dr. Lindley has done, it seems to me that it were a pity if fate should rob him of the years that sit so strangely light upon his head, to put him back at the place of unfulfillment, no matter how fair that place might be.

Go with him into some one of happy households a-many, where the children cluster about his knee, nestling their sunny heads within his arms, and let there the tale be told. The young father of that little flock, who now holds his niche in the world as an honest man, is one of the boys that Dr. Lindley lifted from the reeking slums of a godless town, to set his feet on the right path. He still watches over that boy, now grown to manhood; he is the physician of his house, the friend of his heart, sharing the joys and the sorrows of them all, for no reason but that he thinks such things worth while.

And is it not worth while? It costs a great deal to grow a city, but it costs a great deal more to grow a man. The growing of men has been the life work of Walter Lindley, and, in the working out of his own processes, he has himself attained the full stature.

It is not to be wondered at that large honors have come to Dr. Lindley as he journeyed through life. It is not to be wondered at that in the seats of the mighty he has been singled out for distinctions; that, although a Republican, he has been selected to execute important public trusts by a Democratic Governor of California and a Democratic President of the United States; that, although a member of a Protestant religious denomination, the degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred on him by a Roman Catholic college, and that, among the names which crowd his list of friends, the Gentile and the Jew stand side by side.

Well, that kind of a man is good enough for me. God willing, I shall cast my vote for him on election day, and feel that by so doing I am conferring an honor on myself and accepting a privilege.

While Dr. Lindley was on a campaign tour among the workshops of the city one day last week, a strong-limbed fellow, dust-begrimed from toil, rushed up to him, threw his arms about him and said:

"God bless you, Doctor! You saved me! I owe everything to you!"

It was one of the former reform school boys, now grown to man's estate, in whom the doctor had taken a kindly interest at Whittier.

Tears dropped from the workman's eyes and the doctor was much affected.

It was while he was superintendent of the Whittier school that Dr. Lindley began the work in behalf of boys that has continued throughout his busy career.

It is to Dr. Lindley's helping hand that hundreds of young fellows owe their salvation. He spent more than his salary as superintendent in aiding his young wards, who needed a lift on graduating from the institution.

"CARMEN" DISAPPOINTMENT.

Campofiore Overseats and Oversings Great Role, Losing Best Effects. Lombardi and Antola Score Again.

"Carmen," at the opera last night, was a disappointment.

Of course, there is only one part to the play; it is the title role that makes the piece. This done badly, little can redeem the music drama from ignominy.

And so it must be stated—though regretfully—that Campofiore's Carmen falls far short of the mark of high art. She ruins it by overacting and oversinging. Much as she tore passion to tatters as Amneris, she made the rent still wider last night, and played Carmen, not with subtle and temperamental suggestiveness, but with quite inelegant ferocity. This departure from possibility is made sadder by the very talents that are inherent in Campofiore herself, should she choose to cultivate, broaden and subdue them. She has a splendid voice, as was witnessed last night at intervals by her fine low tones and her brilliant high C at the close of the second act; and she is also a handsome woman. Her second act gown last evening was exquisitely chosen and sat well upon her fine figure. The audience, one of the largest that has assembled in the Auditorium, was visibly disappointed in her work, and expressed only mild approval. And the bitterest disappointment of all will be when the realization of failure comes to Campofiore herself, for it is evident in every scene that she was doing her utmost to please.

The play was redeemed in a measure by the great bass of the ever-reliable Lombardi and the brilliant baritone of Antola.

Lombardi sang Zuniga and scored some effects, both dramatically and otherwise.

Antola, of course, appeared as the Toreador, and his entrance song was tumultuously encored by his enthusiastic admirers.

Oretti, as Don José, was handsome as ever, and again distinguished himself by remarkable misuse of a noble voice.

As announced in The Times, Domenico Russo will have the role on Thursday evening.

The chorus, dropping back from the dramatic effects of "Rigoletto" and the successfully-achieved lyric arts of "Boheme," butchered half a dozen beautiful numbers.

We may hope for better things tonight, with Adaberto, D'Ottavi and Antola in "Il Trovatore." These are absolutely promised, and it is to be hoped that no substitutions in the cast will be made.

There were two last night, quite unexpectedly, as Tromben did not sing Micaela and the part fell to Bianca Nunez, who sang its music daintily and with agreeable fervor. In the other part, Lombardi substituted for Canetti.

It would not be a bad idea, by any means, for the local manager to bring Second Director Eduardo Lacegott more to the fore. Lacegott surprised his audience and woke the chorus out of its trance in the brilliant "Rigoletto," and since has done nothing. Let us hear him soon, by all means.

EXPLODING LAMP BURNS HER.

Mrs. J. A. Adaway of No. 320 Welcome street saved her home from destruction, about 7 o'clock last night, by carrying out an oil lamp which had exploded, but she was burned severely. At the time of the explosion Mrs. Adaway, who was in the room, called to another person nearby to send in a fire alarm. After carrying the lamp out of doors, she extinguished the blaze in the house before the department arrived. The loss was nominal.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The official count of the out-of-town ballots on the "shoestring strip" annexation gives the annexationists a lead of ten votes. The City Council will continue its canvass this morning, and this afternoon will consider the election ordinance for the East Hollywood annexation proposition.

City Auditor Schwaebe yesterday had an uncomfortable half hour with the City Council while explaining why his report had been delayed five months.

The Los Angeles Inter-Urban Railway Company has applied to the City Council for the vacation of certain portions of several Brooklyn-Heights streets, which cross the right of way of its new Covina line.

Mrs. Margaret E. Sauer, who is better known as Mrs. Margaret E. Graham, spiritualistic medium, and her husband, Charles F. Sauer, are being sued by John Glenn for the recovery of money which he says he loaned in return for the loan of a magnetic stone, claimed to possess miraculous healing power.

Mrs. Phillipa A. Hurst is contesting the will of her late husband, on the ground that he was not mentally competent at the time the document was drafted.

AT THE CITY HALL.

TEN AHEAD FOR ANNEXATION.

OFFICIAL COUNT GAINS FOUR FOR UNION.

Protest Made Against Counting Green Meadows Precinct Ballots, Because Inclosure Was Delivered to City Council With Seals Broken and Ballots Exposed.

Annexation of the "shoestring strip" to Los Angeles won by ten votes, instead of six, as originally supposed.

This was the condition of affairs at the adjournment of the City Council last evening at 6 o'clock. The Council yesterday began official canvass of the ballots cast in the recent annexation election. It will resume the count this morning at 10 o'clock.

The precincts outside the city were canvassed first. This resulted in a gain of four votes for annexation. The total vote outside the city was 416. Of these, 213 are for annexation and 203 are against.

Ten ballots which were declared irregular by the election boards were allowed by the canvassing board, and of these seven were for annexation and three were against the proposition.

Three precincts in the First Ward had been canvassed at the time of adjournment last night. There was no change in their figures. They gave 495 for annexation and 34 against.

The change in votes came from the Green Meadows precinct. But when the tellers received the envelope containing the ballots it was discovered that it was opened. The wax seal was broken, and Chief Deputy City Clerk Wilde declared this was the first time it had come to his notice.

Sam Haskins, as attorney for Geo. W. Throop, a property owner and voter of Green Meadows, demanded that the vote of the entire precinct be thrown out because of the condition of the envelope. His objections were noetd, and the count of the ballots proceeded. It is believed this was simply laying the foundation for an injunction suit, in case the further count shows that with this precinct left out the anti-annexationists could win.

It is reported that most of today will be required to finish the canvass of the vote.

Numerous persons interested in the result of the election, particularly representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, and the Municipal League, watched closely the recount, and were highly pleased over the additional votes gained in the out-of-town district, for the majority for the proposition is so great that its result cannot be changed by any ordinary readjustment of the count in the city precincts.

City Election Ordinance.

The ordinance calling the regular municipal election for December 4 was passed by the City Council yesterday afternoon.

Sixth-street Catch Basins.

The Board of Public Works yesterday forenoon opened bids for the construction of catch basins at the intersection of Sixth street, Occidental boulevard and Hoover street. The Alsop Engineering and Construction Company propose to do the work for $2000; and the bid of John Genilla is for $646.

Temple-street Sewer Bids.

Bids for the construction of vitrified pipe sewer in Temple and other streets were opened by the Board of Public Works yesterday. There were seven bidders, as follows: B. Derania, $9411; B. F. Ford, $9475; J. J. Mahoney, $9800; A. P. Pusich, $10,930; John Genilla, $11,777; M. L. Hostetter, $13,239; Alsop Engineering and Construction Company, $14,199.

Seek Street Vacations.

The Los Angeles Inter-Urban Railway Company presented to the City Council yesterday a petition for the vacation of sections of Gillett street, Safford street, Kingston avenue, Gardner avenue, Plymouth avenue, Cambridge street, Cornwell street and St. Louis street. These portions which the company desires to have vacated are where the new electric line over the route of the old San Gabriel Valley Rapid Transit road crosses the streets. This would give the company a private right of way, and would thus enable it to give a more rapid service on its new line. The petition was referred to the Board of Public Works.

Governing Electric Wires.

The City Council yesterday authorized the City Attorney to prepare an ordinance providing for the placing of electric wires in downtown buildings within terra cotta conduits of some type indorsed by the Board of American Fire Underwriters.

Pay for Holidays.

Instructions were given to the City Attorney by the City Council yesterday to prepare an ordinance providing for the payment of city employés on holidays and during the two hours allowed each employé to vote at elections.

AUDITOR'S REPORTS.

SCHWAEBE IS CATECHIZED.

For five months the City Council has had no monthly report from City Auditor Schwaebe. A report was made about the first of July, and no other monthly report was made until a week ago.

Yesterday, Schwaebe and his chief deputy, Bostwick, were summoned before the Council, at the instance of Councilman Howton, and were put through a long catechism. They were asked to declare themselves in favor of experting their books; but they modestly declared that they didn't see the necessity.

When the report of the City Auditor was reached by the clerk of the Council, Howton demanded that it be laid over for one week for an investigation by the City Attorney. He then made the declaration that there had been no reports filed by the Auditor for five months, and offered a resolution to the effect that:

"The City Council deplores the action of the City Auditor in being so grossly irregular in the performance of his duties, and hereby orders the expert examination of the books of the Auditor's office by the expert who recently made an examination of the books of the City Engineer's department, with a view of installing a new system of records."

The resolution did not secure a second, and Howton then demanded the presence of the City Attorney, Auditor Schwaebe and Deputy Bostwick.

In the meantime a petition was presented by C. Gooddenfelder, a Sixth Warder, sitting in the lobby, asking for an investigation of the City Auditor's books. This was done at the request of Howton, and gave him more opportunity for extended remarks on the confused condition of the city's various accounts to the mind of an ordinary citizen, and the need of a more explicit showing to taxpayers of the various funds' standing.

When Auditor Schwaebe and his chief deputy at last faced their questioner, they made statements concerning the reports as follows:

Schwaebe replied: "We file a report with the City Council every week, showing the exact condition of the various funds. This is a public report, which shows the apportionments and receipts, while the monthly report shows only the expenditures. The city charter states that we shall file the weekly report. The monthly report is a voluntary one. I vouch for the correctness of the weekly reports. If this body desires an investigation of my books I am willing that they should be investigated, although I see no necessity for such action."

Chief Deputy Bostwick answered Howton's question as to why there was a delay of five months in issuing the monthly report:

"No report was made since last July until a week ago today. It is my duty to make these reports. Our bookkeeper left us in September, and I have been physically unable to prepare the copy until November 1. This report is a voluntary one, instituted a year ago. It is of inestimable value. The weekly report, which is required under the charter, has been made every week for six years."

Questioning brought forth from Bostwick the further statement: "We do transfer accounts. We keep a cross tally set of books. Any fund is supposed to show on its face exactly what condition that fund is in. I have never refused information as to the standing of funds to persons who have applied. I have not refused information to newspaper men; but it has been my privilege to have as little to do with newspaper representatives as possible."

Some other interesting statements were brought out in this examination of Bostwick.

"Who signed the Mayor's name to the voting machine demand?" asked the Councilman.

"Don't know," said Bostwick.

"Didn't you have the rubber stamp of the Mayor's signature in your office?" persisted the inquirer.

"We did not. We have received other demands signed by the Mayor's rubber stamp. We have attributed these signatures to the Mayor. He has never made any representations to us that he had not signed such demands with his stamp."

The affair was finally dropped with the final disposition of it—a reference to the City Attorney, with request to report at the next Monday's Council meeting.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

AUTO BUMPED HIM? G. H. Nellson has begun suit against C. F. Miller and Leslie Phipps to recover $2500 as damages for injuries alleged to have been received through the fault of the defendants. On August 25 plaintiff claims to have been run into by an automobile belonging to Miller and Phipps as he was passing along Broadway, between Fourth and Fifth streets. He says he was in the hospital for two weeks.

JOHN LOWE'S ESTATE. Mrs. Edith A. Lowe has petitioned for letters of administration in the estate of John O. Lowe, who died on November 7. The estate is valued at $8000, and consists of the home place at No. 1916 Union avenue, valued at $4000, and some other real estate. The only heirs are the widow and the mother of deceased.

THREATENS HER LIFE? America M. Smith was granted a divorce from George M. Smith on the grounds of cruelty. The parties married at San Bernardino, in 1892, and there are two children. About 1901 the husband began to treat his wife cruelly. This continued until early in this year, when he is said to have threatened to brain her with a hammer.

BLEWETT IN CONTEMPT. William G. Blewett will appear before Judge Trask this morning to answer for contempt. Last Friday he was to have appeared in the suit of W. L. Willer vs. Marshpee Mining Company for examination as a judgment debtor, but he failed to put in an appearance. A bench warrant was issued and Blewett was arrested, and upon being brought into court yesterday, was released on $500 bail.

SCHECK CASE CONTINUED. Horace H. Appel, attorney for Mrs. Aurelia Scheck, presented in Judge Trask's court yesterday an argument against the validity of the indictment of the grand jury, in which his client is charged with perjury. It was answered by Assist. Dist.-Atty. McComas, for the prosecution. The court continued the matter until November 23.

WIDOW CONTESTS WILL.

ALLEGES UNSOUND MIND.

On October 22 last, Denison A. Hurst died at No. 1481 West Twenty-eighth street, leaving an estate valued at $23,000. By a codicil to his will, deceased deprived his wife of any share in the estate, save the furniture of the home place, and now she is contesting the will.

Mrs. Fallipa A. Hurst was the second wife of the testator, who was over 76 years old. All of the property was her husband's separate estate. He made his will in May, 1903, and provided therein that his wife receive $3000 from the estate in addition to the household furniture, the residue to be distributed between two sisters, and nephews and nieces living, with the exception of two in this city, in Ohio.

By a codicil, dated June 15, 1904, Mr. Hurst rescinded the bequest of the $3000 to his wife. Mrs. Hurst has contested on some technical grounds and avers that her husband was not of sound mind and was not competent to make a will at the time the instrument offered for probate was drafted. The same objection is also offered to the codicil. She claims that he suffered from delusions, the most prominent one being an intense antipathy to her.

Then, too, Mrs. Hurst claims that her husband was under duress and menace at the hands of George A. Pearsons, who is named in the will as executor. It is claimed that he obtained such control of the mind of Hurst that he was appointed by deceased to control and manage his business affairs, and that the will and codicil were prepared at the instance of Pearsons.

J. Doyle, a nephew, and P. Lloyd, a niece, are the names of the two beneficiaries living in this city.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

MAGIC STONE CAUSES SUIT.

OLD MAN SAYS HE WAS FOOLED BY ALLEGED MEDIUM.

Claims to Have Loaned Money on Promise That All His Pains Would Be Banished by Miracle-Working Pebble—Heal not Improved, He Wants Cash Returned.

Mrs. Margaret E. Sauer, the alleged spiritualist medium who made herself well known in Los Angeles under the name of Margaret E. Graham, is again in the public eye, through a suit filed against her by John Glenn, an old man who claims that Mrs. Graham secured some of his money under curious circumstances, and that he cannot recover.

Mrs. Graham was taken from this city to Texas early in the year to answer to a grand jury indictment, and when she returned here she continued business on Hill street, it is said, without resuming the name by which she is best known. Glenn claims that he loaned her $900 in the city of Denver, and that he has only been able to recover $25 of this amount.

In December, 1904, Glenn says that he was in Denver, where Mrs. Graham was claiming to be possessed of supernatural power. She pretended, he says, that she could relieve the weak and distressed in mind and body, and restore them to health and happiness. Glenn was in poor health, and says he paid the alleged medium $25 for her services, and that she pretended to treat him until March, 1905.

Glenn says that he didn't get any better, but that he did not lose faith in the ability of Mrs. Graham to conjure his ills away. In the month of March she told him that she had a magnetic stone of wonderful curative power, which would draw out all his pains, and that if he would loan her $900 for four months, she would loan him his miracle-working stone.

Glenn was assured, he says, that not only would he be cured, but that the magnetic stone would, by the occult force it contained, bring happiness to his wife and children as well. The money, it is claimed, was handed to Mrs. Graham, who is said to have given this receipt:

"Received nine hundred ($900) dollars. John Glenn as a loan on account of advance [illegible]

"MRS. M. E. GRAHAM."

Since that time many things have tended to change Glenn's ideas regarding the supernatural powers of Mrs. Graham, and he claims now that the stone on which he loaned $900 is merely a worthless pebble.

In May last he says that he tried to get Mrs. Graham to return his money, and she would only give him $25. He has now brought suit against Mrs. Graham, alias Mrs. Margaret E. Sauer, and her husband, Charles F. Sauer, whom he claims was a party to the transaction.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

MODEL HUSBAND WAS FERREL.

THOUGH DRUNK NOW AND THEN, HE "MADE GOOD."

Arrested for Vagrancy, He Brings Father, Wife and Employer to Testify in His Favor, and Escapes After Severe Reprimand—Question of How Many Ducks Arises.

The family troubles of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ferrel were aired in Justice Austin's Court yesterday afternoon. The recreant husband was arrested on complaint of the proprietor of the New York House, No. 329 West First street, and charged with habitual drunkenness and with failure to provide for his sick wife. The Ferrels were married last Christmas.

Though Ferrel had been in jail since Friday, he showed the effects of his recent debauch when he appeared in court yesterday. He was his own lawyer, and conducted his case with a certain air of bravado which brought him a severe lecture from the court. He seemed not to realize his disgrace, and appeared cocksure of acquittal.

Several witnesses told of disgraceful actions of the accused, declared he lay about the house drunk, and had raised "rough houses." He was painted as black as possible by the men and women who appeared against him.

Character witnesses were Ferrel's hope. He placed his gray-haired father and sick wife on the stand, as well as the boss of the job where he has worked as a lather. These gave him a fair record, although each admitted that he has been the worse for liquor many times of late.

Though the case was proceeding with every indication of acquittal for Ferrel, the husband was determined to introduce testimony which the court ruled was irrelevant. Time and again Ferrel tried to mix the name of his wife with that of the hotel proprietor, and was squelched by the court.

When the hotel man went on the stand, Ferrel, with the air of a man who knows the ways of a justice court, said:

"Tell the court how you waited on my wife while she was ill in bed, and while I was away from the house."

Again he said: "Tell the court how you mixed lemonade and made tea for my wife."

Here the court interposed, but Ferrel insisted that he [illegible] and had made love to Mrs. Ferrel. The questions were not allowed.

Mrs. Ferrel went on the stand. She is a sad-eyed little woman, who seems to have endured much hardship and suffering. She was anxious to help her husband out of the difficulty, and declared she has been well provided for at all times.

Again Ferrel tried to make the woman tell of the blandishments of the proprietor of the New York House. He failed.

The court was obliged to believe the witnesses who declared Ferrel is a good provider, and to find him not guilty. After a scathing rebuke he went free.

Many Wild Ducks

Because O. C. Morgan of the Morgan Oyster Company had seventy-two wild ducks in his possession he was arrested, and yesterday was obliged to defend himself before Justice Rose. The law states plainly that it is a misdemeanor to be possessed of more than fifty ducks at one time. Morgan was taken with the goods, but he managed to shift the responsibility and was acquitted.

Knowing the State game law is daily violated with regard to quail and duck limits, the commissioners have kept a careful lookout for shipments received in this city. When a consignment of wild ducks from El Paso, booked to the Morgan Oyster Company, arrived in Los Angeles Friday, the sealed cases were seized by State Game Commissioner Pritchard, and Morgan was arrested after he had signed for the case. When the package was opened seventy-two teal ducks, nicely picked and packed, were found. They were confiscated.

The ducks were not produced in court, but Morgan admitted having them in his possession, and also admitted that they exceeded the limit allowed by law, but pleaded in his own behalf that he had ordered only fifty, and that the sender instead of the receiver is guilty.

The game was shipped by a well-known firm in El Paso, and the authorities will endeavor to have the shippers arrested for the law violation.

Now the question arises as to who will pay the freight on the ducks. Morgan says he will not pay, the Game Commissioners will also refuse to pay, and Wells, Fargo & Co. may have to collect from the El Paso end.

Another question arose as to the possession of the ducks. Everybody was willing to take the toothsome dainties. It was decided to send them to the poor at the County Farm. They are now in cold storage.

Many Sunday Drunks.

When the mills of the gods began grinding yesterday in Justice Chamber's court seventy-two drunks filed in through the rear door. One by one they were given the regulation "$3 or three days," and slowly the grist floated out again through the same door to serve the sentences. Seldom has so many appeared on the drunk list, and it was late in the morning session when the last bleary-eyed soak "got his," and was hustled below. Monday mornings are always record-breakers, but yesterday's list was exceptional.

Building Ordinance Amendment.

The proposed amendment to the recently adopted concrete building ordinance was referred by the City Council, yesterday, to its Building Committee. The amendment as proposed by Octavius Morgan reads: "All hollow tile floors, whether supported by steel or concrete beams and girders, shall be tested for the several loads they are to carry, as herein provided for reinforced concrete floors."

Northwestern Annexation.

It was the intention of the City Council to have taken up the annexation project for East Hollywood, Eagle Rock and Upper Garvanza territory at yesterday's session; but the work of verifying certain precinct lines was still in progress at the Courthouse, and the task was not finished in time for the passage of the election ordinance at this session. The Council has set this afternoon at 3 o'clock as the time for considering the election ordinance.

CUBA WANTS PROTECTORATE.

Prominent Residents of Island Ask American Congress to Declare This Policy.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Prominent members of the Liberal party in Cuba, according to Capt. Cassilly Cook of this city, who says he is counsel here for certain Liberal interests, have a plan afoot for the establishment of a permanent protectorate in Cuba by the American government. They are, he says, supported by the foreign interests of that country and proposed to petition the President and Congress in January to pass a bill making Cuba a protectorate.

Another bill is to be presented in the Cuban Congress for the same purpose. Capt. Cook declared yesterday in an interview that bills to this end have already been drawn and forwarded to Cuba for the approval of those interested.

WHO IS OWNER OF RIVER BOTTOM?

LEGAL LUMINARIES HAVE A SIXTEEN PUZZLE.

Question Put to the Legal Advisers of Iowa Because of Coal Having Been Found Beneath the Sands of a River—Does It Belong to Abutters, or to the State?

T. M. McFadden, an attorney of Oskaloosa, Iowa, "started something" when he asked the State legal department who owned the sand under the water of a river. Under the sand, it seems, there is some coal. The ownership of the sand must necessarily be settled before the decision reaches the coal.

The whole matter seems to have been neglected by lawmakers, lawyers and courts because nobody cared who did own the few loads of sand teamsters hauled from the river beds to aid in the construction of houses in the nearby towns, but when it came to a coal mine corporation following a paying vein under the river and not paying royalty, it occurred to some economist that it was time to decide; also to make the coal company pay, as there was no reduction in the price of coal because it came free to the operators.

The attachés of the office of the Secretary of State and the Attorney-General of Iowa have been reading the law books diligently to find an adequate answer to Mr. McFadden's inquiry.

It was given up as hopeless. That the river beds belong to the people—that is, the State—is even doubtful, but that the State is trustee and custodian of the river beds that are still in use by the water is certain. After the water abandons the channel of a river the statute gives the State full title to the abandoned bed. It can sell the bed in that case. But while the water is using the bed the State can neither sell nor lease the ground, earth, land or minerals which lie under the water.

At least that is the present view at the Iowa State House. A letter to the effect has been sent to the Oskaloosa attorney.

NO LAW FOR TRESPASSERS.

So far, so good. But since the State is merely the trustee and is not the owner of the sand under the water in a going river, what power has it to stop a trespasser from helping himself to the sand and the earth and the minerals—such as coal—beneath the river bed?

The Attorney-General and Secretary of State had no sooner decided that the State did not own the bed under the water of a river and could not lease or sell the sand composing the bed, than the coal question was sprung.

Ben Franklin said the way to find out was to ask questions. In this case that did not prove true. For no one, so far, of those who have examined the matter, is able to say exactly what the State can do when a man starts to take the bed out from under the water of a river. He might be classified as a mighty mean man to take the bed away from a river, for not even a municipal government has done a thing like that before. But as to how the State can prevent him doing it the law is silent.

The theory is that the State would be powerless in such a case. This applies, of course, to that portion of the river bed which is wholly under the water. The riparian owner would have rights affecting the bed of the river not covered by the water.

But if this theory, that the State cannot interfere with a man who undertakes to take the sand mattresses out of the bed of a river, what can be done with the mining company which digs the coal from under the river's bed, away down about at the location of the casters?

New York stationers say there have been advances recently in nearly every important line which they sell, the rise coming from the manufacturers. The latest advance of about 10 per cent. affects most of the trades in blank books. The leather used in binding them costs more than formerly, and has again gone up. The cloth used for books is also getting more expensive.

Railroads Drop It With New Pullman Contracts.

Best Travel to California in Fine Coaches.

A. Yager, assistant general superintendent of the "sleeping car department" of the Pullman Palace Car Company of Chicago, who is at the Alexandria, said yesterday that over 90 per cent. of the 5000 Pullmans in use on the railroads of the United States are used to convey people to and from California—mostly to.

In view of the fact that a large number of the twenty-year contracts which the concern has held with the railroads of the country for the use of its cars, are drawing to a close, the statement of Mr. Yager that apparently an exception the roads are renewing their contracts for a short period leaves the subject of "tourist hotels," as the Pullman has named its coaches, entirely in the hands of the Pullman company to settle with the Interstate Commerce Commission, and eliminates the railroads from the case.

Mr. Yager was not communicative with regard to the Pullman company, and showed profound ignorance as to the basis upon which the concern bases its claim that it is a builder of hotels instead of common carriers. In fact Mr. Yager said he had never heard of the Pullman company making such a claim.

Considerable public attention has been directed of late to the enormous profits of the Pullman company, which it is reported, is about to be divided among the stockholders. This profit is generally stated to amount to $10,000,000.

"I am not sure that the decision of the people whether they would go into the industry of building their own sleeping, dining and parlor cars, or enter into their contracts with the Pullman concern to use its cars, will have any bearing upon the determination of the sleeping car trust as to whether it will splice the "melon" or make it a sinking fund. The statement of Mr. Yager that the railroads are renewing their twenty-year contracts is looked upon in some quarters as foreshadowing the early division of the big Pullman "melon." In connection Mr. Yager is very insistent. He absolutely refuses to discuss the surplus.

"The Pullman company," said Yager, "is making palace cars at the rate of one a day and these are taken up as fast as turned out. The prosperity of the United States is so general that more people are traveling than ever before in the history of the land. They have the money and are using the first-class privileges of all trains where they can, when they did travel, they were content with the day coaches.

"The Pullman car business is an extremely healthy one and bids fair to suggest the general prosperity of the country by. Especially is the concern to be congratulated on the travel of the Pacific Coast. The trips to the Coast are so long that every passenger who makes either a tourist or a standard car, and the people have so much money that they are almost all compelled to travel 'standard.'

"The purchasing of private cars by very wealthy Americans is not going to help for the reason that it is impossible to charter a private car exactly as the traveler desires, and this obviates the extra cost of having trackage for the car and keeping it in condition when not in use.

"With reference to the trouble encountered by agents of the Pullman company in the Southern States where the Jim Crow laws are effective, Yager refused to talk. He said, however, that there was no discrimination in the matter against the colored race.

"The outlook is very optimistic over the prospects for travel to the Coast this winter, and said that bookings are considerably ahead of last year at this time. The railroads, he said, are asking for more Pullman cars, both for tourist and the commercial traveler, and the company is not behind in its history turned out. The concern also employs the largest number of men ever on the pay roll is half again as large as it was ten years ago.

SHOT ON VACCINATION?

Superintendents May Make It a Test at San Diego—Our Self-Governing Ways Surprises Visitors.

It is considered a very important meeting of the school superintendents of California will convene tomorrow evening in San Diego, the State Convention of California Superintendents.

Already Los Angeles was the headquarters for a score of the heads of the various schools who were on route to the meeting. They will go in a party tomorrow.

A. Barr, Superintendent of schools of Stockton, was one of the early arrivals. He spent a goodly portion of the day at the Chamber of Commerce as a guest, of Secretary Williams. Mr. Barr said that there was some discussion to arise over the action of the San Francisco Board in excluding Japanese children from certain schools, but he was not in a position to speak advisedly on the matter.

"One of the important matters which will come up at this session," said Mr. Barr, "is the problem of vaccination. We as a rule do not believe in the operation, and I look for a stand by the professors and students against it. Manual, industrial and agricultural training schools will also come up for consideration.

"Owing to the proximity of the next session of the State Legislature subjects will come up which it is the hope of advocates to bring before the Legislature, and if possible crystallized into laws.

"In all probability the coming Legislature will make numerous changes in the school laws and the free textbook question will probably come in for a great deal of discussion, as it was a matter of the strong features of the convention which will be held tomorrow."

Other school superintendents who will be in the city yesterday and today are Ambler, of Oakland; E. P. McClymonds, Oakland; E. McLane of San Joaquin; and McLane Johnson, Oakland.

The visiting gentlemen visited the Polytechnic High School yesterday and were astounded at the success of the student government plan in the institution. The visitors entered the school where 300 students were under the charge of a single teacher in sight. The teacher in charge, it is to see that every student was in his seat and that everything was in ship-shape had performed its duty so well that the visitors in their congratulations loud in their congratulatory remarks to Superintendent Barr said that they had never seen, and that the well disciplined body of students over seen, and that the plan here speaks well for the introduction throughout

BRAVE DRIVER SAVES LIVES.

RUNAWAY TEAM MAKES THRILLING DASH DOWN HILL.

Casseley Courts Death by Turning Horses Toward Trench—He and Companion Slightly Injured and Laborer Hurt Internally—Streets Crowded and Pedestrians in Danger.

Failure of the brakes on a heavy delivery wagon of the American Transfer Company, caused a thrilling runaway on West First street at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, in which three men were injured, two were hurled from the wagon, horses were thrown into a struggling heap and the wagon itself was ditched in an excavation for sewer work.

A large crowd gathered and witnesses aver that it was only the bravery and quick-witted judgment of John Cassely that prevented loss of life. Cassely deliberately steered the frantic horses over a large pile of dirt and into a ditch in front of No. 225 West First street.

From the crest of the First-street hill the horses dashed in one of the wildest drives ever witnessed in this city. Every attempt to set the brakes failed. The team made desperate efforts to escape from the weight of the wagon at their heels. At Hill street the wagon seemed to fly, as it bounded over the level crossing and thundered down on the rough cobble stones.

Men saw that nothing could check the flight of the crazed animals and a great shout went up which warned the crowded thoroughfare. A Brooklyn-avenue car had just switched back on to the westbound First-street track and a throng of passengers was crowded about the steps. A Grand-avenue car was passing and there was but one avenue of escape for the on-coming team that could prevent a collision with street cars and people.

Jack Flaherty, who was on the seat beside Cassely, dropped the reins just as the runaways passed the Police Station. Cassely gathered them in and swerved the team directly at a five-foot bank of earth, twenty feet long, that had been thrown out by the excavators. At that instant John Lazovich, a laborer, crawled out of the hole.

In a bound the horses gained the top of the dirt pile and in a magnificent leap, completely cleared the ditch and rolled down the bank on the other side. The men in the wagon were hurled high in the air and John Lazovich was struck by the heavy front wheel and crushed back into the ditch. Spectators thought that all had been killed and women turned away, in horror.

It took many minutes to disentagle the horses. Cassely and Flaherty were both bleeding at the mouth and were cut and bruised about the head, but they, pluckily remained with their team and finally reharnessed the animals. The wagon was righted and driven away little the worse for its unusual experience. Lazovich, who lives at No. 700 Coriett street, was taken to the Receiving Hospital where he was treated for internal injuries and had a cut lip sewed up.

CATARRH SEASON.

Disease Most Prevalent in the Fall Months. Simple Way to Cure.

With the cool nights of fall, catarrhal troubles in Los Angeles are becoming more and more prevalent.

At the first warning of catarrh, one should begin using Hyomei. A few days' treatment at this season of the year will often prevent a serious and chronic attack of catarrh.

There is no stomach dosing with Hyomei. The virtues of its healing oils and balsams are breathed through a neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, and in that way the medication penetrates to the most remote cells of the nose, throat and lungs, killing catarrhal germs whenever present, and soothing and healing any irritation there may be in the mucous membrane.

If you have a cold, or there is any offensive discharge from the nose, or tickling or dropping at the back of the throat; if there is offensive breath, raising of mucous, and smarting and irritation in the throat; if there are any of the symptoms that indicate catarrhal troubles, begin the use of Hyomei at once.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00; extra bottles, if needed, 50 cents. We do not want anyone's money unless Hyomei gives relief and cure, and we absolutely agree that money will be refunded unless the remedy gives satisfaction.

All druggists should be able to supply you with Hyomei, or we will send it by mail on receipt of price, and every package is sold with the distinct understanding that it costs nothing unless it cures. Write us today for a symptom blank, which we will send you free, together with treatise on Catarrh and how to cure it. When you fill in and return to us the symptom blank, our consulting physician will give your case the best care and attention, and write you a letter of advice without charge. The R. T. Booth Company, Buffalo, N. Y.

TINIEST GARDENS DOING NICELY.

HOW ORPHANS EXERCISE LOVE OF CULTIVATION.

Three Square Feet of Space for Each Child in Los Angeles Home Who Wishes to Grow Flowers or Vegetables — Managers Plead for Large Acreage.

The boys and girls of the Los Angeles Orphans Home, at Yale and Alpine streets, have probably the smallest gardens in the world, if the space allotted to them for garden-making were to be portioned out pro rata to each inmate of the home.

Cooped up in the yard, 150 by 175 feet, are 150 boys and girls, and every day the recreation hours of all these children must be spent in this confined space. Along the 150-foot side, a strip three feet wide, skirting the wall that encloses the grounds, is given to the children in which to dig and play garden-making, giving to each child a strip one foot wide and three feet long. These gardens will probably take the palm for smallness of space occupied, over the famous garden-spot of the Chinamen in their native land, where it is said not a square inch of soil goes uncultivated, where cultivation is possible.

The passion to dig and plant is so strong in the orphans that they cultivate this strip assiduously, each taking great pride in the success of his own planting. Corn, smilax and flowers are among the things that flourish along the wall in the bleak yard, giving a dash of freshness to the otherwise barren place.

What the lady managers of the institution are really anxious to accomplish is an exchange of this 150 feet for 150 acres.

They want the orphans under their care to have the opportunity of exercising their taste for gardening on a larger scale, and at the same time better their health and surroundings.

When the home was built at its present location, it was thought to be far enough away from the center of population, and amply spacious for the work proposed, but times have changed. The city has spread beyond what was supposed to be impossible limits at that time, and the wrong of attempting to confine so many children in so small a space is now appreciated in all its enormity.

A ranch of 160 acres of land, within six, ten or twelve miles of the city, where a cottage-system may be adopted, instead of housing the children in one large building as at present, is what the directors long for. There are such vast acreages in the neighborhood of Los Angeles, and many of them in possession of persons who can afford to cour... such a tract to the Home, that the hint is thrown out for consideration. The philanthropist who adopts it will do a magnificent act of generosity toward a generation of boys and girls. They are growing up under difficulties never dreamed of by those, even though they may be equally poor, who have had the freedom of the country, and the healthfulness and happiness of a cottage surrounded by grass, trees and flowers.

The management of the home is so careful that no complaints are ever heard, and this is but a stronger reason why they should be given greater opportunity to surround the children with the very best conditions, and teach them something of home life.

The present property has greatly enhanced in value and can be sold for a sufficient sum to go far toward carrying out these desires if the ground should be donated as suggested.

An anarchist made a demonstration against the army last night at Naples, while the Duke of Aosta was distributing prizes to soldiers who distinguished themselves in the relief work during the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in April last. The Duke, who is commander of this military district, and cousin of King Victor Emmanuel, was standing, surrounded by the local military authorities and the troops of the garrison, at a short distance from the massed standards of the regiment, when a man named Nicol Fiore, known to be a member of an anarchists organization, threw a package of anti-military newspapers at the regimental military standards, and at the same time shouted insults against the army in general. He was arrested.

PART II: EDITORIAL, LOCAL AND BUSINESS SECTION

FOR MAYOR,

DR. WALTER LINDLEY.

Independent Republican Nominee.

Pen Points

A woman is as old as she is, no matter what she may say to the census taker.

We fear that Ben Ward's recent majority at the polls has led him to believe he is the whole works.

While Brother Crapsey of Rochester has not been burned for a heretic he has been considerably roasted.

We have come to the point where almost every man has a knife at his throat. And the barbers keep on shaving.

Mr. Bryan continues to be the only man in or out of office who has been able to make politics a financial success.

According to Candidate Marek, he is the only Simon-pure Socialist, and Wilson and Harper are merely four-flushers.

Perhaps it is the politicians and not the weather man we should blame for the prevalence of so much wind in the atmosphere.

Mr. Hearst makes the announcement that "having now sufficiently educated the public he will retire from politics." Huh!

Civilization depends wholly on one man's confidence in another. We must eat what the waiter brings us, and ask no questions.

A graphophone choir has been introduced in a Portland church. A man's religious faith is being put to sore tests these times.

Dr. Lindley has never lacked for friends, but he will have them to spare now that he has been attacked by the mud-slinging Express.

The Liberal party in Cuba must soon get hold of the offices or starve. That presents an easy way to get rid of the Liberal party, all right.

What some one should do is to invent a voting machine by means of which we would be able to hold all these elections at one time.

The latest incident in regard to the "blind-pig" business adds another proof to the argument that it doesn't pay to do business that way.

It will never do to elect Les Gates Mayor. Every time he might do anything he would spend the rest of the week explaining why he did it.

Mr. Hearst's decision to retire from politics was oubtless to some extent precipitated by the fact that he had already been retired by the voters.

It is reported that Anna Gould will marry an actor next time. We hope he will prove to be a good actor, for Count Boni was certainly a very bad one.

Being a friend of the organization, and wishing it well in all its undertakings, we regret to note that the Salvation Army of this town now has a band that can play tunes.

All the official documents in the cities of Ireland are now to be written in the Irish language. Thus is it to be brought about that, although England runs, she can't read.

"It takes a strong man to stand prosperity," says young John Rockefeller. It doesn't take such a strong man to stand it, but it takes a mighty fast man to keep up with it.

We think we have earned the right to say a kindly word of advice to our friends, the negroes, and it is that they are running great risks of stretching their skins until they may become too thin.

Having made a practice of spending a quarter of a million dollars in a campaign, maybe, as a matter of fact, Hearst's bank account had as much to do as anything else with his decision to retire from politics.

It is not our business, of course, to give Les Gates advice as to the methods he should employ in conducting his campaign, still we don't mind saying to him that we think he is losing too much time explaining his side-steps.

"I work with my hands, and I am a poor man," says Candidate Stanley Wilson. If he could only get a job at piecework working his jaw he wouldn't be poor very long. Even on an eight-hour day he would soon become the wealthiest person on earth.

MASSING AGAINST WILSON.

If Stanley B. Wilson by any mischance should be elected Mayor of Los Angeles, the consequences would be bitter to contemplate. There is no necessity of going over these possible consequences in detail. A concrete example of what would take place here is given us in the present misrule in San Francisco. The defeat of Wilson is the one thing to keep in mind every moment of the time from now until the ballot boxes are finally closed on the evening of Tuesday, December 4.

This is not a partisan campaign. It will be more generally non-partisan on the part of many thousands of Democrats and Republicans than on the part of the so-called Non-Partisan party. By many of the more intelligent and patriotic citizens, both Democratic and Republican, there will be kept steadily in mind the one great purpose, to clinch beyond all possible chance the defeat of Stanley B. Wilson as Mayor of the city of Los Angeles.

Assuming that three-fifths of the possible vote will be cast, say in round numbers 30,000, how are these votes likely to fall from the ballots upon the tally sheets. There are five candidates in the field. The out and out Socialists are counting on polling 3000. In the State election of November 6, by a careful analysis of the vote cast in the city, it would seem as if the Non-Partisan strength at its maximum amounted to something like 6000 votes. The Non-Partisan candidate for Mayor will not get the full strength of his own party. He will not get probably more than two-thirds of the total Non-Partisan vote. Both Democrats and Republicans in hundreds are breaking away from him to one of the two great national parties. They are doing this not because of any change of mind as to the correctness of their party principles, but rather in adherence to pure no-partisanship. They reason that their presence in politics is not to elect the candidate of any party, even their own, so much as to secure the best possible government for the city. The presence of the labor-union public ownership candidate, Stanley B. Wilson, and the possibility of the vote he may poll, is warning them that the course of safety lies in voting, not for the candidate of their own party, but for some one with greater strength, sure to bring about the utter defeat of the dangerous candidate for Mayor. The shrewdest politicians in the city, who have made the most careful analysis of the votes cast November 6, claim for Stanley B. Wilson a vote of not less than 6000 or 7000, and these professional politicians openly state that no man can tell how much above that figure his vote may go. They say that Lee Gates will fall in somewhere in the line between the purely socialistic candidate and the semi-socialistic one.

It is conceded that a full half or more of the Gates vote will come away from the straight Democratic candidate. Of the 2000 or 2500 Socialistic votes, not less than three-fifths would in normal circumstances go to the Democratic ticket. The same is true of the candidate of the party known as the Public Ownership party. This conclusion is entirely reasonable from the fact that the straight Democratic platform is almost the exact counterpart of the Public Ownership platform. The conclusion is made further and altogether reasonable by the observation easily made that the rank and file of the Democratic party is tainted with this un-American virus known as public ownership of our industrial enterprises. It is an un-American notion, scarcely ever found in the minds of straight Republican citizens.

Now, that analysis of the voting strength of the city points plainly to a very interesting condition. We have the Republican citizenship of Los Angeles almost untouched by any of these disturbing political notions. The party is but little disrupted. The only defection from party loyalty is found in the possible 1500 or 2000 voters ordinarily Republicans who will cast the Non-Partisan ballot. That defection from the straight Republican ranks is likely to be nearly if not fully made up from the solid, intelligent members in the Democratic ranks who, thoroughly non-partisan in their politics at this time, see their bounden duty to lie in bringing about the utter defeat and rout of Stanley B. Wilson and his semi-socialistic propaganda, and that this is possible only by voting for Lindley.

The straight Democratic vote, as indicated by the head of the ticket in the recent State election, was only about 6000 strong in the city of Los Angeles. Increase it by 50 per cent. and it would not be enough to make absolutely certain the defeat of Stanley Wilson. Where can any person skilled in the analyzing of a vote and in forecasting from such analysis future election figure out any increase for Mr. Harper over the vote cast for Mr. Bell? That Wilson's vote will be vastly greater than the Langdon vote every one skilled in political analysis and forecasting is conceding. Thus, it appears the most reasonable conclusion that the contention for the largest portion of this split-up vote lies between Wilson and Harper. It would probably be somewhat difficult to get the sporting fraternity to give odds in a bet as to which of these candidates would poll the larger vote.

On an analysis thus completed and on the reasonable supposition that about 30,000 votes will be polled at the coming city election, it certainly seems almost evident that the winner in the race for Mayor must be Dr. Walter Lindley. That fact in and of itself acquires significance ten times more emphatic than the bare statement when we come to realize that he is the only candidate in the field who is apparently altogether sure to defeat Wilson and to safeguard to this city the existing conditions under which our industries are all running so smoothly and the general measure of prosperity meted out to every industrious person is so satisfactory.

UNASSAILABLE.

When a political enemy has brought slanderous charges against a public officer and the grand jury has investigated them; when the jury has exonerated the accused and the presiding judge has ordered the charges expunged from the records—after such an ordeal as that, what further vindication does a man need?

Dr. Lindley's reform school record has stood the test of fire and has come out untouched. The grand jury testified to his able service and the court threw his detractors out of the window. What more could be asked?

Every attempt to injure Dr. Lindley by the contemptible tricks of inference and innuendo that have been set in motion by his political enemies will react in his favor, as the same dishonorable tactics reacted in the recent dirty but harmless campaign against Mr. Gillett.

The campaign of mud-throwing begun by the Non-Partisan managers against Dr. Lindley will cost their candidates hundreds of votes. It may defeat Mallard, for instance.

THE LAND OF CALM.

It is in no spirit of boastfulness that The Times feels impelled to refer, once more, to the manifold advantages possessed by Southern California as a place of residence. These advantages are not imaginary, but real. Every person who has resided in this favored land for any considerable time, with the possible exception of a few who cannot be satisfied anywhere, will testify to the delights of its climate, and will bear out the assertion that, taking all things into consideration, it is equaled in few if any regions on the face of the earth. This is true, whether we regard the "wet" season or the "dry," the spring, the summer, the autumn or the winter. These terms, as we all know, are misnomers to a very large extent; for so gently and so imperceptibly do the so-called seasons merge into each other that we hardly take notice. All are blended into a kind of perpetual spring, which is destitute alike of extreme heat or extreme cold.

It is unpleasant, in this connection, to speak of the ills which afflict other and less favored regions. This is done, not in a spirit of disparagement of other sections, but rather in a spirit of thanksgiving for the blessings which we in Southern California enjoy, and also in a spirit of sincere sympathy for those who are not so blessed. The terrible storms which a few weeks ago devastated the Gulf States, the wild cyclonic disturbance which on Sunday swept over Mississippi and portions of contiguous States, the blizzards and devastating hurricanes which rage along the Atlantic Coast, the floods which have but recently made of Seattle an inland sea, sweeping away houses and defying the puny efforts of man to check the destruction—all these and other kindred disasters excite in the minds of those who are so fortunate as to reside in this land of calm the sincerest feelings of sympathy and commiseration. But, of course, we cannot help a feeling of earnest and abiding thankfulness because our lot has been cast in pleasanter places. We should be less than human if we failed in gratitude to the Giver of all good things for the blessings which He has seen fit in His infinite wisdom to bestow upon us.

Probably no one will deny that the California of the South is, "taking one consideration with another," the safest place for human habitation on the North American continent, if not in the world. Its freedom from severe storms is something phenomenal. In fact, it is no exaggeration to say that severe storms of any kind are practically unknown here. It is true that during the past few days we have experienced unusually high winds for this section. But these winds would be considered mere summer zephyrs on the Atlantic or the Gulf Coast. Such winds do not visit this section more than half a dozen times a year, and they never do any damage worth mentioning.

As for the rains in Southern California, they are always welcome, as any visitor in Los Angeles will be convinced if he happens to be here when the first rain of the season (or any rain) comes down. What in most sections is regarded as an unwelcome visitation, is here received with every demonstration of joy. Everybody is smiling, everybody is happy, everybody is optimistic. Southern California is unique in having so few storms that storms are always welcome. Of course, this would be different if our storms meant blizzards and wrecking cyclones, hurricanes and snow and sleet. But they bring nothing of this kind. Only "the gentle rain from heaven," feeding the thirsty earth with what is literally "the water of life."

For this reason we love the storms, which are so feared elsewhere. For this reason, among a host of others, our land is the best on the round earth; the land of calm, of hope, of quiet, of peace and of content. For our brothers who are obliged to live elsewhere we have sympathy, commiseration, pity; for those who are so fortunate as to be here, and for those other fortunate ones who will come later, congratulations.

ROOSEVELT WAS RIGHT.

There is a disposition on the part of many colored men to find fault with the President's recent action in ordering the dismissal from the army of three companies of negro soldiers of the Twenty-fifth Infantry. At a number of Afro-American churches in New York on Sunday resolutions were adopted declaring that "the action of the President of the United States is most heartily disapproved by us, and is so much the more disapproved by us because of the high regard we have hitherto cherished for him." Similar action has been taken by colored men in some other parts of the country.

The President's action in this affair seems not to be fully understood by his would-be critics. These soldiers were not dismissed from the army because they were colored men. Theodore Roosevelt would be the last man to base his action upon any such ground. Even his enemies will admit this; for the fact is generally known and recognized that the President believes in and practices the principle of the "square deal"—justice to every man, without reference to creed or color, or any accident of birth.

The men dismissed knew that one of their number had committed murder, and that others of their number had been guilty of criminal conduct. The members of the three companies refused to disclose the identity of the offenders, and by so refusing they became, in a sense, participants in or accessory to the crimes commited. The President acted in this case precisely as he would have acted if every one of the men had been white, instead of black. This is all there is to the matter. The President's action was a piece of necessary discipline, and it was in no sense a reflection upon citizens or soldiers of the colored race.

Dr. Lindley is a high-minded gentleman and is conducting his campaign on clean lines. He will leave the use of slime to Guinn and the Express. Yes, let them daub their hands with it. None of it will stick to the doctor.

A WHISPER.

A MAN OF ACHIEVEMENT.

By JOHN T. GRIFFITH, Pres. Real Estate Co.

A LIFELONG acquaintance and latterly several years' intimate business association with Dr. Walter Lindley, the Republican nominee for Mayor of this city, leave no doubt in my mind that when elected (and I feel confident as to the outcome of the city election of December 4) he will prove to be a Mayor abundantly qualified for the important office, and one in whom we may all feel justly proud.

With absolute confidence in the Doctor as a man of decided strength of character, determination, honesty, broad views, and an indefatigable worker, coupled with the successful outcome of every enterprise with which he has been connected during his thirty-one years' residence in this city, I unhesitatingly ask my friends, and through them their friends whose interests are directly promoted by a proper administration of our city affairs, to throw their support to Dr. Lindley at the coming election.

My unbounded confidence in Dr. Lindley and my personal appeal to my friends for their support in his behalf is in no way intended as a reflection on the character and standing of the other candidates for the office, but simply an unbiased expression of my idea that Dr. Lindley is the best man for the very important office of chief executive of our city.

DR. LINDLEY DOES THINGS.

By O. J. BARKER, of Barker Bros.

IN THESE days of commercialism, a business man asks on being introduced to another, whether he be an applicant for a position, or at the head of a large business enterprise, what has he done? Not what he says, for some men are unfortunate in having vocal explosions on any and all occasions.

Having known Dr. Lindley for many years in the social and business world, I want to say that he is known as a man that does things, and does them in a systematic, business-like manner. Owing to the many immense enterprises coming before the officials of this city during the next two years, we want workers, not talkers. We want successful men. We want business men, and we want a man from the day he arrived in Los Angeles that has done things. Dr. Lindley measures up to the standard, a full-sized business man, who does things and does them right.

PROMINENT PERSONS.

James T. McDermott, who will represent Puckingtown, Ill., in the next Congress, began life as a messenger boy, picked up telegraphy and left the city to begin the campaign which won for him a seat in the national House of Representatives. He is 34 years old and a Democrat.

Francis Wilson, the actor, is well known as a collector of paintings. Recently he purchased a picture from a dealer in New York, supposed to be by Maurve, for which he paid $5375. In Mr. Wilson's own words, it turns out to be "a worthless imitation," and he has had the art dealer arrested to recover his money.

Gen. Nogi of Port Arthur fame is paying the penalty of popularity at the hands of autograph seekers. But the form which this has taken in Japan has about it a touch of sentiment, inasmuch as the relatives of soldiers who fell before Port Arthur are seeking the general's autograph inscription to place on the tombstones of the dead.

Dr. Karl Muck of the Boston Symphony Orchestra was a distinguished pianist before he became a famous conductor. Soon after arriving in Boston Prof. Willy Hess, concert master of the orchestra, asked Muck to play the piano in one of the modern works which the quartette is to give. After looking at the score he said: "I will, if you put it into your last concert. I'll have to take a course of scales before the concert and you must give me time."

THE INNOCENT BYSTANDER

To the Heights.

"They shall walk every one in his way." Joel ii, 8.

The valley path is broad and with flowers either side,
And place of shade and place where one would fain abide.
The valley has the lure of pleasure and content—
But yonder through the walls by which the vale is There winds another path that by cliff and crag and peak
Until it meets the bending
the eye may seek.

And it is dark and it is
is little worn
For few the feet of fearless mountain path has borne;
It hurries from the drowsy
leaves the meadows green,
It finds the frowning chasm
it may creep between—
But it climbs on and on and ever reaching high,
Until at last it finds the shoulders to the sky.

But we are tired; the valley
its song of lazy rest,
And we would not strive on until we reach the crest
For here are birds and honeyed
and here are sun and shade
And there in misty nothingness
barren summits fade,
But yet the path gleams fair
against the mountain side—
And who would struggle up when here he may abide?

One valley here—but one, a drones in dull content,
The climbing path tells of who struggled as they Who battled on and battled they won the way
And found a wondrous land for such brave souls as Our valley of content, in pleasing to the sight—
A thousand valleys are for wins the distant height.

PLAYHOUSES AND PLAYERS.

MASON. Perhaps "Peggy from Paris" is a natural evolution of George Ade's "Stories of the Streets and the Town"—and, perhaps, it isn't. But at any rate the musical comedy has much of Ade's old-time bright and snappy humor, much of his toleration and unbounded good nature, much of his delightful satire, and not a little of his philosophy. Effervescent, and even frothy, though the play may seem at times, it is yet the sparkling vehicle through which we catch glimpses of many genuine types of humanity, as they are removed from one another in Capt. Alonso Plummer and Reginald Hickey. Reginald is, indeed, "a useful boy," and Arthur Deagon, with his inimitable style, makes him many times more useful than perhaps even his imaginative author had dreamed of. Mr. Deagon sings and acts with equal ease and abandon. He is as surprisingly gymnastic as he is undeniably heavy. He keeps his audience in a roar of laughter from the moment he bombards the stage till he leaves it.

Mr. Deagon is ably abetted by a number of clever comedians—Ward Whitfield as Cicero Grampis, Gale Sattherthwaite as Montague Fish, Claudie Burlington as Mrs. Homer Ketchum, Frances Pson as Teasie Higgins, Minnie Olson as Mrs. Montague Fish, and Yvonette Haynes as Sophie Bilotz. Adelaide Jensen is Peggy—tall, graceful and very pretty, with remarkably good clothes and a fairly good voice. "Peggy from Paris" is not new to the Los Angeles theater goers, but everybody will enjoy it anew as rendered this week by Madison Corey's stock company.

ORPHEUM. Has Vasco just escaped from the crazy house, or is he a candidate for the institution. He claims to be "mad," and no one who sees his act will dispute his claim. With a confused heap of instruments, brass, wood and string, scattered helter-skelter on tables, floor and chairs, and a quart measure of some drinkable within easy reach, the "Mad Musician" prances wildly about the stage, his keeper at his heels, and the orchestra vainly endeavoring to keep pace with his frenzied instrumentation. He picks up an instrument, whichever is nearest at hand, toots or thrums a few bars and tosses it aside. Then he picks it up, straightens out the kinks, and puts it out of reach of the madman should forget and use it again. Vasco is really a clever musician, but prefers to pose as a lunatic.

Harry Cooper, with the Empire City Quartette, is a comedian, and both the Hoey brothers, as well as Mayo and Lilly, are singers. These words may be taken in the dictionary sense. They have the audience calling for more right up to the end of their twenty-minutes turn.

When the Wilson brothers came on the stage many in the audience wondered what had become of the pretty girl who accompanied them when they were last here. Their act is much the same as at that time, and the fair one they went with it the more one's thoughts reverted to the pretty girl. She should be included in future offerings of the Wilson brothers.

A pretty and clever aerial act is offered by Miss Alexandra and a young man named Bertie. Why an athlete should give a baby name is a mystery. Bobby Mile. Alexandra gave it to you when he was an infant, and a good one.

Jerome Cate has new songs and delivers them so good as last week's. The same comment applies to Collins and Hart. Max Millikin, violinist, has new selections, but an unfortunate choice as the programme.

GRAND. "Nancy & Co." is finely adapted to the comedy elements in Mr. Ferguson's capable stock company. Following this funny play from an unexpected retirement of many years, the Belasco management has polished it and staged it with accuracy, and cast with admirable discretion, until at the production it sent repeated bursts of laughter over the house from gallery.

There is not a great deal to the play—"Nancy & Co." It is another one of the old "mistaken identity" sort, but it is well written, and the situations are well worked and the lines, in most places, are

Of course, Mary Van Buren has an easy part. Whatever may be her obscurity in serious drama, or her inadaptability to problems, this humorous star is a perfect mistress of comedy. She is naturally in it—and comedy to most people is not a matter of naturalness at all. Likewise, this will be her first comedy appearance during her present engagement in Los Angeles. Miss Van Buren including Arthur Coolidge, Harry Mestayer and Ida Desmond—at present plus a case of unfractured vertebrae. The production is good, and the company is one of the best of the season.

HUNTINGTON. "Other People's Money," which the Hotchkiss company is presenting this week, is undeniably a farce of the veriest type, and thus it affords the Howard-Hamilton players their proper fold. The piece is a connected, though quaint and the denouement is so unexpected that it surprises—which is unusual for farce-comedies of this type. Mr. Howard has a role in his typical style, and Miss Johnson, Flora Dorset, Arthur Lee and F. Murphy are well cast in their roles.

THE INNOCENT BYSTANDER

To the Heights.

"They shall walk every one in his way." Joel ii, 8.

The valley path is broad and smooth
with flowers either side,
And place of shade and place of rest
where one would fain abide;
The valley has the lure of peace,
pleasure and content—
But yonder through the mountain walls by which the vale is pent
There winds another path that climbs
by cliff and crag and peak
Until it meets the bending sky,
the eye may seek.

And it is dark and it is rough, but
is little worn
For few the feet of fearless men
mountain path has borne;
It hurries from the drowsy shade,
leaves the meadows green,
It finds the frowning chasm walls
it may creep between—
But it climbs on and on and on,
ever reaching high,
Until at last it finds the heights
shoulders to the sky.

But we are tired; the valley hath its song of lazy rest,
And we would not strive on as
until we reach the crest
For here are birds and honeyed bees
and here are sun and shade,
And there in misty nothingness
barren summits fade,
But yet the path gleams fair and against the mountain side—
And who would struggle up as when here he may abide?

One valley here—but one, a place
drones in dull content;
The climbing path tells of the who struggled as they went,
Who battled on and battled up
they won the way
And found a wondrous land outspread for such brave souls as they.
Our valley of content, in truth
pleasing to the sight—
A thousand valleys are for him
wins the distant height.

"He is familiar with the State, its needs, etc.; knows where unnecessary expenditures can be pruned off, and ought to give an economical administration. I think he will be the best Governor the State has had in years."

Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Reynolds has departed for a trip to the Pacific Coast, to inspect customhouses. He will stop at all the principal points, including San Francisco, Los Angeles and other California points. It is stated that there is nothing particular the matter with the custom service, but Reynolds thinks it wise to look into things personally, so that officials can keep the service at the highest state of efficiency.

MORE BONDS FOR OUTFALL.

Not Enough Money Yet to Build to Sea.

Fox Springs Surprise With the Lowest Bid.

Boyle Heights Taxpayers Almost in Revolt.

Another issue of bonds must be voted before the city can finish the outfall sewer. The lowest bids received yesterday for completing the tunnel section alone contemplates the expenditure of $350,000. It will cost at least $75,000 to finish the other sections. There is but $295,000 in the outfall sewer construction fund.

This will be the third issue of bonds for the outfall. In 1903 the city voted $1,000,000 in bonds to build the outfall to the ocean and main laterals inside the city. Seven hundred thousand dollars was to be expended on the outfall proper and $300,000 on the main laterals.

Last spring the taxpayers voted another $287,000 for the main laterals, and the original fund is still many thousands short of the amount necessary to build the big conduit from the city to the sea.

Taxpayers of Boyle Heights are in almost open revolt because the $150,000 voted to build a main lateral in that section has been expended—they say squandered—elsewhere. A committee has been appointed to examine the records in the auditor's office to ascertain what has become of Boyle Heights's share of the sewer bond fund.

FOX SPRINGS SURPRISE.

"Col." E. R. Fox sprung a genuine surprise on the City Hall yesterday by submitting the lowest bid for completing the tunnel section of the malodrous outfall sewer. His offer of $265,000 is $29,000 lower than that of the next lowest bidder.

For several years Fox has been an eccentric character about the City Hall and the Courthouse. There has been little time during the last three administrations that he has not been engaged in some kind of a lawsuit in which the city was an interested party, but he has never before figured as a sewer expert.

Three bids were received for completing the tunnel, as follows:

Atlantic Gulf and Pacific Company proposed: $333,000 for doing all work and furnishing all materials required by the contract, plans and specifications, for the completion of said portion of section No. 3. For timber, for work required by the city and ordered in writing, but not called for nor shown in the contract, plans and specifications, the price of $12.50 per thousand feet—according to advertisement.

E. C. Alsop proposed: $294,450 for doing all work and furnishing all material required by the contract, plans and specifications, for the completion of said portion of section No. 3. For timber, for work required by the city and ordered in writing, but not called for nor shown in the contract, plans and specifications, the price of $12.50 per thousand feet—according to advertisement.

E. R. Fox proposed: $265,000 for doing all work and furnishing all material required by the contract, plans and specifications, for the completion of said portion of section No. 3. For timber, for work required by the city and ordered in writing, but not called for nor shown in the contract, plans and specifications, the price of $30 per thousand feet.

In making his bid Fox crossed his pen through the part of the specifications calling for lumber at $12.50 a foot and substituted $30 a foot. This raised a question as to whether the bid is regular, and whether it is really lower than that of E. C. Alsop.

The board referred the bids to City Engineer Hamlin, and he promptly reported back that Fox's bid of $265,000, with lumber at $30 a foot, is lowest.

FORTY FEET DAY, SAYS FOX.

"I can push that tunnel section forward at he rate of forty feet a day," asserted "Col." Fox, after the bids had been referred to the City Engineer. "I believe that I am the only sewer expert in Los Angeles."

Here he drew a long breath, swelled with becoming dignity and announced that "six years ago the Mexican government paid me $5000 for a suggestion that made it possible to finish the drainage outlet from the City of Mexico.

"I am not bidding blindly on this contract. I have looked the ground over carefully and studied the problem a long time.

"It will take me about thirty days to get to work. After I start I shall push the tunnel along at the rate of forty feet a day, and finish it within six months."

Some incredulity was expressed at the City Hall when it was announced that Fox's bid was the lowest. But doubters were silenced by a sight of a surety bond for considerably more than the minimum required by law.

Commissioners of the board declined to make any statement last night as to whether they will award the contract to Fox. Their hesitation is not due to any doubt as to the low bidder's responsibility, but to the fact that since the advertisement for bids was ordered a tentative offer to build the tunnel by the foot has been received.

LOWER TENTATIVE OFFER.

This offer is from a local tunnel expert. It totals about $50,000 less than the offer made by Fox. The board has jurisdiction to reject all bids.

Offers made for constructing the tunnel do not include the cost of brick, cement and lumber to be used. These extras will bring the total cost of finishing the tunnel alone to at least $350,000, and it will reuire another $75,000 to finish the other incompleted sections.

Stansbury & Powell, the defaulting sewer contractors, received $333,000 for the work they performed under their contract, and several thousand more for hauling, extras and lumber.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

Interesting Plans Made for Its Success. Prominent Educators to Attend the Sessions.

VENTURA, Nov. 19.—Extensive arrangements are being made by Superintendent of Schools Sackett for the next County Teachers' Institute, which is to begin in this city on Monday morning next and continue until Wednesday evening. The sessions will be held at the Methodist Church.

This is the last institute to be held under the direction of the present superintendent, who retires from office at the end of the present year.

Among the prominent educators who will take part are Prof. P. W. Kauffman, Superintendent of Pomona Schools; Edward Hyatt, Superintendent of Riverside county and Superintendent-elect of the State; Prof. Sozzalo of Stanford, and Miss Jane Brownlee of Toledo, O. Special features for the week include a reception Monday for the visitors and a musicale.

VENTURA NOTES.

Otis T. Whiting, formerly of this city, has purchased a home in Santa Ana.

Marshal Russell departed this morning on a visit of two weeks to his borax mines in the Frazer Mountain country. He has recently uncovered some rich borax ledges and is preparing to work his mines extensively.

DOCTOR CRAPSEY IS SUSPENDED.

ECCLESIASTICAL COURT MAKES ORDER PUBLIC.

He Is Placed Outside Pale of Protestant Episcopal Church Until He Retracts His Denial of the Virgin Birth of Christ and Other Opinions Held to Be Heretical by Final Tribunal.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BUFFALO, Nov. 19.—The Rev. Dr. A. S. Crapsey of St. Andrews' Episcopal, Rochester, is condemned to suspension from the church as a result of the decision of the ecclesiastical court of review which is made public today. The court of review sustained the decision of the lower court, which was that Dr. Crapsey should be suspended for heretical teachings. The announcement of the decision is as follows:

"The court of review has affirmed unanimously the decision of the lower court in the case of Rev. Algernon S. Crapsey, D.D."

The Crapsey case has attracted wide attention since the publication of Dr. Crapsey's book of "Religion and Politics" and since then he has preached a number of sermons in which it is charged he taught doctrines which were contrary to the faith of the Protestant Episcopal church.

BANK OFFICIALS IN CONSPIRACY.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA GRAND JURY INDICTS THREE.

Unlawful Procuring of Charters and False Pretenses Charged — Certificates of Deposit Complained of as False—Woman Arrested and a Fourth Man Ignored.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CONSPIRACY IS THE CHARGE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The grand jury of the District of Columbia today returned an indictment against Abner B. Clements, former cashier of the Aetna Banking and Trust Company of Butte, Mont.; John T. Hoag, assistant cashier of the same institution, in charge of the Washington branch, and Eveleth W. McCormick of this city for conspiracy. A separate indictment charging false pretenses was returned against John T. Hoag only.

The indictment charges conspiracy by unlawfully procuring in the District of Columbia charters for corporations and obtaining charters in the United States by false pretenses.

The grand jury ignored charges against R. S. Donaldson and Miss B. E. T. Kretchmann of this city, who were arrested in connection with the same general charge.

HANDED OUT CERTIFICATES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The charge in the indictments against Clements, Hoag and McCormick is that whenever McCormick, who, it is alleged, was engaged in the business of organizing corporations, desired to file with the Recorder of Deeds a certificate of organization of any company, and it became necessary for him to prove to the Recorder that 10 per cent. of the capital stock had been actually paid, Hoag, the assistant cashier of the Aetna Banking and Trust Company, would give McCormick an alleged false certificate that there was then on deposit with that bank a sum equal to 10 per cent. of the capital stock of the proposed company.

It is then alleged that McCormick would exhibit this certificate of deposit to the Recorder of Deeds as evidence that the provision of the law had been compiled with, when, it is alleged, as a matter of fact, no money had been deposited by McCormick or his associates.

Among the overt acts set forth in the indictment are letters passing between the men which embody the alleged plan formed by the defendants.

WHAT WORD'S "PEAC□Y'S"?

out into the street, muttering happily—in a sort of transport of rapture—"Tenk you; tenk you."

The recklessness of the superb Matilde Compofiore with the English dialect is fearful to contemplate. She does it like a hurdle racer; whenever she comes to a word she doesn't know, she gives a reckless wave of the hand to fill the gap and jumps to the next, dragging you along with her. The luscious Compofiore has adopted something else from American life—tight-laced corsets. She is very proud of them. She gets herself cinched in like an hour glass and takes a running start and a mad leap into the Dominant Tounge and this damsel is about as peachy as Adaberto.

Like Adaberto and Salvaneschi, Comofiore is a great swell and stays at a hotel where the bellboy hands back the fee and advises you to save for a rainy day if you give him less than $1.

DIALECT OF SHRUGS.

Chevalier Fulgencio Guerriere, who condescends with all that name to direct the orchestra, has an international dialect of shrugs and two very fine English words, "All right." As the orchestra at rehearsal usually isn't all right, according to his notions, he has to keep his precious twins of words alive by artificial means.

He and the orchestra understand one another without words. When he wheels with the anguish of a man being stabbed and glares reproachfully to the right, the snare drummer hangs his head and looks frightened. When his baton falls with a bang and he seems to be going into a fit, the piccolo players look for a hole in the fence.

When he suddenly says "la, la la" and trills like a prima donna, they know it's going pretty fine. When Guerriere breathes out a magnificent "Aw right," they realize that he has given the best of his heart, and they have hit the bullseye.

After he has dismissed the players and comes out with the score he goes among the coterie who are furiously exchanging English words.

"Aw right," he says, patting one on the shoulder. He goes into a crowd beaming and looking important. When a gap comes into the conversation no one being able to find a place for his English words, Guerriere observes thoughtfully "Aw right;" at which every one else stares with admiration.

HE BOWS INSTEAD.

Filippo D'Ottavi, that regal little Italian, is one of the few who have not yet tried any plunges into the dialect of the country. D'Ottavi bows instead. He can make a bow that is a poem. He can make a bow that says "Yes sir." "No sir." "Thank you, ma'am," and "Oh sude."

Signor D'Ottavi stands around listening to the others with the veins bulging out in their foreheads, trying frantically to make English sounds, and when it seems in his place to say something, he makes a ponderous, regal bow.

The latest bulletin from the seat of war comes from the woman harpist, who is a great friend of the tenor.

Usually she talks to you excitedly in five languages, as though the lack of French, German, Italian and Arabian and Spanish were a physical and moral shortcoming out of which you might be bewildered if the language were shot at you rapidly enough. She never tried English. Ah, that was what they thought—crafty harpist!

Yesterday she sat listening to the English fest with a quiet and superior smile. She caressed the furs of the other women with the air of a victorious politician shaking hands with a defeated candidate. She only sat there and smiled and smiled until all were ready to go, when she staggered the whole outfit and turned them green in the face with envy.

As they parted she held out her dainty gloved hand to the American and said, with triumph, "Goo' bye."

SUNDAYY HOLD-UP CASE.

Following Deputy Constable Smith's Arrest, Another Man Is Captured by Police.

Charles S. Barrell was arrested last night on the charge of attempting to rob S. Mahoney of No. 415 Crocker street, Sunday morning. As a sequel to the arrest of Deputy Constable H. A. Smith, at the time of the alleged hold-up, came the arrest of Barrell. Within the next twenty-four hours the police expect to have a third man, who is said to have been implicated with Smith.

Three shots fired in rapid succession in the vicinity of Fourth and Crocker streets attracted the attention of an officer, who was at Fifth and San Pedro streets. When the policeman ran around the corner from Fifth street on to Crocker street, he saw Smith lying in the gutter and Mahoney huddled in the doorway of the General and Emergency Hospital, holding a revolver.

The policeman arrested Smith and Mahoney on suspicion and heard both men's stories of the shooting. After an investigation the policeman decided that Mahoney was an innocent party and subsequent probing of the case has verified the first impression, the police say.

Why deposit your money in savings banks at 3 per cent. interest when you can just as well earn 6 per cent. by depositing it with the Continental Building and Loan Association of San Francisco? A bank which is as sound as the rock of Gibraltar.

A CURE
Is What You Want

Others may TREAT but We Cure

You must come to us sooner or later. Why not now? Refuse to suffer longer on promises of others.

Our Best Reference is Not a Dollar Need be Paid Until Cured.

There are so many men suffering from chronic Pelvic diseases, and the greater number of these victims are still more unfortunate in treating with doctors who know only enough to produce temporary results, or a false cure, if they succeed in benefiting the sufferer at all. There is no such thing as a partial cure of a disease, and the physician whose method does not eradicate every vestige cannot rightfully claim to do more than relieve. Our Pelvic Methods Insure Every Man

A life-long cure for prostatic troubles, varicocele, kidney and bladder, blood poison, special diseases.

Our cure is a thorough and scientific course of treatment, which acts at once upon the nerve force, stopping the drain and replacing the worn-out and run-down tissues. It increases the weight in sound, healthy flesh and muscles that give strength and fills the brain and nerves with fresh vitality, building up the entire system and transforming the sufferer into a type of perfect manhood. If you cannot call, write for symptom blanks.

DR. TAYLOR
The Leading Specialist

I do not appeal especially to the man seeking the cheapest cure in asking such a low fee as $10 for the cure of any uncomplicated case of Male Disorders, but I want to reach all men who object to paying the exorbitant fees heretofore charged by specialists. My methods insure quick results, or I would have to charge more for my time. The outcome in every case undertaken is certain or I could not hold out the proposition to effect the cure before asking the fee.

Every Promise Fulfilled

I could not continue in business year after year—treating thousands of cases annually—with my business integrity absolutely unimpeached, unless I carried out to the letter every promise made my patients. I am careful never to undertake cases that have gone beyond help. I do not charge for the first examination of patients, and always determine to my absolute satisfaction that health and strength can be restored in every case. Then I bring every advantage of my 25 years' study and experience into action to clear that man of disease, to undo the injury of excesses or abuse, and build up the latent forces which have run down.

Men and Men Only

My practice is limited to the disorders of the male, and is further confined to those special and chronic affections of the pelvic tract. These include Lost Vitality, Varicocele, Stricture, Hydrocele, Contracted Disorders, Contagious Blood Poison, Bladder and Kidney Diseases. I have taken up these ailments especially, because thousands of lives are ruined and thousands of men are not what they should be, because they are held down by chronic weakness, which the average practicing physician does not understand and usually tries to make light of by telling the patient that nature will soon repair the waste. But the drains continue until the vital force is sapped from the body and both the mental and physical structures of the body collapse.

I Have the Help You Need

I find the cause of the trouble first, and direct treatment to that always. My aim is never to hide the symptoms, but to cure the ailment completely and thoroughly. My success is based on these methods, which must sooner or later be applied to your case.

Call on Me Today

For a plain private talk. In consulting me you will be asked no inconsequent or embarrassing questions. All information given you will have a direct and vital bearing on your symptoms are not serious. I will tell you so. If treatment is needed, I will explain its action and tell you the probable time required for the cure. I will not urge my services upon you. If you are lacking in strength, no one knows what the cure would mean to you better than yourself.

I have the finest equipped offices in the West. Every member of my staff is a graduate, licensed physician. If you cannot call, write me and I will give your case personal attention and will respect your privacy by using only plain sealed envelope.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

MISS KATHERINE CHURCH,
Texas girl, and niece of Dr. B. F. Church of this city, whose engagement to T. J. Carmody of Texas is announced.

HAT beautiful Miss Katherine Church, niece of Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Church of this city is soon to be the bride of T. J. Carmody, of New York City, will be news to her friends here.

The news was but recently made known to Miss Church's friends in her former home in Corsicana, Tex., and the wedding is to take place on the 29th inst. The fortunate groom-to-be is a wealthy New Yorker and has large interests in Texas. Miss Church will be remembered as the charming beauty who, while the guest of her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Church on Alvarado street, was the recipient of so much entertaining here. She was much admired; her violet eyes, fluffy hair, made her an ideal type of the Southern aristocrat. The engagement was made known to the bride's friends at a handsome party at which scores were present. Pink and white slippers with grains of rice were used in each progression.

—o—

Miss Hicks's Dinner.

The bright young guests were given a sumptuous board last evening at the handsome dinner given at Van Nuys by Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCarthy of Redondo, in honor of their guest Adelaide Brown, one of the season's young brides-elect.

It was indeed a royal feast that was spread, fit for any bridal feast it would be. A great round table shining with linen and silver, held in the center a huge round mound of beauty roses and maiden-hair ferns and from this were strewn in careless forms, single roses and the maiden-hair ferns. Among these twinkled the candle lights; tiny ones, shimmering like diamonds in the leaves, with ribbons and bows completed the pretty effect. At each place were dainty roses of palest pink, with bon-bons and place cards of hand-painted affairs. Tiny automobiles and trunks were other souvenirs of the approaching journey. Over the table were toys, suggesting the approaching nuptials in front of Miss Brown was a miniature stove and cooking utensils and sailing around the table was an automobile, with Miss Brown and Mr. Sydney I. Wailes, her fiance, seated on the back seat. There were so many other funny things, and Miss Brown at the end of the evening was showered with rice. This was an extremely unusual, for the rice was confined to the dainty souvenir rose buds and pinks, which were tied with white ribbons and when a button was pulled the rice came out, showering the bride-to-be.

Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy and Miss Brown were laid for; Mrs. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Hancock and Misses Erroll Brown of Texas, Louise Burke, Nina Jones, Edna Ines Clark, Anne Patterson Havens, and Messrs. H. Hancock, Henry Van Dyke, Norman Volney Howard, Carleton Downey Newlin, Leo Chandler Bowers and Capt. William Banning.

Bridehall Is Hostess.

Tuesday afternoon, Monday, Musalia club members enjoyed one of the delightful programmes for some time, the hostess being the guests of Miss Clara Bridehall at her home, No. 1866 West Adams street. There were few guests present, as all the members were present. Tuesday afternoon. Miss Fanny Bridehall was the special guest of the afternoon, delighted the guests with a number, a Cradle Song and Lullaby, both of her own composition. Miss Helen Tappe sang "Hindo Stan" (Woodberg) and "My Nightingale" (Lynn). The violin duets by Miss Clara Clark and Miss Mary Bridehall, accompanied by Miss Clara Bridehall, were especially enjoyable and were rendered. Mrs. L. F. Dooley sang "When I Loved," (Hawley) and Miss Gertrude Cohen played "Traumerei" and a Schumann number. Miss Dooley rendered. Mrs. Bonnell, who is the possessor of a beautiful soprano sang "In the Garden" (Conner,) and a German song. Mrs. Bridehall, who is one of the best pianists of the city gave the Schumann number as her part of the programme.

—o—

Guests Return.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen W. Dorsey of Figueroa street, have returned again after a most delightful sojourn in England. They spent most of their time in London, where they enjoyed many motor trips to different parts of the pretty country. Mrs. Dorsey has brought with her her friend, Miss Maude Bell of London, who will remain for the winter as the Dorseys' guest.

—o—

Mrs. Howland's Party.

Mrs. Charles T. Howland of No. 1 Grand boulevard, has issued invitations for a card party to be given on Wednesday afternoon, November 28, in compliment to her young niece, Miss Margaret Woollacott, who is one of the charming debutantes of the season.

—o—

Kappa Alpha Theta Party.

The members of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority entertained delightfully on Saturday afternoon with a tea at the home of Miss Beatrice Fox at No. 1660 Rockwood street, in honor of Mrs. E. F. Garrettson, a member of the sorority.

The affair was a sort of interfraternity affair, given by the Iota Chapter of the alumna of the sorority and other sorority members assisted. Red carnations and ferns decorated the dining-room artistically, and chrysanthemums of different shades were used in the different rooms. Mrs. J. B. Lippincott and Mrs. Tom McCrea presided in the dining-room over the coffee and chocolate urns. Receiving with Miss Fox were Miss Ida B. Lindley, and Mrs. Garrettson, and assisting were Miss Rose Smith of Delta Gamma, Mrs. W. S. Coate of Delta Delta Delta, Miss Edith Furrey of Gamma Phi Beta, Miss May Kimball of Kappa Kappa Gamma, Miss Marion Hamilton of Phi Beta Phi, Miss Cynthia Fay of Alpha Phi, and the following members of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority; Mmes. Homer Laughlin, Jr., W. T. S. Hammond, Charles H. Lippincott, Lawrence Ellis, J. E. Coffin, and Misses May Graham, Dorothy Nourse, Maude Philips, Edith Jordan, Katherine Clover, Hazel and Ethel Traphagen, Ada Heineman, Jessie McFarland, Clara Smith, Grace Lavayea, Sue Barnwell, Zella Fay, Ethel Bent, Helen Shields and Edith Hill.

For Misses Bluett.

In honor of the Misses Ruth and Margaret Bluett, who are soon to move from the Garvanza neighborhood, Miss Dorothy eBatty of No. 429 West Avenue 54, willy entertain this afternoon from 3 until 8 o'clock, with a party and supper. Toasting marshmallows, advertising games and music will make the time pass all too quickly for the young misses. The supper table will be adorned with red and green deckings and places will be marked with hand-painted cards.

—o—

Sunday Wedding.

At the home of John J. Schuss of No. 1231 East Forty-seventh street, Miss Rose Schuss, daughter of the host, became the bride of Jacob Goldman of Toronto, Canada, with Rabbi Berman officiating. The wedding music was played by the Schuss trio. The bride was attired in pale blue silk, with knife-pleatings of chiffon, and carried a large bouquet of bride roses. After the ceremony five tables were spread and about this the guests seated themselves to a feast. Mr. and Mrs. Goldman are spending their honeymoon at San Pedro, and after that will make their home here.

—o—

Miss Crandall Home.

Miss Marian Crandall has returned from a most enjoyable six months eastern trip and is again at home with her mother, Mrs. C. A. McLaughlin of Arapahoe street. Miss Bess Arnold of Galesburg, Ill. returned with her and will spend the winter here.

—o—

For Mrs. Chaffee.

Mrs. William M. Lewis of No. 3016 South Figueroa street, was hostess recently at an informal luncheon given for Mrs. Adna R. Chaffee, guests including old friends, who were here at the time she was years ago. Covers were laid for; Mmes. W. T. Johnston, William L. Graves, Rufus H. Herron, John H. Norton, Charles Anthony, Frank Burnett, W. D. Woolwine and E. W. Britt.

—o—

Miss Bent Here.

Miss Elsa Bent, a popular member of the Lambda Theta Phi Sorority and grand president of the organization, is visiting in Los Angeles, and is at present the guest of Mrs. E. A. Garrettson, formerly Miss Marion Whipple, in Hollywood.

—o—

Miss Sinclair Engaged.

Last evening Miss Lulu Cliff and Miss Clara Parmalee entertained at No. 2707 La Salle avenue, with a jolly party to Alpha Rho Sorority members, at which the engagement of Miss Daisy Sinclair, daughetr of John Sinclair, was announced to George Baird.

Miss Sinclair is a popular member of the Alpha Rho Sorority and graduated last year from the College of Oratory of the U.S.C. Mr. Baird is a member of the Baird Park Improvement Company and of the Jonathan Club and both have lived here in Los Angeles for the past ten years.

The home, where the affair took place was decorated with a profusion of chrysanthemums and in the dining-room, yellow and green the sorority colors were exemplified. Early in the evening a little farce was presented, which gave a sort of presentation of the life of Miss Sinclair during her school days. Those who took part in this were: Misses Clara Turner, Katherine Brady, Eva Smith, Sarah Miller, Clara Parmalee and Lulu Cliff. Then the young people enjoyed an elaborate spread and it was here that the announcement was made. A huge cluster of chrysanthemums decorated the center of the table and above a basket hung, from which tiny heart shaped cards with silhouettes on them were drawn by means of ribbons to each place. There were tiny yellow tapers at each place, and by heating the cards, the initials beneath the silhouettes came out thus disclosing the identity of the fiancé. Miss Sinclair was showered with rice and congratulations by her enthusiastic sorority sisters. Beside Miss Sinclair and the hostesses, those present were: Misses Emma Smith, Kate Adkinson, Edith Holder, Mabel Poindexter, Adele Holder, Lucille Zander, Adelaide Ball, Ruth Brown, Sarah Miller, Edna Best, Lulu Malone, Claribelle Gordon, Beatrice Boome, Belle Hart, Mabel St. John, Katherine Brady, Clara Turner, Blanche Guiberson, Bess Gibson, Frances Thomson, Anne Bannister, Margaret Wall, Dora Heffner, Mabel Rosebury, Miriam Cook, Blanche Kelm and Florence Halderman.

Miss Hicks Is Feature.

The Ala sorority were entertained pleasantly at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Van Degrift of No. 830 Kensington Road. A feature of the evening was the musical programme presented under the direction of Miss Ola M. Hicks, a talented southern woman. Miss Hicks sang Eckert's "Swiss Echo Song," with fine effect, and her voice is a splendid soprano of the light quality, showing particularly well in the effective Swiss song. Miss Elizabeth Walker gave great pleasure with "Sweetheart, Sigh no More," and Miss Bessie Abbott's rendition of a number of selections, including De Koven's "Rosalie." Mr. Hanahan also contributed violin music. Later dainty refreshments were served.

—o—

For Miss Patton.

Mrs. G. M. Purcell gave a luncheon for Miss Anne Patton, at the San Gabriel Country Club on Saturday. Fourteen buds sat down to a beautifully-dec-

—o—

Miss Totty Honored.

Many pleasant functions are being planned in honor of Miss Effie Totty, whose engagement to Myron Wolcott, was recently announced. Mrs. J. A. Firebaugh, sister of the young bride-elect, gave a package shower for her recently, and on Friday afternoon, Mrs. Henry Koch of South Hancock street, was hostess at a handkerchief shower, given for this same bride-to-be.

This week Miss Eva Karnahan is planning a theater party for her, and there are numerous other affairs to take place before the holidays.

—o—

Former Resident Here.

Mrs. Charlton J. Hall of Seattle, Wash., formerly of Los Angeles, arrived in this city last week on a visit to her mother, Mrs. B. A. Platt and sister, Mrs. E. E. Lefebvre at the home of the latter, No. 2203 West Twenty-first street, where the ladies will receive their friends on Wednesdays.

—o—

Mrs. Langworthy Surprised.

On Monday evening a party of twenty friends gave Mrs. Elsie Langworthy a surprise in honor of her twenty-fifth birthday anniversary. The affair was a complete surprise, and each guest presented the honoré with a huge cluster of sweet flowers. Later they gave her a handsome gold locket and chain. The remainder of the evening was spent in games, music and refreshments.

—o—

Galliher Ruiz Nuptials.

Yesterday Justice Pierce united in marriage Chauncey H. Galliher and Mrs. Frances Ruiz, both of this city. The bride, becomingly attired, was attended by Mrs. John C. Galliher, while Joseph A. Lindsey was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Galliher will reside at Oak Knoll, near Pasadena.

At Vista Del Mar.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hughes of this city entertained Mayor Owen McAleer and party of eight automobilists over Saturday and Sunday at their country home at Vista Del Mar, The Palms.

—o—

Colonial Dames Meet.

The Colonial Dames had the first meeting of the year on Monday at the Angeles Hotel, and it was arranged to meet once a month at entertainments to be given by each member in turn. These Colonial Dames are not confined to the California members, but all States are represented. Mrs. Frank Ogilvy-Wood, Alhambra, Cal., will be glad to have the names and addresses ton of South Almasor street.

—o—

Notes and Personals.

Miss Elizabeth Oliver of Hotel Crestholme, has returned from a three months and a half trip north, visiting Seattle, Portland, Tacoma and coming home by way of Berkeley.

Mrs. Mary Walsh of No. 1215 South Hill street has removed to No. 458 Second street, Santa Monica, where she will make her home for the present.

Mrs. Uldrick Joseph Marchand and her father, Dr. McDonald, have taken apartments at Hotel Coronado for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Le Sutor are now occupying their new residence at No. 1816 Arlington avenue, where Mrs. Sutor will be at home on the first Fridays.

Mrs. L. L. Taggart of Skillman Valley, Ill., formerly of Los Angeles is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. B. Brown of No. 538 West Fortieth street.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Tyler of No. 1713 Oxford avenue entertained the members of the Harvard Heights Whist Club one evening recently.

Mrs. A. C. Wilson of No. 2340 Thompson street has returned from an extended trip East, and is now at home to her friends.

Mrs. Fred C. Howes has just returned from a week spent with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dow at Riverside.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bolton have returned to their home, No. 1245 West Adams street, after two months most delightfully visiting in the principal cities of the East and in Southern Canada.

Mrs. Boardman Reed of South Granada street, Alhambra, will receive on Fridays, as does also Mrs. J. P. Lawton of Almansor street.

Mrs. Franc Ogilvy-Wood has organized a bridge club, which meets on Saturday nights at the San Gabriel Country Club, and is most successful.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

District Convention.

Coming events are casting their shadows before in clubdom, the approaching district convention bringing club women from several quarters to be present at the sessions.

On Sunday Mrs. Robert Potter Hill arrived from the North, and was greeted in her room at the Van Nuys with a glory of California flowers as a welcome from the district president, Mrs. Oliver C. Bryant. Yesterday Mrs. Hill presided at an all-day meeting of the State executive board at the Friday Morning Clubhouse. Those present were: Mrs. Oliver C. Bryant, head of the Los Angeles district; Mrs. Josiah E. Cowles, State secretary for the general federation; Mrs. Sydney J. Parsons, State chairman for the distribution of traveling libraries; Mrs. P. Gregory Cotter, State chairman of art; Mrs. N. K. Potter, State treasurer, and Mrs. Katherine Rardon, State chairman of reciprocity.

Matters of general interest were discussed at this closed session, the State president winning all the women present by her broad knowledge of the many sides of clubdom in California, by her sound good sense and gracious bearing, the verdict being that she is the right woman in the right place.

Mrs. Hill had interesting stories to tell the State officers in regard to the heroic way in which club women of San Francisco have borne their trials since the disaster. The policeman of South Gate Park, where many families have been living in tents and all sorts of temporary abodes, informed Mrs. Hill with all the pardonable pride of the club woman that the members of the South Gate Club had taken such care of their families that he never had to give a thought to their children; they took care of them themselves.

The meeting of the State Federation of Women's Clubs will be held in Bakersfield in February and many details of the convention were discussed at the meeting. The convention will be held, it was decided, in the Methodist Church in Bakersfield, this building being especially adapted to the needs of such a body, with plenty of committee rooms. The Congregational Church across the street has been offered to the federation for overflow meetings, if necessary.

—o—

Today's Programme.

A luncheon will be given today by the Los Angeles District Federation to Mrs. Robert Potter Hill, and the State and district officers, the guests to include the presidents of all the federated clubs in the district. Mrs. P. G. Hubert as president of the hostess club will act as toastmistress for the occasion.

At 3.30 this afternoon a council of presidents will be held at the Ebell Clubhouse, when the following questions will be discussed: "The Altruistic Side of Federation," "Fraternities and Sororities in High Schools," "How Can the Year-Book be Made Helpful?" "The Advisability of Holding the State Convention in May," and "Free Text-Books in the Public Schools."

This evening at the Ebell Club the reception recital will be tendered Mrs. Hill and the District Federation. Mrs. W. D. Turner, the talented and temperamental ex-president of the Pasadena Shakespeare Club, will give a number of readings.

—o—

Quaint Nuremburg.

One of the best audiences of the year at the Ebell Club greeted Mrs. Adams-Fisher, who lectured on "Quaint Nuremburg, the Ancient," yesterday afternoon. The lecture was replete with delightful anecdotes and storied tales of absorbing interest, the fine pictures of this quaint old place rounding out a rarely instructive and entertaining afternoon.

Brings Entire Staff of Servants for Pasadena Hotel—His Wife Accompanies Him.

A. W. Hodgdon, who will manage the Hotel Raymond of Pasadena, has arrived in this city, accompanied by Mrs. Hodgson. He has for years been the manager of the Samoset House, which is run in conjunction with the Poland Springs House at Poland Springs, Me., and was at one time connected with the Waldorf-Astoria in New York.

Mr. Hodgson has brought with him his entire staff of servants for the Raymond. He will manage this hotel during the winter months and will return East in time to open the Samoset House for summer visitors to the New England coast.

GOING TO THE CRACKERJACK.

On Friday night a party of Los Angeles people will leave in a special car on the Santa Fé as the guests of the R. D. Robinson Company, on a four-day visit to Crackerjack, the new mining district in San Bernardino county. At Ludlow the car will be taken by a special engine over the construction line of the "Borax" Smith Railroad to Silver Lake, where stages will be in waiting to convey the party to the new townsite, fourteen miles distant. In the party will be E. H. Meuschke, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Devereux, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Fowler, A. J. Charbonneau, Dr. F. J. Raven, Charles Cassatt Davis, Ross M. Russell, J. H. Ruff, Mrs. Elizabeth Meekes, A. H. Schlieblitz, Dr. U. V. Withee, L. A. W. Johnson, S. D. Helm and R. D. Robinson.

CURABILITY OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE

By the Editor of the Town and Country Journal.)

Personally I have not believed that chronic Bright's Disease is curable, and this for two distinct reasons:

First—Medical works class it as incurable and fatal.

Second—Those I have known who had it have died.

Result—I look with distrust upon all claims of alleged specifics.

During my recent visit to San Francisco I heard the president of the Pacific States Type Foundry claim that chronic Bright's Disease now was as curable as la grippe. I said I would like to believe it.

He took me in hand. The statements of hundreds were exhibited to me—many were sworn anevelons that they had been sworn to and sealed by notaries.

I then manifested a desire to see some of the parties themselves. The recoveries have been so numerous in San Francisco that we did not have to go four blocks in any one direction.

In five minutes we were in the presence of one of the best-known merchants in the city. Has been in business on the same spot fifty-one years. He said he had had both Bright's Disease and Diabetes and had been given up, but had completely recovered. Said he knew many others who had recovered. Gave it as his belief that eight-tenths of all cases were curable under the new specific. We next called on one of the big insurance men on California street. He said his son was swollen with dropsy from Bright's Disease and his death was daily expected when he was put on the treatment. He is now an athlete.

We called on the editor of one of San Francisco's great dailies who had a physician test it out in his own (the physician's) case, the latter being a hopeless diabetic. In six months he was well. The head of another large insurance company on Montgomery street was next seen—he was in bed in November last in a critical condition due to chronic Bright's Disease. He was well and in his office and also told of a friend of his who was in convulsions when put on the treatment and was now out on the street. We went to the office of an ex-Supreme Judge and also another editor, both of whom had recovered.

I declined to go further. Although there were hundreds more to see, it was useless. If human testimony from the very best people is worth anything, the books are wrong, and chronic Bright's Disease and Diabetes, even in extreme cases, are positively curable. Ethics ought not to be permitted to obscure this discovery, and in the interest of those readers of this paper whose homes may have one of these blights upon it, I now declare the facts and will see that any of them desiring it may be sent full literature. The name of the discovery should be stated. It is known as Fulton's Compound.

Many broad physicians are using the new diuretic, but in view of the terrific annual death list in the United States from Bright's Disease (nearly 30,000) the fact that medical ethics prevent them from proclaiming the discovery to the world, because the formula is the personal property of individuals, in this instance practically amounts to a public calamity.—Town and Country Journal, San Jose, Cal., July number, 1906.

If anyone having knowledge of a case of Bright's Disease or Diabetes will send us the name and address we will see that they are sent full literature concerning this remarkable discovery.

HEROIC MOTHER STILL ALIVE.

MRS. WILLARD AT HOSPITAL IN CRITICAL CONDITION.

In Saving Daughter From Blazing House She Receives Terrible Burns. Other Narrow Escapes at Monday Morning Fire—Starts From Gas Jet Left Burning.

Fire which swept through the Belle Claire rooming-house, No. 722 South Hill street, yesterday morning, will probably claim Mrs. Louisa Willard as its victim. At the risk of her life the brave woman dashed into the flame and smoke and rescued her daughter, but she received frightful burns about the head, face and body.

Mrs. Rosa Kady only escaped by her coolness. Her room was encircled with fire, the flames even beginning to scorch her face. She did not open her door, but remained at an open window until rescued, just as the fire burst into the room.

Miss Lattie Baughtman also had a narrow escape. Her bed was in flames before she was aware of the fire and she fled in her night clothes.

Soon after 4 o'clock the landlady, Mrs. Annie Jones, discovered flames in a rear room and at once aroused the lodgers. From room to room she went, sounding the alarm, while the flames gained headway, until when the department arrived, the house was ablaze.

Mrs. Willard, who had rushed from her room near the head of the stairs, began calling for her daughter, Stella, who could not be found. Then the frightened mother realized that she had not seen her daughter escape with the other guests and she dashed into the burning house. Up the stairs she flew and in the blinding smoke, missed the door of her room and went far down the hall. She was compelled to return and at last found the right door. She discovered her daughter almost suffocated in a closet where she had gone in her bewilderment, thinking the door would lead her to safety. She would have been burned to death had not the mother wrapped a blanket about her and led her to safety.

When Mrs. Willard emerged from the burning house, all her hair had been burned from her head and her face was a mass of blisters. She was taken to the Receiving Hospital and later was removed to the Sisters' Hospital, where she lingers between life and death. At midnight she was still alive.

The house is damaged to the amount of nearly $1000. The flames wrought havoc with the furnishings and all the upper floor and rear of the house is destroyed. The fire started from a gas jet, left burning in the rear room.

Strange Bedfellows.

M. L. Smyser (Rep.) and W. A. Ashbrooke (Dem.) rival candidates for Congress in the Seventeenth Ohio District, had an experience a few days ago which literally proved the truth of the old saying that "politics makes strange bedfellows." They happened to be at Canal Dover the same night, and as the hotels were full the two were compelled to occupy the same bed. The hotel clerk arranged matters, not knowing they were rival candidates.

BULLET ENDS "BLIND PIG."

"King of the Slavs" Shot by a Patrolman.

John Vusich Aims Revolver. Amman Kills Him.

Tragedy in a Secret Bar of Austrian Hotel.

John Vusich, "king of the Slavs," was shot to death by Patrolman L. J. Amman, whom he tried to kill, while under arrest early yesterday afternoon. Vusich was killed in his "blind pig," No. 452 San Fernando street, after he had first tried bribery and then desperate resistance, to prevent Amman and Patrolman W. C. Pursell from taking him to the Central Station on a charge of illegal liquor selling. When Amman fired the prisoner was holding a loaded revolver at the officer. And at that same moment his brother, C. Vusich, was standing behind Pursell, a hammer in his hand, about to strike the latter down.

The scene of the shooting is the Austrian Hotel, known to the police as the most notorious of a dozen Slavonic and Austrian resorts which constantly sell beer and whisky in defiance of city ordinances. The dead man, a giant in stature and physique, is quoted by the police as having bragged that he would kill any officer who entered his place. The arrest came as the result of a determination on the part of the department to stop the Sunday "blind pig" traffic which has caused wholesale drunkenness and bloody fighting among Slavs and Cholos on Castellar, San Fernando and neighboring streets in the suburbs.

Amman had placed Vusich under arrest Friday and tried to bribe him and then Vusich seized a revolver which Amman took it from him. A terrific struggle followed, Amman trying to place the handcuffs on the big Slav's wrists. Amman broke a "blackjack" over Vusich's thick skull. Pursell hung back, the prisoner. His revolver fell from his pocket. Vusich reached and grasped it.

"Drop that" gun or I'll blow your brains out," cried Amman, drawing his own revolver.

"All right, go ahead," yelled Vusich, and raised Pursell's weapon, his finger on the trigger.

Amman fired. Vusich fell dead, a round hole in his left temple. It all took place in a gloomy back room in the Austrian Hotel, a room with a long pine bar and high rows of caged bottles along the walls, the inner sanctum of the "blind pig" hitherto a mystery to police visits.

Within twenty minutes the two officers had given a complete statement of the affair in the office of Acting Chief Sehler, and the report had been stenographically transcribed. By that time detectives had corroborated their statements; the police photographer had taken an interior view of the room of the tragedy, and the department stood protected against perjury by uncontroverted witnesses.

The two officers had been detailed by Captain Broadhead to collect evidence against Vusich's blind pig. Saturday night Vusich had made a trip to the place and purchased a bottle of liquor. Amman's story of what followed is this:

AMMAN'S ACCOUNT.

Amman reported at the central station at 7 o'clock this morning. The captain sent him down this forenoon to get the evidence. We went down, had dinner, and drank a bottle of beer. We ordered more liquor. Pursell took a bottle of beer and I took a bottle of whisky, according to our orders.

The bartender served us and I happened to remark that this might not be sufficient evidence. We sat around and played a game of seven-up. The proprietor came out and I said we would like a drink. Pursell said he would take whisky and I ordered beer. He drank it straight, and brought the liquor. Then I said 'Well, friend, I am sorry to say you are under arrest.' I showed my star from my pocket and spoke to him. He turned around and tears came into his eyes as he suspected this, boys. I have been good. Do let me go. I will give you all the money I have.'

Pursell took some money from his pocket. I think it was a twenty and I said: 'No you cannot buy us for a thousand.' He said: 'I have used you boys. Please let me go.' I said: 'You will have to go with us, for you were sent here for this purpose.' He said, 'Alright,' and started behind the bar.

Then began the struggle, a terrible one in a close little back room where the light came from one window. It was a giant against two men of slight build, but the giant desperate and the others determined.

Vusich seized a forty-four caliber revolver from behind the bar. Amman grappled with his wrist with one hand and with the other. He wrenched the weapon from the large man's hand. It fell to the floor.

Amman tried to get his handcuffs on Vusich's wrists and the latter threw Amman about the little room as though he were a toy. The officer drew his revolver and struck the Slav on the head three hard blows. They had no effect.

Amman threw himself on Vusich's back and the Slav shook him off. As Amman fell backward Pursell lost his revolver from his rear pocket. A climax, it seemed, to the scene end in any written account of the events succeed one another that Amman and actors can hardly understand.

Amman struggled with Amman for the weapon. Pursell rose from the floor. Then the door, a hammer uplifted in Talamantes, who gave evidence against Vusich. Clothes Police officer Amman took from the body of Vusich in the place and turned them to the station. The back of the bottles, the tattered blackboard—the dead man's head had taken from the body.

More than a dozen Vusich, the Austrian room with a bar and a few inches end.

Vusich's body was taken to the morgue, where an inquest will be held, probably today. Vusich entered the Austrian hotel in front and left by the back door. Death had come to him and his finger was still on the trigger. Pursell's weapon, his finger on the trigger, had entered Vusich's head and one bullet entered his heart. Vusich's weapon was found in his pockets were found in his pockets, some cartridges and a bill.

Both Pursell and Amman are officers on the force, Pursell a veteran of the Philippine insurrections and Amman of the United States army campaigns. Pursell lives at 1245 and about Los Angeles street, and Amman at 1816 Arlington avenue. Pursell is married and has a child. Amman is single.

Vusich was known to the police as the "king of the Slavs" and "blind pig" was known as a resort for illegal liquor selling. Vusich's place on San Fernando street was known as a resort for Slavonians and Mexicans. Vusich was a native of Austria, 30 years old, and had been in this country about two years. He was a miner by occupation.

He held the hammer poised, perhaps a half a second. In that time the end came, which drove him sick with terror from the room. The police found the nephew half an hour later cowering in an upstairs bedroom. He told his story in a voice trembling with the fear that still remained.

Officers guarded the Austrian Hotel while Capt. Broadhead and Detectives a loaded revolver at the officer. At that same moment his brother, C. Vusich, was standing behind, a hammer in his hand, ready to strike the latter down.

Some of the shooting is the Austrian, known to the police as the leaders of a dozen Slavonic and Austrian resorts which constantly sell bad whisky in defiance of city ordinances. The dead man, a giant in strength and physique, is quoted by the officers as having bragged that he would kill the officer who entered his place. His name as the result of a decision on the part of the department to close the Sunday "blind pig" which has caused wholesale drunkenness and bloody fighting among Slavs and Cholos on Castellar, Alameda and neighboring streets.

Amman placed Vusich under arrest and tried to bribe him and then Vusich seized a revolver and took it from him. A terrific struggle followed, Amman trying to put handcuffs on the big Slav's wrists. Amman broke a "blackjack" over Vusich's thick skull. Pursell hung back for a shot. His revolver fell from his hand. Vusich reached and grabbed it. "Shoot, shoot! gun or I'll blow your brains out," cried Amman, drawing his revolver.

"Shoot, go ahead," yelled Vusich, throwing Pursell's weapon, his finger on the trigger.

Amman fired. Vusich fell dead, a bullet hole in his left temple. It all happened in a gloomy back room in the Austria Hotel, a room with a sawdust floor and high rows of cased liquor along the walls, the inner sanctum of the "blind pig" hitherto unknown from police visits.

Within a few minutes the two officers had made a complete statement of the affair at the office of Acting Chief Sebastian, and the report had been stenographically transcribed. By that time the officers had corroborated their story, the police photographer had taken an interior view of the room of the tragedy, and the department had been protected against perjury by disinterested witnesses.

Two other officers had been detailed by Lieutenant Broadhead to collect evidence against Vusich's blind pig. Saturday night they had made a trip to the place and had heard Amman's story of what had happened in this room.

AMMAN'S ACCOUNT.

Amman reported at the central station at 8:30 o'clock this morning. The captain questioned him closely as to just how this forenoon to get the story. Amman said:

"We went down, had dinner, and then went to a saloon for a couple of beer. We ordered more liquor, and Pursell took a bottle of beer and I took a bottle of whisky, according to our orders.

"The bartender served us and I happened to think that this might not be sufficient. We sat around and played a game of seven-up. The proprietor came out and I said we would like to buy drinks. Pursell said he would stand treat, and I ordered beer. He paid for it, and brought the liquor.

"I took some money from his hand. I think it was a twenty and I said: 'No you cannot buy us off.' He said: 'I have used you boys. Please let me go.' I said you will have to go with us. We must be here for this purpose.' He said 'Alright,' and started behind the bar.

"During the struggle, a terrible struggle, in the close little back room where there was no room from one window. It was directly against two men of slight build, the giant desperate and the other determined.

"Vusich seized a forty-four caliber revolver from behind the bar. Amman grabbed his wrist with one hand and struck him with the other. He wrenched the weapon from the large man's hand and it fell to the floor.

"I then tried to get his handcuffs on Vusich, and the latter threw me off. In the little room as though he were a child. The officer drew his revolver. He struck the Slav on the head three hard blows. They had no effect.

"Vusich threw himself on Vusich's back and the Slav shook him off. As he did so Pursell lost his revolver from his rear pocket. A climax, I thought, had come and in any written report would succeed one another that the officers can hardly understand.

"I struggled with Amman for a moment. Pursell rose from the floor, a hammer uplifted in his right hand, stepped C. Vusich, nephew of the dead man. He held the hammer poised, perhaps a half a second. In that time the end came, which drove him sick with terror from the room. The police found the nephew half an hour later cowering in an upstairs bedroom. He told his story in a voice trembling with the fear that still remained.

Officers guarded the Austrian Hotel while Capt. Broadhead and Detectives Talamantes and Rico searched for evidence surrounding the case. Plain Clothes Policemen Ingram and Redman took an inventory of the liquors in the place, and had them conveyed to the station.

The back room bore plenty of evidence of a terrible struggle. Broken bottles, the fragments of the shattered blackjack, and the two revolvers—the dead man's and Pursell's, which he had taken—lay close by Vusich's body.

More than this, the statements of C. Vusich, the nephew, who came into the room with the uplifted hammer, detail a few incidents of the fight's latter end.

VUSICH'S THREAT.

John Vusich, according to evidence in the possession of the police, had made the threat several months ago that he would shoot any officer who entered his place. He has resisted policemen before when they were searching for wanted men in his house. He is known among the Slavonians of his section as a man of influence, and in a greasy, tattered crowd that gathered about his door were many sullen faces. From them came more than one muttered threat as to what this shooting would mean to the officers.

Vusich's body was taken to the Bresee morgue, where an inuest will be held, probably tomorrow. The bullet entered the left temple pretty well in front and had torn a gaping hole. Death had come to the man instantly, and his fingers still half clenched as they had relaxed their hold on Pursell's weapon when he fell. In his pockets were $10 gold piece, two $5 pieces, some silver and a crumpled $10 bill.

Both Pursell and Amman are new officers on the force. The latter is a veteran of the Philippine and Boxer insurrections. He served in the Ninth United States Infantry during both campaigns. He is not well known in and about Los Angeles. For this reason, and because he has a good reputation for probity, he was chosen for "blind pig" work in plain clothes. The illegal liquor selling resorts on San Fernando and Castelar streets, known by the police to exist, are the hardest places in the city to raid. They sell many gallons of beer and whisky each Sunday, and on week days do a thriving business. Possessing government licenses, most of them are rooming houses or hotels, and do not hold either saloon or restaurant licenses under the city ordinances. Their customers are Slavonians and low-caste Mexican peones, the half-breeds.

HARD PLACES TO ENTER.

Because of the peculiar class of their customers, these "pigs" are strangely hard places for Americans to enter. They are in back rooms, reached, as was Vusich's, by several doors. An American entering the building is at once recognized. Instantly there goes up from the half score hangers-on a warning which is heeded by the proprietor. He bars his doors against the strangers.

In another way the Slavs and the cholos are safe from molestation. They are unusually clannish. They permit no other to get their secrets. They tell nothing. In the crowd about Vusich's door yesterday afternoon were many of his countrymen. They talked in their own tongue. Three small boys played tag in the crowd. A man from Main street, passing, asked one of the boys what was the matter. The youngster shrugged his shoulders and shook his head. Five minutes before he had come from the room where the corpse lay. This sort of close-mouthedness on the part of the cholos and Slavs keeps information from the police and enables them to sell liquor at will in violation of the law. Old officers on the department expressed surprise yesterday on learning how far Amman and Pursell had been able to go in getting evidence.

Amman and Pursell were questioned by the station and department officials as to the shooting, and their stories tally exactly. Then came a mass of corroborative evidence. As a result, both men were given praise for what they had done by their superiors and by other patrolmen.

Vusich had some means. He leaves a widow and children. He had many friends, for he possessed strength in the way of influence among his countrymen.

MINISTER IN SAD STRAITS.

AFTER EVENTFUL LIFE IS SENT TO STATE HOSPITAL.

Career Is Curious Mixture of Honor and Disgrace—College Graduate, Serves in Army, Twenty-three Years in Pulpit, Elopes, Penniless, Tries to Commit Suicide.

Rev. S. M. Driver, for twenty-three years a Methodist minister and for three years presiding elder of the Idaho conference, was sent to the State Hospital for the Insane at Patton, yesterday, by Judge Gibbs. Rev. Mr. Driver is not insane, but in such a condition that he may lose his reason if he does not receive necessary treatment.

Last Thursday he took a dose of laudanum in an attempt to end his life, and yesterday he gave a pitiful explanation of his reason for doing so.

"I wasn't insane," he said, "but I thought it all out and knew that my wife's family are well-to-do and would look out for her. I was the one in the way. I had been trained for the ministry, but had ended my usefulness by my folly. I thought it the kindest thing I could do for my wife and children to get out of this world," and the minister sobbed.

Mr. Driver did not seek to hide his shortcomings, and his story was a rehearsal of facts that have brought misery to himself and his family. After graduating from Salem College, Oregon, he enlisted, in 1864, in the United States cavalry. After that he was commissary for five years in the Oregon penitentiary, and then entered the ministry.

While living at Placerville, he eloped with a woman to New Orleans, and almost in his presence, his companion committed suicide. While dressing the woman took carbolic acid.

About eighteen months later, Mr. Driver returned to Hanford, Cal., his wife forgave him and a new beginning was made. But his past dogged his footsteps.

"If a man is down through misfortune," he said yesterday, "the world may help him up; but if he is down through his own fault, it never extends a helping hand."

Somehow things would not go right with the ex-minister. He had been educated for a certain work and outside of that, he appeared to be of little use. He could not adjust himself to conditions, and took to drink. While in a state of excitement caused by drinking, he again disappeared from home, and upon his return, his mind appeared to be a blank.

Mr. Driver said that he had been connected with the Sunday-school Association in Los Angeles, and that after saving a little money, he opened a lodging house for laboring men. But this place could not be made to pay, and monthly payments on the purchase price of the house had to be met. It proved impossible, and Mr. Driver, overcome by the hopelessness of the struggle, attempted to take his life.

Mrs. J. Sherman, a daughter of Mr. Driver's, stated that her father was kind and loving at all times except when under the influence of liquor.

A recent purchase on Adams street between Main street and Grand avenue is one by E. Avery McCarthy of the McCarthy Company of lot, 100 feet frontage on the north side of Adams street, being the old Col. Whiting homestead, recently occupied by Mrs. Whiting and by her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Mellus, and family. The price paid was $90 per foot. Besides the house, the lot is covered with fine old trees. Mr. McCarthy will build some time next year a handsome set of mission apartments on this. Adjoining this lot Mrs. Taggart sold to The McCarthy Company sixty-four feet of Adams-street frontage at about the same rate, making the McCarthy holding in this block 164 feet. The aggregate of the deal is over $12,000.

T. Wiesendanger reports the sale of the following seventeen lots in Alhambra Park tract on Hidalgo avenue last week: Lot to B. S. Trust, $650; two lots to Charles Auber, $1000; lot to L. LOVES BIRDS AND CHILDREN.

COL. ISAAC BROWN IS VISITOR TO THIS CITY.

Employed by Helen Gould to Talk to Youthful Pupils and to Interest Them, Through Nature, in Right Living—Entertains at Sixteenth-street School.

"Why, children, I have chummed with the birds for fifty years," said the noted "bird and bee man." Col. Isaac Brown of Indiana, who arrived in California yesterday, and was talking to the children of the Sixteenth-street school.

You should have seen those children's eyes shine, and have heard them laugh at what that funny man had to say, and have seen them watching eagerly to see what in the world he would do next.

"Why, by the time I have passed that bird a few times, he will be so used to me that he will think I am his grandfather," said the bird man. He was telling the children about the woodpecker and how to get acquainted with it. Then he drew the nest where the red-headed woodpecker's black-headed children lived.

In a moment he was over by the teacher drawing the tree where the red-headed woodpecker's black-headed children would find their food, by tap, tap, tapping, and then he was sober long enough to tell the pupils that if those bird children did not hunt for food, the insects would devour every tree in the land in a few years.

In another minute, the colonel was some other man or boy, out with a gun, wanting to be made happy by seeing something die. Piff, paff, and the beautiful bird was dead, and Col. Brown told how the man had killed one of his bird friends, who was busy protecting him all the time.

Col. Brown is on the Coast for a season to rest, as well as to study the birds of this section. For the past four or five years he has been addressing the children of the Middle West, with an average of a thousand children a day in his audiences.

"I am employed by the year by Miss Helen Gould to talk to children," he said yesterday. "Children," he remarked during his talk, "Miss Gould does not like me to tell about her, but I do. I told her one day that there was one difference between her and the red-headed woodpecker. He is always satisfied with the house he builds, and she never is; she is always wanting to make hers better."

Col. Brown condensed a large amount of valuable nature information in the few minutes that he spent with the children. He aroused their interest and gave them something to think about for some time to come.

"You see that boy there?" he asked in an aside to the teacher, singling out a freckled-faced specimen. "Miss Gould wants to make a crusader of that boy, and she thinks that if he can come to the knowledge of his great All Father through the works of nature, that the world's reform will follow ere long."

Col. Brown is a Hoosier, and is proud of the fact. He is also an old soldier, who fought for the Union. He was induced to speak at Sixteenth-street school by one of the teachers, whose father, a former comrade, was lost at the battle of Chickamauga. He will be in Los Angeles some time, and will doubtless talk to many more of the school children.

ENGINEER MAY DIE.

Piston Rod Swings Back and Breaks Bones of Face and Fractures Skull.

John H. Boor of No. 1438 East Fifteenth street was perhaps fatally injured yesterday while trying to start a steam engine. He is employed as engineer in an oil refinery, and is an experienced man, having worked around machinery all his life. The exhaust of the engine had given Boor some trouble. He failed to open the vent cock, after the steam was turned into the cylinder, and as he leaned over to see why the engine did not move, suddenly the piston arm swung back and struck him in the face.

When treated at the Receiving Hospital, it was found that the upper bones of Boor's face were broken, and he was badly injured. Dr. Bonynge, who treated the man, fears that he will not recover. He was removed to the California Hospital, after the bones had been set. It was found that he had sustained a fracture of the skull in addition to his other hurts.

FOR CHAMBER OF MINES.

Invitations have been widely extended to prominent citizens to attend a meeting in the committee room of the Chamber of Commerce today at 3:30 o'clock to consider the advisability of organizing a Chamber of Mines in Los Angeles. Among the speakers who will encourage a general discussion of the plan will be Will A. Harris, Luther Brown, Fred Hines, E. A. Forrester, John Singleton and Rol King. King is the father of this idea and maintains that a properly organized Chamber of Mines could do for mining and for Los Angeles commercially what the Chamber of Commerce does for agriculture and for the interests of Southern California. King will advocate at the meeting the formation of plans and the appointment of a committee to organize the Chamber of Mines with the key note of organization an intention to place Los Angeles before the western public as the logical and natural base of supplies for the great mineral belts that are being so rapidly opened up. He believes that this idea can be fostered in such a way that a distinct benefit will be derived by the city. He will also suggest that an exhibition be established, showing the grades and classes of ores and demonstrating the development of mining in the West.

IOWA REMEMBERS BATTLE.

Dedicates Shaft to Commemorate Services of Iowa Soldiers at Lookout Mountain.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 19.—Forty-three years from the day the battle of Lookout Mountain was fought the State of Iowa today dedicated a monument on the scene of the hardest fighting.

The shaft commemorates the services of Williams' brigade, Osterhaus's division, Fifteenth army corps, to which the Fourth, Twenty-fifth and Thirtieth Iowa Infantry and First Iowa Battery belonged.

Addresses were made by Gov. Cummins, Gen. J. B. Weaver, and Col Abernathy of the Ninth Iowa.

This afternoon the monument at Sherman Heights on Mission Ridge was dedicated. It honors the Fifth Infantry, Sixth Infantry, Tenth Infantry and Seventeenth Iowa Volunteer Infantry.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

URGE PLAYHOUSE FOR PASADENA.

MERCHANTS TALK THEATER FOR THAT CITY.

Combined Amusement House, and Office Building Is What Is Planned. Formation of a Corporation for that Purpose Is Proposed — Several Available Locations for It In View.

Office of The Times, No. 24 S. Raymond Ave.

PASADENA, Nov. 19.—Pasadena merchants are agitating the question of a new theater, and there is a prospect that within the next few months active steps may be taken to secure such an enterprise. The plan advanced is to form a corporation, issue stock, and build a combined theater and office building If erected, the playhouse would be located somewhere on Colorado street, that it might be accessible to all of the car lines.

Last winter there were rumors of a Colorado-street playhouse, and the location was even mentioned, but the talk did not amount to anything, and the venture seemed to have fallen through. Renewed interest is now being manifested, however, and active steps may be taken any day. It is thought that were Pasadena provided with a modern playhouse the amusement seekers who now go to Los Angeles could be kept here to the mutual profit of themselves and the Pasadena merchants.

F. K. Kuranaga is particularly anxious to have something done toward securing a new theater, and has announced his readiness to support the project if it is ever brought to a head. He has interviewed other merchants concerning the idea, and states that there is a strong sentiment in favor of it.

There are a number of available locations on East Colorado street and, with the pleasure park and casino in one part of the city and an up-to-date theater in another, it is thought that Pasadena will be able to offer far more in the way of relaxation to her visitors than has been possible heretofore.

THROOP BOYS REJOICE.

Students of Throop Polytechnic Institute had a football celebration in the auditorium after chapel exercises this morning to commemorate their victory over the Los Angeles High School, Saturday afternoon. It was the first time since 1896 that the Throop boys had defeated their rivals, and the occasion was one of great rejoicing.

Immediately after the chapel exercises were over it was announced that a small programme had been arranged, and Marion P. Waite, captain of the victorious team of 1896, was introduced as the first speaker. "The winning team of '96" has been the theme of much discussion on the part of football enthusiasts during the past years, and the captain of the famous aggregation was looked upon in the light of a hero.

Mr. Waite spoke to the boys on the subject of football and congratulated them on their success in what it meant. The Rev. F. M. Dowling, pastor of the First Christian Church, was the next speaker. In apropriate words Mr. Dowling congratulated the students on their recent victory and gave them some sound advice for future years.

At the close of the speaking, the students gave a rousing Throop cheer and then sang a number of the school songs, bringing the rally to a close with a "buzza" that shook the walls.

For the past ten years it has been the ambition of the Throop students to lower the colors of the Los Angeles High School team, and Saturday's victory has filled the boys with enthusiasm for their institution. Throop colors are being displayed everywhere, and congratulations are being received daily from members of the alumni, who are joining with the undergraduates in their celebration.

FLOWERS DAMAGED BY WIND.

Florists and green-house men are complaining of the damage done by the wind of the past few days, and there is likely to be a shortage in flowers for some weeks to come. The greatest havoc was wrought among the chrysanthemums, nearly the entire crop of these flowers having been laid low. The plants themselves were not injured and will bloom again another year, but the stocks were broken off short, and this season's crop almost entirely destroyed.

At Oak Knoll there was considerable damage done to the young trees which had lately been set out, and many of them were broken off. Pot houses suffered more or less from the force of the wind and the newly-laid gravel walks were torn up and scattered about the country.

On Colorado street considerable damage was done last night, and several awnings were torn from their fastenings. A show case containing photographer's samples was smashed to bits and its contents considerably shaken up. Dust was forced in under the doors and banked up along the gutters, while bits of scattered paper littered the streets in all directions.

Between Pasadena and Los Angeles the bill boards were thrown down and torn to pieces. Several of the largest boards which were placed along the line of the Pacific Electric tracks were destroyed, while a number of trees on Huntington Drive were broken off short.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY.

David Reynolds of No. 289 South Madison avenue has been kept busy during the last twenty-four hours explaining to his friends that he was not arrested Sunday afternoon, and that the whole trouble was brought about by a case of mistaken identity. He believes that he has finally succeeded in clearing his good name, but says that he never realized how ready most people were to believe the worst concerning a man.

The trouble arose through a clerical error at the Police Station, where Frank Reynolds, who fell into the drag-net yesterday afternoon, was booked as David. This morning the man friends of David Reynolds, who has resided in Pasadena for the past twenty-four years, and is one of the best-known men in town, were surprised to read that he had been taken into custody for overindulgence in liquor. Having in mind the fact that he might be short of cash after such a protracted celebration as they thought he must have indulged in, they rushed to the phone with one accord to assure him that their bank accounts were at his disposal.

In vain Mr. Reynolds tried to impress upon them that he was not a drinking man, and that he had never been in jail in his life. They thought that he was merely hiding his villainy and it was not until he fled to the Police Station for vindication that he was able to prove that he had not graced the city bastile during the night.

CADET CORPS AT THROOP.

The idea of a cadet corps for Throop Polytechnic Institute is meeting with great success, and a permanent organization will probably be effected. The corps was at first organized as a marching club, with the intention of participating in the Tournament of Roses and other affairs of the same order. So popular was the idea with the students, however, that it is now intended to organize a battalion which will be uniformed and provided with arms and made a regular institution of the student body.

The corps was organized by Physical Director Bindhammer, and has been drilling steadily under his supervision. It is composed entirely of picked men and will be brought up to a high standard of perfection. A uniform will probably be adopted soon and arms secured as soon as arrangements can be made for their purchase.

Several years ago when Throop Institute was first founded, military training was a part of the regular course, and membership in the cadet battalion was compulsory. Later this feature was dropped, and for several years there has been no attempt to revive it. It is not the intention to make the drill compulsory on the part of the pupils, but there is no doubt but that there will be a large number of applicants to choose from as volunteers are numerous and enthusiastic. The idea is being encouraged by the different members of the faculty, as it is appreciated that military training under suitable conditions is a very valuable asset in the education of a young man.

FIRE IN HOME.

Fire from an unknown origin broke out in the residence of Dr. Chas. H. Ward at No. 288 South Marengo avenue this morning, and, but for the prompt action of the fire department, the building must have been destroyed. There was a heavy wind blowing at the time, and had the flames once gained any headway it would have been a difficult matter to get them under control.

As soon as the alarm was turned in the department responded, and within a very few minutes they had a stream of water playing on the blaze. The flames were quickly gotten under control, and little damage was done other than by the smoke. The fire originated in the basement, where a quantity of fuel was stored, but by the prompt work of the firemen was not allowed to communicate to the rest of the building.

DEATH WAS ACCIDENTAL.

An inquest was held this morning over the remains of Thomas A. Russell, the aged man who was killed by a Santa Fé train Saturday. After hearing the testimony of the witnesses called the jury brought in a verdict of accidental death without placing the blame anywhere. The jurors were out but a few minutes.

All of the witnesses called agreed that the engineer of the train blew his whistle as he approached. There was a difference of opinion concerning the speed of the train, some maintaining that it did not exceed twelve miles an hour, while others thought that it was going much faster. Engineer Penlus was called to tell his side of the story. He insisted that the train was going quite slowly and he stated that he blew the whistle as he approached the crossing. He thought that Russell must have been hard of hearing, as he did not appear to heed the whistle.

OTHER MATTERS.

The Rev. Dana Bartlett of Los Angeles will deliver a lecture before the Historical Society of Throop Polytechnic in Throop Auditorium tomorrow afternon at 3:15 o'clock. No admission fee will be charged and a general invitation has been issued the public to attend. The subject of the address will be "The New Professions." This will be the first of a series of free lectures which the members of the Historical Society expect to conduct during the winter.

Elizabeth H. Cochran, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Cochran, died suddenly this afternoon at the home of her parents, No. 547 Concordia Court. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Cochran residence. Interment will be at Mountain View Cemetery.

PERSONAL NOTES.

HAD WATCH IN HIS SHOE.

San Pedro Robber Arrested Who Reveals a Novel Hiding Place for Articles.

SAN PEDRO, Nov. 19.—Special Officer Jack Iman made what is believed to be an important arrest, yesterday, when he took in custody a man giving the name of Eugene Demory, upon a charge of robbery.

M. Nordian, a mate on the schooner Joseph L. Eviston, was the complaining witness. Nordian states that he came up town on Saturday evening and met Demory and another man, both strangers to him. They all went to a lodging-house on Front street, where Nordian was robbed of a gold watch and money. After arresting Demory, Officer Iman made a search but failed to find the watch. After a long siege of pumping of the suspect, he finally admitted his guilt and produced the watch from his shoe.

SPICER SAYS HE WON'T DROP.

LONG BEACH ATTORNEY TOO ANGRY TO QUIT.

Was Disposed to Abandon Prosecution of the Woman Charged With Making a Wreck of His Office, But Public Charges by Her Made Him Change His Mind.

LONG BEACH, Nov. 19.—Despite the fact that she paid Attorney George M. Spicer $150 Saturday night to pay the damages she did in his office Friday night, Mrs. Mabel Manning was arraigned before Justice Brayton this afternoon on a charge of malicious trespass.

By request of her attorney, she was given time to plead. Attorney Spicer was disposed Sunday to drop the prosecution, but public charges by Mrs. Manning that she has been pursued by Spicer, who forced his attentions on her and threatened to kill her and the publication of an alleged love letter has angered him and he says now he will shield her no longer.

Spicer says he met Mrs. Manning in 1904, and kept company with her until 1906, when he discovered unsavory details of her past in Seattle, and also that she was corresponding with a prominent business man of Gunnison, Colo., With a detective's aid he is said to have secured letters written by her and then confronting her with them, told her he was done. From that time on Mrs. Manning has haunted his office and made life a burden to him, it is averred. On two occasions she attacked him in his office and smashed up things, but dreading any notoriety he kept quiet. He was married in Mt. Pleasant, Utah, in September, and brought his wife to Long Beach where their happy life was disrupted by Mrs. Manning, who circulated base stories about him, as a result of which, Mrs. Spicer went back East. Spicer threatened Mrs. Manning with an exposé of her correspondence with other men and it was to secure these letters that she broke into his office Friday night and wrecked it. Some of the letters are passionate in their terms, and tell "Harry" that she will break off with "George" whenever he says so.

Attorney Spicer says he has suffered a year in silence, rather than be forced into unpleasant notoriety.

SEASHORE SAYINGS.

B. Crow, A. Metcalf, J. Wolf, Thomas Finn and Ed Schofield, were fined today by Recorder Hart for disorderly conduct. The men who are in the employ of the Crescent Wharf Company at West Long Beach, got into a row at their lodging-house last evening and bedlam broke loose. Furniture was broken, shoes thrown through windows and to cap the climax, the family clock, a ponderous affair, was thrown out of the back door, and into the bay. Officers Taylor and Phillips were attracted to the scene, and arrested the quintette bringing them up on the train and lodging them in jail over night.

A Japanese gardener, on a bicycle, ran over the little daughter of Will N. May of noon today and in falling, a lawnmower the Jap was carrying, fell on the child, badly bruising her and cutting a gash over her right eye. The Jap, who was riding very rapidly and on the wrong side of the street, was arrested.

Because of the absence of the principal witness, the detective who bought the liquor, the case against X. F. Hollar, charged with selling liquor on the steamer San Diego within the corporate boundaries of the city of Long Beach, has been continued until December 1.

Answering an alarm of fire this morning, the fire department found that at the nearest hydrant there was not enough pressure to water a horse. As the hydrant is in a locality dotted with handsome residences, Chief Sheesbury has registered a remonstance with the water company, pointing out the danger that exists through lack of water.

In compliment to Prof. Carl C. Plehn who delivered a lecture on tax reform at the Tabernacle tonight, the Cosmopolitan Club gave a dinner at the club rooms this evening. Other notable guests were State Senator McCartney and Dist.-Atty. Fredericks. Covers were laid for twenty. Following the lecture, the speaker was again escorted to the club and entertained at a smoker.

George W. Burgess, a tourist from Villo, Iowa, this morning fishing on the outer wharf, hooked a 15-pound jewfish and landed him with as much ease as if he were catching a bluecat from the Mississippi. Half an hour later Mr. Burgess landed a twenty-five-pound yellowtail.

DEGENERATE JAILED.

Santa Monica Youth Spending Most of His Life Behind Bars—Fish Famine.

SANTA MONICA, Nov. 19.—Young Seraf Arrata has been sentenced to the County Jail again. He seems to be bad by nature as well as by preference. This time his offense consisted of breaking into unoccupied beach cottages. Here he would sleep in the cosy beds of the summer visitors to the seaside, moving from house to house as his fancy dictated. He will spend three months in confinement.

After Arrata was graduated from Whittier, he became the leading performer in a series of seashore burglaries. For this he went to San Quentin. Upon his return from the North, he received a jail sentence for vagrancy. The degenerate's father committed suicide here a few years ago after having attempted the life of Constable Pritchard, who was seeking to place him under arrest for the commission of a small offense.

THERE IS FISH FAMINE.

This was the third day of the norther but so far as can be learned, no serious damage has been done. The sea has been rough and muddy. Fishermen have not gone out in small boats, and there is a fish famine.

WINS THREE STRAIGHTS.

The Santa Monica High School basketball team has played and won three games in the present season, and is now in practice for a game with the Pasadena team. The Santa Monicans went to Downey, Saturday, where they defeated the Downeys by a score of 15 to 8. Both teams on that occasion developed considerable speed, and although Downey had the advantage in average height, Santa Monica overcame this by superior team work. At one period of the contest Downey was one point ahead on the score.

TRUSTEES IN DEADLOCK.

The City Trustees tonight took a vote on the question of calling a special election for the 25th inst. on the question whether the sewer septic tank shall be located at Pier avenue or Bay street. The board stood two to two, and a decision was deferred till the fifth member of the board, Trustee Johnston, shall return.

NORTHER LASHES AVALON SHORE.

BOATS CAST ON LAND BY FURIOUS GALE.

Craft of Various Kinds Are Damaged and Worse by Strong Waves Running from Out at Sea—Splittstoesser Launch Is Sunk and Then Cast Up on the Beach.

AVALON, Nov. 19.—Last night was a wild one on Avalon Bay. Saturday developed a northwest gale which veered to the northeast Sunday evening about 6 o'clock, and continued throughout the night, increasing in intensity as morning dawned, and reaching its height about 8 o'clock, when a launch owned by W. H. Splittstoesser, foreman of the Catalina Island Marble Quarries, who was temporarily absent in Los Angeles, was swamped at its mooring and went down to be cast up on the shore by the furious breakers. It was seized by men on watch and hoisted over the seawall, but was badly battered up.

Next to go was the company's boat Linda, which had been denuded of her engine and was used as a tank boat to cary water from the Torqua Springs. The Linda was thrown broadside against the wall in front of Hotel Metropole, and secured there by hawsers fore and aft, where she rode out the storm, but she is left in a badly crippled condition.

A big skiff used by George Auld, who sleeps aboard the yacht Avalon, owned by Capt. J. E. Mathewson, broke away and before she could be secured was smashed into kindling wood by the breakers.

Some of the planking of the bathhouse wharf was forced off and a San Pedro fishing boat which was one of those driven in here Saturday night, is disabled by the loss of her rudder. A few other small boats were swamped, but their damage will be small.

The steamer Hermosa again proved her seaworthiness Saturday night on her return trip to San Pedro after landing her passengers here at 8:30 o'clock. A furious northerly gale was blowing, when at times was so fierce that the steamer was unable to breast them, and although the wind used her as a toy, sometimes having her on her beam ends, she victoriously rode through it all and made port, two hours overdue.

AVALON NOTES.

C. Newport and wife have been guests at the Metropole over Sunday, returning to Hotel Lankershim today.

Mrs. A. W. Barrett has been entertaining at her cottage here, her friend, Mrs. Robert McKillican, of Oakland.

HILL FIRE AT WHITTIER.

Sunday's High Wind Fortunately Blew the Flames Away from the Oil Well District.

WHITTIER, Nov. 19.—Careless hunters, it is said, started a hill fire which entirely burned out the brush and grass from one of the near-by cañons yesterday. The flames could be seen from the city, and at one time extended for at least half a mile. Fortunately the cañon is so situated that the flames did not reach any of the oil wells to the east, stopping on the ridge of the hills. The prevailing high wind, which under most circumstances would have made the flames a real menace to property, were in this case an aid, as it prevented the sweep of the flames toward the oil derricks or toward the outlying section of the city.

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE.

Peter Hermence, of this city, died yesterday at his home here, as the result of paralysis. The funeral service will be held tomorrow afternoon from Snavely's funeral parlors, at 2:30 o'clock.

Members of the East Whittier Woman's Club will be the guests of honor on Friday afternoon of the Whittier Woman's Club, the meeting being postponed from Nov. 21, because of the Federation meeting in Los Angeles on that day.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Marguerite Olive Tweedy, daughter of Mrs. Aurilla A. Tweedy of Rivera, to Ira L. Pulliam, on Thursday evening, at Rivera. The ceremony will be witnessed by the more intimate friends of the young couple, who will be at home to their friends after December 15, at Rivera.

REAL ESTATE ACTIVE.

Several Sales Reported in Pomona, Where General Business Conditions Are Excellent.

POMONA, Nov. 19.—Activity in real estate, induced by the coming of the electric road, and the excellent conditions existing here generally, continues. W. A. Lathrop of Los Angeles has sold to the Mutual Building and Loan Association of this city, through J. A. Fitch, a lot 65x120 feet on Thomas street, between Second and Third streets, containing some old one-story wooden buildings, for a reported consideration of $9000. The association may later erect a building on the lot.

E. E. Gillen & Co. have sold for H. F. Steinmeier a five-acre walnut grove on South Hamilton avenue.

Ida L. Neibel has sold a lot on Second street between Towne and Caswell avenues, for $1000.

Edward T. Bishop, son of L. T. Bishop and his wife are now teaching in a High School in the Philippines.

Misses Bertha Sanborn and Charlotte Smythe of Los Angeles spent Sunday here visiting friends.

Mrs. Frank L. Palmer and son Donald have returned from Searchlight, Nev.

Misses Katherine Jeffries and Mabel Adams of the High School spent Sunday in Los Angeles.

John C. Walker has sold his cottage on North Gordon street and moved to North Gibbs street, in the High School tract.

BLASTS ON MOUNTAIN.

Extensive Cannonading in Building Road Up the Steep Slope of Mount Wilson.

MONROVIA, Nov. 19.—There was a continual cannonading on Mt. Wilson Saturday. Over one hundred charges of dynamite were exploded in blasting away at widening the trail up the mountain. The workmen are experiencing considerable difficulty, and the progress is slow, owing to the large amount of rock to be moved.

BUYS FOR SUBDIVISION.

Mrs. Annie M. Spence has sold to the Monrovia Land and Investment Company the property known as "The Oaks," consisting of ten acres of five-year-old orange trees, with an eleven-room house in the heart of the residence district of this city. The stated consideration is $31,000. The holding lies between Myrtle and Primrose avenues and extends northerly from White Oak avenue almost to Banana avenue. It will be subdivided.

HOMES INVADE GROVES.

Owing to the demand made upon orange ranches in this immediate vicinity for residence tracts, the acreage is reduced considerably. In the last two years possibly two hundred acres have been converted from orange ranches to subdivisions of the city, and the lots sold for residence purposes. On an average the ranch property has sold for $1000 per acre, but street improvements and division into lots of 50 to 150 feet in size, have sold on an average of about $800 per lot.

Mrs. A. E. Cronenwett entertained a party of Los Angeles friends Saturday in honor of her mother, Mrs. McCall, of Nevada, Iowa, who will leave Tuesday for her home. The guests included Mmes. Frank Thompson, F. E. Dobson, W. W. Stockwell and F. L. Thompson, a friend of the guest of honor from her home city.

S. W. LaRosse of Birmingham, Ala., will become a resident of Monrovia, having purchased a lot on Olive avenue between Primrose and Magnolia, upon which he will erect a two-story eight-room residence. The purchase was made of C. E. Slosson.

Albert Widmaier has sold to C. C. Hurlbut four lots on West Olive avenue, between Magnolia and J. I. C.; price stated, $2300. The purchaser will erect a residence on this property.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Seymour and Miss Munroe, recent New York arrivals, now permanent residents, returned today from a trip to Catalina.

COVINA SHIPPING ORANGES.

Fruit Is Large, Well Colored and Sweet and Carloads Are Rapidly Going Forward.

COVINA, Nov. 19.—The first oranges for the season were shipped from here last Saturday by the Sparr Fruit Company. The fruit was sweet, well colored and of large size. The California Citrus Union has started shipping, and during the week a number of cars will be moved. The larger size fruit prevails in all the packing-houses.

Andrew McAllen of Covina had a narrow escape from death in the heavy windstorm in Los Angeles last Saturday by the falling off of a huge sign board. He saw the board falling in time to jump, or otherwise would have been crushed by the heavy weight of it.

A session of the Covina Farmers' Club was held last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Pollard on the San Bernardino road. The programme consisted of a descriptive talk on the Hawaiian Islands by J. M. Mathews, a vocal solo by Mrs. C. E. Bemis, a reading by Mrs. E. J. Prather and a duet by the little Misses Bemis. A committee consisting of Messrs. Watts, Mussey, Maechtlen and Bemis was appointed to confer with the Glendora Farmers' Club in reference to the appointment of a horticultural inspector for this district.

Dr. C. F. Aschenbrenner, a recent arrival from Dysart, Iowa, has purchased the D. J. Overholzer orange grove of five acres on Workman avenue. The place contains a commodious residence and the trees are carrying a good crop. Price paid, $4500.

CITY TRUSTEE RESIGNS.

OCEAN PARK, Nov. 19.—Walter R. Wheat tendered his resignation as City Trustee at tonight's meeting of the Ocean Park board and requested its immediate acceptance. He intends to devote his time to the Nevada mining country.

"RAW GAMBLE," THIS.

One of the "rawest" gambles ever attempted in this city is carried on at a shooting gallery at First and Los Angeles streets. On a board there are thirty-six small electric lamps and on each hangs a gift of some sort, in value from a tin teaspoon to a cheap watch. The proprietor presents to his victim a bunch of wooden handles, each supposed to contain a push-button leading to a lamp on the board. The victim pays his money, touches one of the buttons, and draws the prize attached to the lamp that shows a light in response to his touch. It was noticed that in a long run last night nobody drew any of the "good" prizes except a "capper." There is so much room for manipulating the electric connections that it is a wonder the suckers keep on biting; but they do. The "capper" gorged his pockets with "diamond" rings, "gold" chains and watch fobs, but the other fellows all got tin spoons, penny pocketbooks and leather watch guards. There was not a single variation of this programme

Charlemagne's Shroud.

Nothing is sacred or venerable to the scientist—at least of all, perhaps, when he is "made in Germany." The remorseless spirit of curiosity some time since began to cast a coldly inquisitive eye on the tomb of Charlemagne, and presently orders were given for forcing the coffin, just to see what it contained. Then the winding sheet was taken out for microscopic examination, of which the result may presumably be regarded as excluding all trickery, seeing that it has been pronounced to be of the ninth century and from the royal factory of Byzantium. Another piece of stuff from the tomb is pronounced to be identical in texture with the holy coat of Treves.—[London Globe.

Germany's Dental Clinic.

At Strasburg, Germany, a dental clinic has been opened at the university for the treatment of school children. Hither all the school children are sent, in order, by their teachers. Each child is quickly examined, as many as eighty children being dealt with in an hour, and nearly 300 a day, by a single doctor. Teaching goes hand in hand with treatment. The doctor tells the child how to use a tooth brush, sees that he uses one, and sends him home to practice with it. The movement is spreading. In Wiesbaden and Mulhausen school dental clinics are to be erected.

BLOW OF AIR DROPS FRUIT.

WIND CAUSES SOME DAMAGE IN ORANGE GROVES.

Third Day of Norther Is, in San Bernardino County, Accompanied by Piercing Cold and General Discomfort — Prospectors on Desert Suffer by Sandstorms.

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 19.—This has been the third day of one of the severest windstorms that ever occurred in this valley. There has been a continuous blow prevailing since Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, the thermometer falling rapidly tonight has added a sharp, piercing cold to the general discomfort.

Reports from the various orange growing sections indicate that the loss occasioned by the whipping of the branches will be heavy, few groves escaping the wind's fury. The damage to property of other descriptions has been slight, no dwellings having been unroofed, though two or three barns have been blown over, shade trees have been blown down, and telephonic communication almost destroyed.

A heavy wind is reported from the mountains and desert, on the desert the blow being particularly severe, and many prospecting parties have suffered by sandstorms. A number of miners' cabins near Rose Mountain were wrecked last night and Saturday night several shacks in Holcomb Valley were blown down, but, though several of these were occupied, the occupants escaped uninjured.

GET THEIR LICENSE.

Tirzeo R. Dabila and Eberista Dibila, who were married by a justice of the peace in Los Angeles recently, applied to the County Clerk this morning for a marriage license, claiming that they had gone to the priest to confess their sins, and he refused to solemnize their marriage, telling them that they were not married at all, that civil marriages were not binding, and he would therefore not hear their confessions until they had been married by the church. In the circumstances the County Clerk consulted with the District Attorney, and is mildly all parties granted the license.

DEATH OF S. LEVY.

Samuel Levy, member of a local clothing firm, died this morning at the family residence, after being confined to his home only a few days. For a while it had been known among Mr. Levy's friends that he was a very sick man, but none supposed that he was in a critical condition, until last night, when it began to sink, and despite the efforts of his physicians the downward course of the disease could not be checked. He leaves a family and has also a brother, Henry, residing in this city, and brothers in Fresno and San Francisco.

ELECTRIC COMPANY.

Reed Cushing has commenced an action against the Edison Electric Company to recover $500 damages, which he alleges his son, John, suffered by coming into contact with a live wire at the T. J. S. Clapp pumping plant. Cushing, a youth of 18 years, was cleaning the well at the plant, and on occasion to turn off the electric power. While trying to do this, he touched a live wire, and was thrown to the ground with great force, being badly bruised. Both hands and his face were burned by the flash.

DAYLIGHT BURGLARS.

Daylight burglars ransacked the residence of A. A. Hark, at No. 1102 Kingsley street this morning, securing a large number of articles, ranging from jewelry to jewelry, and including considerable cash. The family was absent at the time. There is no clew.

ELECTRIC FRANCHISES.

Evidence That There Will Be Some Heavy Bidding When They Are Offered for Sale.

REDLANDS, Nov. 19.—At a meeting of the City Trustees to be held Friday evening bids are to be opened for the use of the street railway franchises asked for by N. Buckmaster and A. G. Ballard. There are many signs to indicate that there will be some heavy bidding on this occasion as the franchises seem to be wanted by parties other than those asking for them. Mr. Hubbard has not revealed his plans further than to say that he will put in the line asked for in his application for a franchise immediately and that it is the beginning of an extensive railway system. But much has been made public concerning the Buckmaster franchise as it is known that Fred Kohl of San Bernardino is the moving spirit in the concern and he hopes to build a line up the Yucaipa Valley to Oakglen and there erect a big hotel. Another branch will go to Harlem Springs, a resort now owned by Mr. Kohl.

C. Denuman, Jr., manager of the San Bernardino Traction Company is said to be greatly opposed to the granting of the Buckmaster franchise, though he admits that he will not be able to run his line out Citrus avenue for several years as he is busy with his Riverside and Arrowhead lines. Mayor Fisher, a stockholder in the San Bernardino Valley Traction Company, is said to be favorable to the granting of both the franchises asked for by Mr. Hubbard and by Mr. Buckmaster. It is said he says both will be good things for Redlands and he cares more for the best interests of his home city than his own small private interests in the company.

Nothing can be verified regarding the reports that the applicants for the franchises are backed by some of the steam roads.

DIED IN QUEBEC.

Mrs. Prendergast received a telegram this morning announcing the death of his sister, Miss Ruth Lane Prendergast, which occurred yesterday in Quebec, Canada. Last August Miss Prendergast and her mother, Mrs. F. Prendergast, started for an eastern visit. In Quebec the former was stricken with typhoid fever. When finally recovered she suffered a relapse which resulted in her death as above stated. The family is one of wealth and prominent in Redlands. The deceased is a graduate of the Redlands High School. Later she spent two years abroad. The body will be brought here for burial.

SAYS LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.

For the first time in the history of the organization the State Library Association will hold its annual meeting outside of the city of San Francisco this year, the place to be thus honored is Los Angeles. Through the efforts of Miss Charlotte Humphreys, librarian of the Los Angeles library of this city, the meeting will be brought to this city. The meeting will be held January 3, 4 and 5. Over 100 librarians are expected to be in the city at that time and all the features will be an

It is expected that the extensive addition to the library will be completed and furnished and the grounds put in order by the first of the year. The local Board of Trade will assist in the entertainment of the guests.

POOL BOX STOLEN.

A sneakthief walked into the University clubhouse last evening between 7 and 8 o'clock and carried away with him the club pool box containing, as near as can be estimated, about $14 in money and about $5 in "due checks." Paul W. Moore, editor of the Redlands Daily Facts, was the last man to dine at the club and just as he was leaving the clubhouse he heard some one enter the pool room, but thinking it a member, walked on out. The steward also heard a door swing but thought the noise was caused by Mr. Moore going out. Later, while in the pool room attending to his duties, the steward noticed that the pool box was gone and that the door leading into the pergola which is seldom used, was open. There is no trace of the thief.

COLTON LAD HURT.

COLTON, Nov. 19.—Donald Van Luven, the youngest son of E. F. Van Luven, had a severe accident yesterday. He was riding a bicycle and attempting at the same time to propel himself by the aid of a wagon. One of his legs was broken in two places below the knee.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Gaylord of Upland are guests of Colton friends.

Mrs. T. A. Hartley has arrived from Los Angeles to spend the winter with her son, Seth Hartley.

Harry Miller of Gypsum Kan., is visiting his cousin, Mrs. B. H. Shepley.

MISSION TOWN SEES DOOM.

BUT DESPERATE FIGHT SAVES SAN JUAN FROM FIRE.

Worst Blaze of Season Sweeps Territory Fifteen Miles Long and Five Miles Wide—O'Neal Ranch Heavy Loser—Many Cattle Believed to Have Perished.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SANTA ANA, Nov. 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The sudden dying down of the north wind and the desperate fight by every able-bodied man within reach alone saved the old mission town of San Juan Capistrano from burning tonight.

With the foothill blaze making fearful headway toward the houses of the village, the wind ceased its onward rush and the fire fighters gained control of the sheets of flame that had traveled fifteen miles over the hills, when it was less than 200 yards from the first row of homes.

One county bridge and several telegraph poles were burned. The fire was sweeping through Constable Swartout's cornfield when several men with buckets of water from an irrigation ditch stopped its progress in that direction. This was east of the town. To the north, other men were fighting to save the Santa Fé section house.

The women of the mission town were terror-stricken for every man was at the fire front and they helplessly watched the flames sweeping down the hillsides toward them and their homes.

The fire swept a territory fifteen miles in length and five miles wide. The Mission Viejo ranch, owned by Richard O'Neal, suffered most.

A tremendous foothill fire had been sweeping down from Trabuco Cañon toward the town of San Juan Capistrano all the afternoon yesterday. Its path was four or five miles wide and it was fanned by a strong north wind. The fire started near J. C. Joplin's ranch in Trabuco Cañon.

The grass and brush were as dry as tinder and the wind carried burning brush hundreds of yards at a time. The fire fighters had a tremendous task in front of them.

The chances are that many cattle have been killed, for hundreds were pastured in the district.

This fire is the worst that has been chronicled this season. A similar fire started on the Moulton ranch a few weeks ago and was carried by a north wind to the ocean. It was only by hard fighting that bridges and buildings at Arch Beach were saved from destruction.

BURNS HOLINESS TENT?

Karl Knauss, the rancher who was arrested yesterday on the charge of setting fire to the Holiness tent on West Fifth street, was today released on a $500 bond furnished by Augustus M. Ward and Arthur Mallett. Knauss was brought in yesterday by Sheriff Lacy, who had tracked Knauss's rig from the scene of the burning to Knauss's barn.

The rancher does not deny that the rig belongs to him, but says that if his rig was out during the night he did not know it. It has developed that Rev. Clark, the preacher of the Holiness people, last Thursday received an unsigned letter, in which he was warned that if he did not leave by Saturday, something would happen to him. Friends of Knauss declare that the officers have the wrong man.

BONDS NOT ACCEPTED.

Several men who have been elected to office are having trouble with their bonds. The trouble lies with the Aetna Indemnity Company. All bonds have to be passed upon by Superior Judge Z. B. West, and when the Aetna Indemnity Company's bonds came up, he refused his indorsement because that company has never filed a copy of its articles of incorporation in this county. This hindrance has caused a deal of scurrying among the elected men.

SANTA ANA NOTES.

A foothill fire raged in the district just east of El Modena Saturday and Sunday. The waterworks of El Modena, belonging to R. W. Jones, were threatened.

Suit to quiet title to a mining claim was brought this morning in the Superior Court by the Santa Rosa Mining Company against the Blue Light Mining Company and several claimants named Flanigan, whose homes are in Ireland. The Santa Rosa claim is in the Santa Rosa mining district, which embraces in part the head of Silverado Cañon. George L. Leovy of Los Angeles appears for the plaintiff.

ANAHEIM PERSONALS.

ANAHEIM, Nov. 19.—Herman Lemke of Anaheim and Miss Emma Kolberg will be married at the home of the bride at Orange Friday afternoon. Miss Alvina Gergin of this city will act as first bridesmaid.

W. W. Wuersthoff is building a thirty-horse-power pumping plant on his Broadway property. It will cost $2500.

The A. Stahnke sixteen-acre place east of town has been sold to an eastern party for $4800.

THINK COLD WON'T HURT.

Low Temperature in Orange Belt, But Fruit Thought to Be Safe.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Low temperatures were registered here tonight, but it is believed that the oranges are uninjured by the cold. At 10:30 o'clock the 40 deg. mark was reached, and the wind was going down. At 1 o'clock this morning the thermometer reading was 44 degs., and there was some breeze blowing. The danger, if any there had been, was then believed to be over.

SAYS TROLLEY'S GOING THERE.

CONFIRMS IT AT A SANTA BARBARA BANQUET.

Electric Company Man States Completion of a Line Between That Channel City and Los Angeles Is in Early Prospect—Work to Be Rushed After Rights of Way.

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 17.—B. F. Pierson of Los Angeles, superintendent of the Edison Electric Company, gave official confirmation at a banquet given to the employés of the Edison Electric Company at the Arlington Hotel last week of the proposed electric railroad from this city to Los Angeles, which has been a rumored proposition among the people of this section for several months. In his statement Superintendent Pierson said:

"Work on the eastern extension of the street-car system will be rushed as soon as the company can secure the necessary rights of way. It will only be a matter of a few months before the trolley will reach Summerland. The Edison company is also figuring on a line along the foothills, from the Mission to Montecito, and this matter will be taken up in the near future. I believe that within a short time not to exceed two years, Santa Barbara and Los Angeles will be connected by electric line."

What interests would control the proposed electric railroad to the City of the Angeles, or what route would be followed, Mr. Pierson would not state.

NEW DIRECTORY.

The first copies of the 1906 edition of the Santa Barbara directory are being distributed to subscribers today. It is a volume of 318 pages, and contains a new map of this city, showing the contiguous territory acquired by annexation.

The directory shows a permanent population for July and August, the time when the compilation was made, of 11,672 residents, and 1896 transients. The permanent population of Montecito is given as 927.

DIES FROM INJURIES.

W. A. Phillips, one of the three workmen who were precipitated to the bottom of a 45-foot well, on the Keeney place, at El Montecito, while rearranging the scaffolding used in constructing the well, died yesterday from the effects of his injuries. Phillips was the contractor who had charge of the work. He and Oscar Holden were working in the well, about thirteen feet below the rim, bricking up the sides. Phillips directed Morse, a laborer, to loosen the wooden curbing round the top of the well. As soon as the temperary curbing was removed, the ground around the rim of the well caved in, and Morse, losing his footing, fell on his co-workers, and all three men dashed headlong to the second platform, forty-five feet below, underneath which there was ten feet of water in the well. Had it not been for this landing all three men would have been drowned. Holden and Morse escaped with severe bruises, but will recover.

SAN DIEGO WATER.

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 19.—The Auditing Committee has submitted to the City Council a plan for providing revenue for extensions of the city water main, being the levy of a special tax of not less than one cent nor more than two cents per front foot, except on pueblo lands, not divided into lots and blocks, north of San Diego River; on other pueblo lands, not divided into lots and blocks, the tax is to be not less than one nor more than two dollars per acre. It is estimated that the plan will provide $40,000.

The big dredger Pacific, which has been at San Pedro, commenced work today dredging on the outer bar to the harbor. The present channel will be made wider and deeper.

District Attorney-elect Lewis R. Kirby has appointed H. S. Utley assistant. Kirby and Utley served as deputies in the office of the District Attorney during the administration of A. H. Sweet eight years ago.

The Council is considering a proposition for inserting in the call for the charter amendment election an item providing for a salary of $600 per year for members of the Council, who now serve without salary.

WILL PLEAD INSANITY.

Boy Accused of Stealing Guns and Other Things at Perris Will So Answer.

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 19.—Insanity will be the plea of the attorney of Woodward C. Frazee, the boy who is held on the charge of having stolen several guns and a quantity of ammunition from Hook Brothers' store in Perris last month. The case was brought up in the Superior Court today and W. G. Randall, for Frazee, introduced the insanity plea. Dr. C. S. Dickson and Dr. O. C. Darling were appointed to make an examination of the boy's mental condition.

DISHWASHER ARRESTED.

Becoming weary of the slow progress of getting rich by dishwashing, Richard E. Page, formerly employed at the Drummond Café, decided to improve his fortunes by appropriating other peoples' property and converting it into cash at the pawnshop, according to charges preferred against him. He is alleged to have stolen a bicycle belonging to Ira Drummond, and to have pawned it for $5, afterward departing for San Bernardino. Marshal Shaw placed him under arrest in that city, and Justice Stephenson bound him over to the Superior Court under $1000 bonds.

OGBORN FUNERAL.

With solemn and beautiful service, the last tribute of respect was paid to the memory of Rev. A. M. Ogborn this afternoon. The funeral was held in the First Methodist Church, and was largely attended. Rev. Dr. J. L. Pitner, presiding elder of the San Diego district, officiated, and Rev. E. J. Inwood, pastor of the local Methodist Church, delivered the address. The interment was in Evergreen Cemetery.

Mr. Ogborn was for many years a member of the Methodist conference. He came to California from Indiana in 1888, and served successively as pastor in Escondido, Murrieta, National City, Lompoc, Arroyo Grande, Corona and Hueneme. He was made a supernumerary of the Southern California conference in 1900, and shortly after came to Riverside to reside. A widow and five children survive.

UNDERHILL-ALEXANDER.

Lester D. Underhill, a Los Angeles contractor, and Miss Anna Alexander, also a resident of that city, secured a license to wed this morning, in the County Clerk's office. A simple wedding followed.

ALLEGED ROOM WORKERS.

Police Arrest Four Men Who Are Thought to Be Responsible for Many Thefts.

Through the burglary of the room of C. Copping, a rancher, at the Tourist lodging-house on South Los Angeles street last night, the police arrested four room workers. The officers say that they have learned that at least two of them are wanted in other cities.

The men under arrest are R. E. Harlowe, Morris Stone, Oscar Moore and William Haynes.

Copping came to Los Angeles early in the evening from Haddington's ranch, where he has been employed for some time. One of the quartette met Copping at the railroad station, and by conversing with him, learned that he had a sum of money in a suit case. He took Copping to the South Los Angeles street lodging-house and induced him to take a room there.

While Stone and Haynes took Copping out to "see the town," one of them notified the other members of the gang, according to Stone's confession, and the suit case containing $70 was stolen.

Through a description furnished by Copping one member of the gang was arrested, and soon afterward the others were captured. In a letter carried by Harlowe the police found that he had been doing the same sort of work in Chicago. The police say Stone is an ex-convict.

For the past two weeks the police have received innumerable reports of burglaries in rooming-houses and cheap hotels. The officers made the statement last night that the quartette under arrest is probably responsible for the greater part of the robberies.

CURRAN HELD FOR GRAND JURY.

United States Commissioner E. ... Owen yesterday held an examination into the charge of opening United States mail entered against Garner Curran of this city. Curran is alleged to have opened letters addressed to the head of a local concern where he was employed. He was held to appear before the grand jury under $500 bail.

A Church Without Services.

Within a few yards of the Marble Arch, Hyde Park, stands a unique building. This Church of the Ascension was erected at the expense of Mrs. Russell Gurney, widow of the late Recorder of London. The building is for rest and meditation only, for no services are ever held within its walls, and on Sundays it is altogether closed. The floor is tesselated, and the walls are covered with paintings, the work of Mr. Frederic Shields. Admission, which is free, is between 3 o'clock and 5 only, when the visitor is expected to enter his name in a book kept for the purpose.

The object of this church is set forth on either side of the entrance, as follows:

"Passengers through the busy streets of London, enter this sanctuary for rest, and silence, and prayer.

"Let the pictured walls within speak of the past yet ever-continuing ways of God with man."—[London Daily Graphic.

At army headquarters at Omaha the rumor from Sheridan, Wyo., that part of the Utes en route to Fort Meade have escaped is regarded as extremely doubtful.

Yesterday's Forecast and Report.

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, Los Angeles, Nov. 19.—[Reported by A. E. Wollaber, Local Forecaster.] At 5 o'clock a.m. the thermometer registered 51 deg.; at 5 o'clock 5 p.m., 69 deg. Relative humidity, 5 a.m., 18 per cent.; 5 p.m., 9 per cent. Wind, 5 a.m., northeast, velocity, 4 miles. Maximum temperature, 64 deg; minimum temperature, 46 deg.

Weather Conditions.—An immense area of high pressure has developed over the Northern Rocky Mountain States during the last 24 hours, and together with a storm which is moving eastward over Mexico has caused the coldest weather of the season in most of the States from the Mississippi River to the Pacific. Sharp frosts are reported in the San Joaquin Valley, while temperatures from 10 to 20 degs. below freezing prevail along the Rocky Mountain slope and in the Pacific Northwest east of the Cascade Mountains. High northerly winds have also prevailed in Southern California since Saturday. The conditions this morning are favorable for fair weather in Los Angeles and vicinity tonight and Tuesday. If the wind lulls, sharp frosts are probable Tuesday morning in the district back from the Coast.

Forecasts.—Local forecast for Los Angeles and vicinity: Fair tonight and Tuesday; fresh northerly winds.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—An area of high pressure overlies the country west of the Mississippi and has caused unusually cold weather from the Sierra eastward. Heavy frost occurred in the San Joaquin Valley, and conditions are favorable for frost Tuesday morning in the interior of the State. A moderate depression over Arizona is passing southward into Mexico, and as a result cooler weather may occur in Southern California. The pressure is falling on the Oregon coast and the present fair weather may not last long. Forecast:

San Francisco and vicinity: Increasing cloudiness Tuesday, possibly rain by night; light east winds changing to southwest.

Sacramento Valley: Increasing cloudiness Tuesday; probably rain in northern portion by night; light north wind with frost in the morning.

San Joaquin Valley: Fair Tuesday, with heavy frost in the morning, light northwest wind.

Los Angeles and vicinity: Fair Tuesday with frost in the morning in the interior; light northeast winds.

Arizona: Fair Tuesday; Wednesday fair.

DROP OF JOHNNIE STOCK SENSATION.

IT was a "Blue Monday" on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange on the Local Securities call yesterday. The entire market was weak and spotted, declines far outnumbering the advances.

One striking feature on the call was the decline of Associated Oil stock. Few sales were made, and the security closed with a loss. The stock opened with a weak bid of 51, with none offered. Slow biding gradually advanced it to 52¾ at which bid it closed with an offering at 53½, a loss of 5-8 of a point on the bid of Saturday, and ¼ on the price asked at the proceeding session. Only one sale of Associated was made, and that was a call at thirty days at 55.

Olinda Land Company stock was the best thing among the oils Monday. The stock advancing 1¾ on the bid and ¼ on the offering of Saturday. Numerous transactions were made at 12½@ 12 5-8 for regular cash delivery, and 1600 shares changed hands at 12¾ buyer thirty days. The stock opened at 11 bid but rapid work forced it up to the closing at 12½ @ 12¾.

There was considerable bickering over Union Oil, odd lots of four and six shares being offered at prices ranging from $200 to $201, while light bids of 199@199.50 were made. Regular board lots of ten shares were offered at 203, bids of 202@202.75 being made for the security. Reed Crude oil dropped a point on Saturday's bid of 18, closing with no sales made at 15, with none offered. Fullerton oil closed at 65@82. A lot of 10,000 shares was offered at 80 but found no taker. Columbia oil was weak and closed without a quotation. Union Provident Oil advanced $2.00 on the bid closing 202@205.

Bank stocks showed slightly weaker, with no trades recorded. A general tendency to hang about Saturday's prices was apparent among the bonds. Pacific Light and Power bonds were the only things that seemed to be in demand. A sale at 98 cents is reported. Other stock was quiet.

No trading was done in the miscellaneous securities, and the market was generally weaker.

One membership on the Stock Exchange was sold at $100 on a thirty-day call at $3100. A bid of $250 was made for a seat at thirty days call at $3000.

SLUMP COMES.

A great drop in Johnnie Consolidated was the sensation on the Mining Call at the Los Angeles Stock Exchange Monday. The stock opened at 19 and was offered at 24 to start with. The stock went up and down, 20 being bid with an offering at 21. Then the slump came, and the stock rapidly went down until it was selling as low as 17. Sixteen thousand shares changed hands at prices ranging from 17 to 21½ for regular cash delivery. Transactions were also made at 20@25 buyer ninety days, and one sale was made at 23 buyer thirty days. The stock closed at 17¼@18¾.

Clark Copper was in good demand. Several sales were made and the stock closed strong at 66@75. Rapid bidding in Furnace Creek copper raised the price to 3.90@4.10. The market opened it with a bid of 3.50 with none on the floor. It made clear jumps of 25 points on one bid and went as high as 2.97, being offered at 4.05, both quotations were withdrawn. Hecla showed some activity, 100 shares changing hands at 4.35. The security closed well liked at 4.30@4.35. Butte and Greenwater fell away two points on Saturday's bid, closing at 59@59, with no sales recorded. California Hills Mining Company was slightly weaker. Sales were made at 5¾ and the session closed with the stock quoted at 5¼@5¾. Belmont closed under Saturday's market at 6.50 with none for sale. Quartette holds firm at Saturday's price of 13.50 bid, and none offered.

GOSSIP ON 'CHANGE.

Regarding the drop in Johnnie Consolidated it is rumored in some quarters that an option was held on several hundred thousand shares of the stock at about 20 cents, the option expiring in a few days. The owners of the stock are said to be depressing the market so that the holder of the option cannot consummate the deal at 20 cents, and that after expiration of the option the owners of the stock will have an opportunity to market their security at a very much higher price. The general opinion on 'Change is that the drop came through poor manipulation of a large order to sell. No concern is manifested by those holding large amounts of the stock that the slump will continue, as the best of reports have been received regarding the condition of the mine.

While Associated Oil experienced a slight decline Monday, the market was fairly firm and a return to an advanced selling price is looked for today.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

The windy, cold weather interfered with traffic at the produce market yesterday.

The egg market continues to be the feature of the interest in produce circles. Yesterday the price of ranch eggs was reduced to 35 cents. Northern candled and eastern fresh stock dropped to 23 cents per dozen.

The lower quotations came as a complete surprise to most of the egg jobbers for further reductions were not expected this week. Little dissatisfaction was expressed by the jobbers over the weaker prices. Ranch eggs have been too high priced to move at 43@45, consequently most of the egg jobbers have been accumulating a surplus stock, and it was necessary to adopt this method to dispose of these accumulating supplies.

The plan is to make eggs sell more readily by having only fluctuations. Egg jobbers say that they are going to reduce the price of ranch eggs until they are moving freely and that then they will again raise prices. A reaction is being predicted. The local egg market has been out of proportion with San Francisco's egg situation for some time.

Stocks of ranch eggs were offered for sale on 'change yesterday, but as all of the egg dealers seemed well supplied and no bids were made, none were sold. Case-count eggs were offered at 35 cents and bids of 34 cents were made. Storage selected eggs were offered at 34½ cents. Thirteen cases of case count eggs were sold on 'change.

There was no change in the price of butter last Saturday. A little of the uncertainty in the butter situation. Prices are too high between fresh valley creamery and fancy June butter. There is enough butter in storage to last well into the winter. Prices in the east are too high for any heavy shipments to this section. The rain in the north has caused a weaker tendency in San Francisco's butter market.

The market is well supplied with potatoes. Receipts of potatoes were 7222 sacks during Saturday and Sunday. Some weakness is felt on account of the increasing arrivals.

Fancy Bellefleur apples advanced to 1.25 per box, and fancy Jonathans to 2.25@2.35 per box. Japanese persimmons went at 60@7. Muscat grapes are firm at 1.40@1.50. Cranberries are quoted 12@12.50.

Vegetables were in moderate receipt. Peas were in low supply at 3@3½. Cucumbers and tomatoes are firm.

Fish and lobsters were scarce. Wild game was plentiful.

The receipts of produce as reported for Saturday and Sunday's exchange were as follows: Eggs, 1st cases; butter, 22,878 lbs.; cheese, local, 772 lbs.; potatoes, 7222 sacks; onions, 444; beans, 160; sweet potatoes, none.

SHARES AND MONEY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The stock market started the week under the full impulse of the improved tone which developed last week. The first hour's business was the largest for that interval of time of any that has been done for many months past. Prices were affected considerably by invariably the custom of professional operators to distribute stocks to meet new outside demand and profit-taking made its usual impression, but the breadth and strength of the new outside demand and the effective absorption which resulted had a very encouraging effect on sentiment. The speculative forces behind the market, therefore, came in with renewed accumulation and resumed operations for the advance with more appearance of substantial strength than at any time last week. As the day progressed, however, there appeared to be some distaste for the feverish sentiment in St. Paul and the excessive buoyancy displayed by that stock. Other stocks which shared with St. Paul strength last week were notably backward in the movement, and seemed to be freely supplied on all advances. The new candidates for speculative favor were not as influential in their sympathetic effect on other stocks as these prime favorites. Union Pacific and Reading were only occasionally strong, and were constantly carried back by selling to realize, while Southern Pacific and United States Steel, Amalgamated Copper and American Smelting were under pressure that was almost uninterrupted. While not sufficient cause for positive weakness in these stocks until the general decline, when money went to 9 per cent., this pressure was sufficient cause to prevent them from sharing in the strength prevailing elsewhere in the market. Many low-priced non-dividend-paying stocks were also made active at advancing prices, and this suggested an effort to bring about a process of rotation in demand which affords better facilities for digestion of profits. Rates for call loans rose higher than on Friday last, and thus caused some misgivings over the adequacy of the augmented supplies in the money market in case of a successful speculation. Variety was given to last week's rumor on the subject of St. Paul by assigning a possible part to buying in the Hill interests, while last week's rumors were all agreed in a destination for the property in the Harriman combination. The subject of a possible competition to secure the property thus conveyed seemed to jar upon speculative susceptibility to some extent. Reports from abroad pointed to some clearing-up of the doubtful feeling over the money outlook there, as well as here. London discount rates were allowed to go below the official bank rate, and sterling exchange on the continent declined. Here rates for foreign exchange were maintained in spite of a large purchase of stock here for London account and free offerings of commercial bills in the English market. Subtreasury operations were in favor of the money market, the banks having gained $1,162,000 from the government institution since the last statement was compiled. Further release of gold by the Bank of France for London was a factor in favor of the money market. But the rise in call loans to 9 per cent. offset other encouraging features, and was responsible for the free selling which, in the final hour, carried many stocks to a level below Saturday. The market closed easy. Bonds were easy; total sales, par value $1,680,000. United States 2s declined ½ per cent. on call.

NEW JEWISH SYNAGOGUE.

Rabbi Myers Steers Into Middle Course.

Will Conduct Free School for Hebrews.

Plymouth Church Plans for Unique Bazaar.

As an outgrowth of the services held in Simpson Auditorium by Rabbi Isidore Myers, during the recent Jewish holidays, a permanent congregation has been formed. It will be known as the B'nai Congregation, and as soon as possible steps will be taken for the erection of a large synagogue, but for the present the headquarters will be in B. B Hall, No. 521 West Pico street.

MRS. C. J. C. SAUNIER, young matron, who is arranging church bazaar to be given on Thursday.

Rabbi Myers says the congregation will be conducted along conservative lines, steering a middle course between extreme reform and ultra-orthodox. Its motto has been chosen from Zachariah viii, 19: "Love ye truth and peace."

Rabbi Myers has accepted permanent charge of the congregation, and Rev. Marcel Katz has been selected as hazan, or cantor. In connection with the congregation a religious and Hebrew school has been opened, under the superintendence of Rabbi Myers, who will be assisted by a staff of efficient teachers. The classes, which are free to all Jewish children, will meet on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, on Tuesday and Thursday at 3:30 and on Saturday at 11:30.

The inaugural service of the new congregation will be held in Simpson Auditorium on Friday evening, November 30, at 8 o'clock. The following temporary board of officers has been chosen: I. Brown, I. Elsner, D. Hirsh, J. L. Jonas, M. S. Kornblum, J. Laventhal, Adrien Loeb, B. Maier, M. Marks, P. Pehr, J. Rosenberg and I. Saylin, and Max Cohn has been appointed collector.

By a unanimous vote the Jewish Sisterhood of Los Angeles, under the presidency of Mrs. I. Citron, has affiliated itself with the new congregation as an auxiliary to assist generally, but more particularly in educational work. M. S. Kornblum will present the congregation with a new "Scroll of the Law," when he celebrates his silver wedding on Thanksgiving Day.

Those who have been instrumental in getting the new organization under way, are enthusiastic concerning its eventually becoming a very strong and influential congregation, as it starts with a large membership among progressive Hebrews.

PLYMOUTH CHURCH BAZAAR.

The Plymouth Congregational Church bazaar which is to be held on Thursday and Friday of this week, afternoon and evening, promises to be unique and delightful, under the direction of Mrs. A. J. C. Saunier, whose energies have for the past few weeks been directed along this line.

The money accruing from this affair is to go toward the building of the large auditorium, which members are planning. The ladies of the church pledged $1000, and they are doing their best to make good the promise. Those who have booths in charge include: Fancy booth, Mrs. R. J. McKinney; domestic, Mrs. Belle Prentiss; home-cooking, Mrs. Emma Goodman; candy, Mrs. Elizabeth Jeane; bargain counter, Plymouth Pansies; calendar, Harry Goodman, and his Sunday-school class, and a den for men's things will be presided over by Mrs. Saunier. One of the really good features will be the fine dinners which Mrs. Rogers is preparing to serve both evenings. The booths are all to be very pretty affairs, built some in shape of houses, others all of flowers.

RECEPTION TO PASTOR.

Dr. Eli McClish and his wife were given their formal reception into the arms of the West Adams Methodist Church last night. Mr. McClish has been preaching to the congregation for about two months since his appointment by the conference, but for various reasons the reception has been postponed. It was a happy and largely-attended affair last night, with Dr. Robert McIntyre as orator of the occasion.

RELIGIOUS BRIEFS.

The Methodist City Missionary Society will hold a meeting on Friday night at the West Adams Church to map out the work for the coming year. Among other things to be considered will be the location of the proposed new church on West Washington street.

Rev. Albert Hatcher Smith addressed the meeting of the Methodist ministers of the city yesterday morning, and made an eloquent talk upon the duty of the people to the church during the twentieth century.

Frank L. Brown, wife and son, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who have spent several days in the city, left yesterday for San Francisco and will sail for Japan today. They expect to complete their tour around the world in June, 1907.

The Jewish Sisterhood of Los Angeles will give an entertainment and dance at Blanchard Hall tonight, which is to be one of a series in the interest of the new congregation final recently organized by Rabbi Isidore Myers, and of which he was chosen as the spiritual leader. The dance will be preceded by a high-class musical entertainment under the charge of the wife of Rabbi Myers.

MILLION FOR PEACE FROM SKIBO'S VAULT.

Carnegie to Place in the Hands of Congressman Bartholdt a Fund for the Propagation of International Amity.

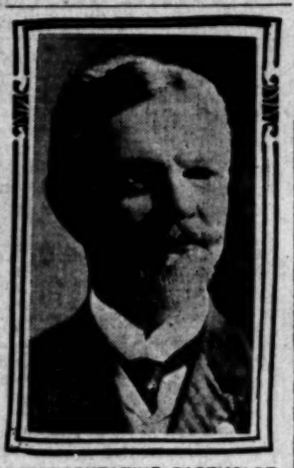
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 19.—The Post Dispatch today says:

"Congressman Richard Bartholdt left, this morning, for New York at the invitation of Andrew Carnegie, who has promised to turn over to him $1,000,000, to be used in furthering the propaganda for international peace.

"The matter has been under consideration for some time. Before Mr. Bartholdt left for New York, he told several friends of the plan, and expressed hopefulness as to the result of the work.

"One of these friends said that the money had been definitely promised, and that the present visit of the Congressman to the iron master is to arrange for the transfer of the fund and for the formation of the peace bureau, which will have in charge the campaign.



REPRESENTATIVE BARTHOLDT, Missouri Congressman to whom Carnegie will turn over $1,000,000 to further international peace propaganda.

INCOME ONLY AVAILABLE.

"Only the income of the fund will be utilized. This income will amount to $40,000 or $50,000 a year. It will be expended in an effort to direct public opinion in favor of arbitration as a means of settling disputes between nations.

"The scope of the work will be world-wide, and those nations which are oftenest engaged in wars and threats of wars will receive the most attention. Literature will be scattered, meetings will be arranged, and all possible means will be adopted to encourage a sentiment against war and bloodshed.

"Mr. Bartholdt has taken a prominent part in the work done by The Hague peace conference, and has had many interviews with Emperor William of Germany, the King of England and other European crowned heads. The formation of the new peace bureau, which will be purely American, will be under the direction of the St. Louis Congressman."

EXPLAINS DISCHARGES.

War Department Finds No Other Method to Punish Negro Troops Who Shot Up Town.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—In relation to the discharge of three companies of the Twenty-fifth Infantry, Acting Secretary of War Oliver said today:

"The three companies of the Twenty-fifth infantry were ordered discharged because it is not safe to have them in the army. They cannot be trusted, and for the protection of the public and the preservation of the discipline of the army their discharge is necessary.

"The idea seems to prevail that the men were ordered discharged because they refused to tell on their companions, and because they are black. Nothing could be further from the truth. These soldiers shot up a town. All of them refused to tell anything about a disgraceful affair at Brownsville, which resulted in murder. The companies are shielding murderers. There are men in the companies who are criminals of the worst sort. Every effort possible has been made by the War Department to find the guilty but without avail. If these men were permitted to remain in the service and were to shoot up another town and again endanger the lives of citizens the War Department would be in an indefensible position. It is impossible to court-martial each of the men in these companies for a charge cannot be preferred against every one of the members of the companies. The government has no means of punishing the crime committed except by discharging all of the men."

BUSINESS SECTION BURNS.

Seventy-Five Thousand Dollar Fire at Fayette, Miss., Starts at Night in McGinnis's Cafe.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

JACKSON (Miss.) Nov. 19.—Practically the entire business section of Fayette, Miss., was destroyed by fire tonight, entailing a loss of about $75,000, partially insured.

The fire originated in McGinnis's Café, which was destroyed, the flames rapidly spreading to the adjoining buildings.

The telephone exchange was destroyed, and the grounding of the Western Union wire makes it impossible to get details.

DEPORTS REVOLUTIONIST.

Immigration Commissioners Decide to Return Mexican Conspirator to His Native Land.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

EL PASO, (Tex.) Nov. 19.—United States Immigration Inspectors Schmucker, Strand and Gatling held another investigation this afternoon of the case of Antonio Villareal, the alleged Mexican revolutionist in jail here pending extradition, and decided to deport him in accordance with instructions issued by the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, reversing the decision made some days ago. Villareal, through his attorney at once filed an appeal to the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, thus securing a stay.

DESPERATE FIGHT.

In a desperate fight betwen B. Morello and L. Lopez at a grading camp near Vermont avenue and Forty-eighth street last night, Lopez was beaten insensible. Morello was captured and tied to a tree until police from the University station took him in charge. Lopez was sent to the Receiving Hospital. Morello said that Lopez borrowed money from him in Redondo some time ago and failed to pay it back. He claims that when he went to the grading camp and asked Lopez for the money, the later attempted to stab him.

CLOTHING STOLEN.

James Taylor of No. 542 Maple avenue reported to the police last night that his room had been entered and his clothing stolen. Robert Hall of No. 712 East Fifth street, also reported the theft of clotaing.

Chrysanthemums Good to Eat.

Chrysanthemums are good to eat—that is, the leaves of the big, bushy flower, much like a beautiful cabbage, make a good salad if they are properly prepared.

In fact, the dish is one that is highly prized by the Chinese, and one that often finds its way to the tables of Chinese nobility who are particularly fond of delicacies.

This information was vouchsafed by Sir Chentung Liang-Cheng, K. C. M. G., E. E. and M. P., Chinese Minister, when he visited the "mum" show in the War Department's propagating gardens, just south of the Washington monument, and back of the bureau of engraving, and in addition to admiring the flowers greatly, he told Mr. Brown about the value of the "mums" as a food product.

They Have Good Blood.

"Sure he's swell!" exclaimed the Chicagoan, referring to a prominent fellow-citizen. "Why, his family's got money to burn."

"But their blood," suggested the Boston girl, "what of that?"

"Why, they make extract o' beef an' such like out o' that. Nothin' never goes to waste in their slaughter-house."—[Philadelphia Press.

ROBBED IN NEW YORK.

A New York dispatch says that Paul Mercier of Los Angeles told the police there yesterday that he was robbed of $100 by means of the envelope trick in Central Park, and George Fotomollos of No. 126 West Twenty-eighth street is locked up, charged with the robbery.

KNOCKS OVER LAMP.

An aged Mexican woman set a house at No. 508½ East First street on fire early this morning. She was intoxicated, and knocked over a coal-oil lamp. E. D. Watson extinguished the flames. The woman was taken to the City Jail. She refused to give her name.
